AWARD

(Delivered on this the 16th day of the month of August of the year 2018)

By order dated 11-07-2002, bearing No. 28/30/2002-LAB, the Government of Goa in exercise of powers conferred by Section 10 (1) (d) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (for short the Act), has referred the following dispute to this Tribunal for adjudication:

(1) Whether the action of the management of M/s Herald Publication Pvt. Ltd., in terminating the services of Shri Pandurang R. Gaonkar with effect from 14-10-1998 is legal and justified?

(2) If not, to what relief the workman is entitled?

2. Upon receipt of the reference, IT/46/02 came to be registered and notices were issued to both the parties under registered A.D. post. Upon their appearance, Party I filed a claim statement at Exh. 5 and Party II filed the written statement at Exh. 6.

3. In short, the case of Party I is that that Party I was appointed on probation as junior artist on 1-6-1995 by Party II and that since then he discharged his duties diligently. The Party I reported on 29-3-1997 for work inspite of the fact that he was not feeling well as his condition became unbearable. He informed one Shri Jerry and the security guard and went home. He could not report for duty as he was sick and when he reported for duty on 7-4-1997 along with documents, he was slapped with a show cause notice with false allegation and was not allowed to enter and occupy his chair. The Party I replied to the notice, however he was again issued a show cause notice with false allegations which was again replied. The Party I was thereafter issued a charge sheet and the enquiry was held. He, however was not allowed to enter the premises which amounted to refusal of employment. The Party I raised a dispute before the Labour Commissioner, however in the meantime the Enquiry Officer commenced the enquiry and concluded in his absence. The conciliation proceedings ended in failure. The enquiry conducted against the Party I is bad in law, perverse and arbitrary. The action of the Party II in termination his services is illegal. Hence, the reference.

4. The Party II in the written statement has claimed that the reference is not maintainable. The Party I was employed as junior artist and was entrusted with a job of designing, scanning, etc. The Party I failed to do routine work entrusted to him and was sitting idle. He did not complete the job and refused to educate his colleagues of the job inspite of clear instructions to that effect. The Party II suffered loss besides harm to the reputation of the organization. The Party II therefore issued a show cause notice, charge sheet and conducted enquiry by appointing an independent Enquiry Officer who submitted his findings holding Party I guilty of charges. The action taken by Party II is legal, just and bonafide. Hence, the reference be dismissed.

5. Issues that came to be framed at Exh. 7 are as follows:-

- (1) Whether the Party I proves that the domestic enquiry held against him is not fair and proper?
- (2) Whether the charges of misconduct levelled against the Party I are proved to the satisfaction of the Tribunal by acceptable evidence?
- (3) Whether the Party I proves that termination of his service by the Party II w.e.f. 14-10-98 is illegal and unjustified?
- (4) Whether the Party II proves that there was no demand on them and therefore the reference is not maintainable?
- (5) Whether the Party I is entitled to any relief?
- (6) What Award?

6. It is a matter of record that preliminary issues No. 1 and 2 were answered vide Order dated 27-07-2012 at Exh. 18 and held that domestic enquiry held against the workman, Shri Pandurang Gaonkar is fair and proper and that he is guilty of charges leveled against him in the charge sheet dated 27-5-1997 and they are for contravention of Service Rules and Regulations under the letter of appointment dated 1-2-1996 issued to the workman and under the provisions of Model Standing Orders applicable to the workman under Clause No. 12, 13(a) and 17(b).

7. The Party I workman has not led any evidence in support of issue No. 3 to 6 inspite of several opportunities. The Party II however examined Shri Vinayak Pai Bir who filed affidavit in evidence at Exh. 32.

8. Heard arguments. Notes of Written arguments came to be placed on record by Party II.

9. I have gone through the records of the case and have duly considered the arguments advanced. My answers to the above issues are as follows:

- Issue No. 3 : In the Negative.
 Issue No. 4 : In the Negative.
 Issue No. 5 : As per final order.
 Issue No. 6 : As per final order.

REASONS

Issue No. 3:

10. Learned Adv. Shri P. Chawdikar for the Party II has submitted and rightly so that the Party I has not appeared before the Court and it appears that he was not interested in pursuing the matter nor proved issue No. 3 that the termination of his services by Party II w.e.f. 14-10-1998 is illegal and unjustified. The burden to prove that the action taken by the company is not justified lies on the workman and unless the said burden is discharged by the workman, the onus will not shift on Party II Company to prove otherwise. The Party I workman has neither led any evidence nor proved the above issue. The Party I has therefore failed to discharge the above burden. The witness of Party II, Shri Vinayak Pai Bir, on the contrary has placed all the relevant facts to prove the case of Party II. He has claimed that termination of Party II is based on the misconducts proved at the enquiry and punishment imposed on Party I is as per the Standing Orders of the company and that the acts of misconducts of Party I as well as past service records were considered before his termination and that there is no victimization in so far as punishment imposed on Party I is concerned. He also stated that Party I is gainfully employed. The said witness has not been cross examined by Party I and his deposition has gone unchallenged and unrebutted. The Party I therefore failed to discharge his burden of proving issue No. 3. Hence, the above issue is answered in the negative.

Issue No. 4:

11. The Party II has not led any evidence to prove that there was no demand on them and the reference is not maintainable. Hence, the above issue No. 4 is answered in the negative.

Issue No. 5 & 6

12. It is well settled in the case of Mahindra and Mahindra Ltd. vs. N. B. Narawade, 2005 (I) CLR 803, that discretion under Section 11-A of the Industrial Disputes Act to alter or to reduce punishment is not unlimited and it is available only on the existence of certain factors like punishment being disproportionate to the gravity of misconduct so as to disturb the conscience of the Court or existence of any mitigating circumstances which requires the reduction of sentence or the past conduct of the workman which may persuade the Court to reduce the punishment and in the absence of any such factor existing, the Court cannot by way of sympathy alone exercise the power under Section 11-A of the Act and reduce the punishment. It is also held in the case of Chairman and Managing Director, United Commercial Bank and other vs. P. C. Kakkar, 2003 LLR 436 SC, that the Court should not interfere with the administrator's decision unless it was illogical or suffers from procedural impropriety or was shocking to the conscience of the Court, in the sense that it was in defiance of logic or moral standards. The Party I has failed to prove that the termination of his services by Party II is illegal and unjustified and that he was not gainfully employed during the interim period for lack of evidence in support of the above issues nor he proved that the punishment awarded to him and action taken against him is improper or unjustified. The Party I is therefore not entitled for any reliefs.

13. In the result, I pass the following:

ORDER

- i. The present reference stands dismissed.
- ii. It is hereby held the action of the management of M/s Herald Publication Pvt. Ltd., in terminating the services of Shri Pandurang R. Gaonkar with effect from 14-10-1998 is legal and justified.
- iii. The Party I workman is therefore not entitled to any reliefs.
- iv. No order as to costs.
- v. Inform the Government accordingly.
