CHAPTER-II

Registration

4. Registrar and his subordinates.— (1) The Government may appoint a person to be the Registrar of Co-operative Societies for the State and may appoint one or more persons to assist such Registrar with such designation, and in such local areas or throughout the State, as it may specify in that behalf and may, by general or special order, confer on any such person or persons all or any of the powers of the Registrar under this Act. The person or persons so appointed to assist the Registrar and on whom any powers of the Registrar are conferred, shall work under the general guidance, superintendence and control of the Registrar. They shall be subordinate to the Registrar and subordination of such persons amongst themselves shall be such as may be determined by the Government.

(2) The person appointed under sub-section (1) as the Registrar, shall not, during the course of his service, serve in any capacity with any society.

5. Societies which may be registered.— (1) Only such society may be registered as a co-operative society under this Act which provides in its bye-laws for the social and economic betterment of its members through self help and mutual aid in accordance with the co-operative principles.

(2) A Society shall be registered with limited liability.

6. Conditions of registration.— (1) No society, other than a federal society, shall be registered under this Act unless it consists of at least ten persons (each of such persons being a member of a different family), who are qualified to be members under this Act and who reside or carry on business or profession in the area of operation of the society:

Provided that a co-operative housing society consisting of at least five such persons who are residing or intend to reside in the area of operation of the society may be registered under this Act:

Provided further that, a lift irrigation society consisting of five or more such persons may be registered under this Act.

(2) No federal society shall be registered unless it has at least five societies as its members.

(3) Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to affect the registration of any society made before the commencement of this Act.

(4) The name of the society shall not have any reference to any caste or religious denomination.

(5) The word "limited" or its equivalent in any language shall be the last word in the name of every society which is registered or deemed to be registered under this Act.

Explanation.— For the purposes of this section and section 7, the expression "member of a family" means wife, husband, father, mother, unmarried son and unmarried daughter.

7. Application for registration.— (1) For the purposes of registration; an application shall be made to the Registrar in the form prescribed and shall be accompanied by four copies of the proposed bye-laws of the society and such registration fee as may be determined by the Registrar. Different registration fees may be determined for different classes of societies, regard being had to the service involved in processing an application for registration.

(2) The application shall be signed,—

(a) in the case of a society other than a federal society, by at least ten persons (each of such persons being a member of a different family), who are qualified under this Act; and

(b) in the case of a co-operative housing society, by at least five such persons:

Provided that in case where a co-operative housing society consists of more than five persons in accordance with the scheme of housing on the plot of land mentioned in the objects of the society, the application shall be signed by at least fifty one per cent. of the total number of the expected members;

(c) in the case of lift irrigation society, by at least five such persons; and

(d) in the case of a federal society, by at least five societies.

(3) No signature to an application on behalf of a society shall be valid, unless the person signing is a member of the Board of Directors of such society, and is authorised by the Board by a resolution to sign on its behalf, the application for registration of the society and its bye-laws, and a copy of such resolution is appended to the application.

8. Registration.— (1) If the Registrar is satisfied that a proposed society has complied with the provisions of sections 5, 6 and 7 of this Act, and the rules made thereunder, he may register the society.

(2) Where the Registrar refuses to register a proposed society, he shall communicate his decision, with the reasons therefor, to the person making the application, within forty five days from the, date of receipt of the application. In case no refusal is communicated within the said period of forty five days, the society shall be deemed to have been refused registration under this Act.

(3) An appeal against the order of refusal of registration under sub-section (2) shall be filled before the co-operative tribunal within a period of sixty days from the date of such refusal or deemed refusal, as the case may be.

(4) The Registrar shall maintain a register of all societies registered under this Act.

9. Evidence of registration.— A certificate of registration signed by the Registrar or a certified copy of the entry in the register maintained under sub-section (3) of section 8 of the Act shall be conclusive evidence that the society therein mentioned, is duly registered, unless it is proved that the registration of the society has been cancelled.

10. Classification of Societies.— (1) The Registrar shall classify all societies into one or other of the classes of societies defined in section 2 of this Act and also into such sub-classes thereof as may be prescribed.

(2) The Registrar may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, alter the classification of a society from one class of society to another, or from one sub-class thereof to another and may, in the interest of the co-operative movement and on such terms and conditions as he may think fit to impose, allow any society so classified to undertake the activities of a society belonging to another class.

(3) A list of all societies so classified shall be published by the Registrar every three years in such manner as the Government may, from time to time, direct.

11. Amendment of bye-laws of society.— (1) No amendment of the bye-laws of a society shall be valid until registered under this Act. For the purpose of registration of an amendment of the bye-laws, a copy of the amendment passed by a majority of not less than two third of the members entitled to vote who are present at a general meeting of the society shall be forwarded to the Registrar ⁵[alongwith the prescribed fee].

(2) Every application for registration of an amendment of the bye-laws shall be decided and communicated to the society by the Registrar within a period of forty five days from the date of its receipt.

(3) In case of refusal of amendment, if the decision is not communicated to the society, with the reasons therefor, within the said period of forty five days, the said amendment of the bye-laws shall be deemed to have been registered.

(4) Where the Registrar registers an amendment of the bye-laws of a society or where the amendment of the bye-laws is deemed to have been registered, he shall issue to the society a copy of the amendment certified by him, which shall be conclusive evidence that the same is duly registered.

the Co-operative Tribunal within a period of 60 days from the date of communication of such decision.].

12. Power to direct amendment of bye-laws.— (1) If, it appears to the Registrar, that an amendment of the bye-laws of a society is necessary or desirable in the interest of such society, he may call upon the society, in the manner prescribed, to make the amendment within such time as he may specify.

(2) If the society fails to make the amendment within the time specified, the Registrar may refer the matter to the co-operative tribunal for its decision. If the co-operative tribunal, after giving the society an opportunity of being heard, orders registration of the amendment, the bye-laws shall be deemed to have been duly amended accordingly with effect from the date of the order of the Co-operative Tribunal and the bye-laws, as amended, shall, subject to appeal, if any, be binding on the society and its members.

13. Change of name.— (1) A society may, by resolution passed at a general meeting and with the approval of the Registrar, change its name; but such change shall not affect any right or obligation of the society, or any of its members, or past members, or deceased members and any legal proceedings pending before any person, authority or court may be continued by or against the society, under its new name.

(2) Where a society changes its name, the Registrar shall enter the new name in its place in the register of societies and shall also amend the certificate of registration accordingly.

14. Change of liability.— (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act and the rules, a society may, by amendment of its bye-laws, change the form or extent of its limited liability.

(2) When a society has passed a resolution to change the form or extent of its liability, it shall give notice thereof in writing to all its members and creditors and notwithstanding anything in any bye-law or contract to the contrary, any member or creditor shall, during a period of one month from the date of service of such notice upon him, have the option of withdrawing his shares, deposits or loans.

(3) Any member or creditor who does not exercise his option within the period specified in sub-section (2), shall be deemed to have assented to the change.

(4) An amendment of the bye-laws of a society, changing the form or extent of its liability, shall not be registered or take effect until, either—

(a) all members and creditors have assented, or deemed to have assented thereto, as aforesaid; or

(b) all claims of members and creditors who exercise the option, given by sub-section (2), within the period specified therein, have been met in full or otherwise satisfied.

15. Amalgamation, transfer, division or conversion of societies.— (1) A society may, by a resolution passed by two-thirds majority of the members present and voting at a special general meeting held for the purpose, decide—

(a) to amalgamate with another society;

(b) to transfer its assets and liabilities, in whole or in part, to any other society;

- (c) to divide itself into two or more societies, or
- (d) to convert itself into another class of society.

(2) Such decision shall take effect after the approval of the Registrar who shall pass the necessary order to that effect.

(3) When such amalgamation, transfer, division or conversion as aforesaid involves a transfer of the liabilities of a society to any other society, no order on the resolution shall be passed by the Registrar, unless he is satisfied that—

(i) the society, after passing such resolution, has given notice thereof in such manner as may be prescribed to all its members, creditors and other persons whose interests are likely to be affected (hereinafter in this section referred to as “other interested persons”), giving them the option, to be exercised within one month from the date of such notice, of becoming members of any of the new societies, or continuing their membership in the amalgamated or converted society, or demanding payment of their share or interest or dues, as the case may be;

(ii) all the members and creditors and other interested persons have assented to the decision, or deemed to have assented thereto by virtue of any member or creditor or any other interested person failing to exercise his option within the period specified in clause (i) aforesaid; and

(iii) all claims of members and creditors and other interested persons, who exercise the option within the period specified have been met in full or otherwise satisfied.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Transfer of Property Act, 1882 (IV of 1882) or the Registration Act, 1908 (XVI of 1908), in the event of division or conversion, the registration of the new societies or, as the case may be, of the converted society, and in the event of amalgamation, the resolution of the societies concerned with amalgamation, shall, in each case, be sufficient conveyance to vest the assets and liabilities of the original society or amalgamating societies in the new societies or converted or amalgamated society, as the case may be.

⁷[(4A) Where any society is found to be degenerating in its operation and the share value of such society has come down below its face value as on the last day of the year immediately preceding its revaluation, the Registrar may, in the interest of members, suo-motu, direct the society to,—

- (a) amalgamate with another society;
- (b) transfer its assets and liabilities, in whole or in part, to any other society;
- (c) divide itself into two or more societies; or
- (d) convert itself into another class of society.

In case the society fails to complete the process of amalgamation, transfer, division or conversion, as the case may be, within 45 days from the date of such direction, the Registrar shall order the amalgamation, transfer, division or conversion, as the case may be, of such degenerating society. All claims of members, creditors and other interested persons of such society as on the date of such order shall stand transferred to the society with which such degenerating society may have been amalgamated, or to the society to whom assets and liabilities have been transferred or to the society formed after division or conversion, as the case may be].

(5) The amalgamation of societies, or division or conversion of a society shall not affect any rights or obligation of the societies so amalgamated, or society so divided or converted, or render defective any legal proceedings which might have been continued or commenced by or against the societies which have been amalgamated, or divided or converted; and accordingly, such legal proceedings may be continued or commenced by or against the amalgamated society or as the case may be the converted society, or the new societies.

(6) Where two or more societies have been amalgamated or a society has been divided or converted, the registration of such societies or society shall be cancelled on the date of registration of the amalgamated society, or the converted society, or the new societies between which the society may have been divided.

16. Re-construction of societies.— Where a proposal for a compromise or arrangement,—

(a) between a society and its creditors, or

(b) between a society and its members, is approved at a special general meeting called for the purpose, the Registrar may, on the application of the society or of any member or of any creditor of the society, or in the case of a society which is being wound up, of the liquidator, order re-construction of the society in the prescribed manner.

17. Partnership of societies and subsidiary.— (1) Any two or more societies may, by resolution passed by three-fourths majority of the members present and voting at a general meeting of each such society, enter into partnership for carrying out any specific business or businesses, provided that each member has had clear ten days written notice of the resolution and the date of the meeting.

(2) Nothing in the Partnership Act, 1932 (9 of 1932) shall apply to such partnership.

(3) The annual reports and accounts relating to specific business or businesses of each such society shall be placed before the annual general meeting of each such society.

(4) Any society may, by resolution passed at general meeting by three-fourths majority of members present and voting, promote one or more subsidiary organisations for the furtherance of its stated objectives and such organisations may be registered under any law for the time being in force as agreed to by the general body.

(5) The annual reports and accounts of such subsidiary organisations shall be placed before the general meeting of the promoting co-operative society every year.

(6) Any subsidiary organisation created under sub-section (4) shall exist only as long as the general body of the co-operative society deems its existence necessary.

(7) The concerned society shall intimate to the Registrar about such partnership or subsidiary within a month of its formation or dissolution.

18. Collaboration by societies.— Any society may, by resolution passed in a general meeting by three-fourth majority of members present and voting, enter into collaboration with any Government undertaking or any undertaking approved by the Government for carrying on any specific business or businesses, including industrial investment, financial aid or marketing and management expertise.

19. Cancellation of registration.— The Registrar shall make an order cancelling the registration of a society if it transfers the whole of its assets and liabilities to another society, or amalgamates with another society, or divides itself into two or more societies or if its affairs are wound up, or it is de-registered under the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 20, or winding up proceedings in respect of the society are closed or terminated under section 99. The society shall, from the date of such order of cancellation, be deemed to be dissolved, and shall cease to exist as a corporate body.

20. De-registration of Societies.— (1) If the Registrar is satisfied that any society is registered on misrepresentation made by applicants, or where the work of the society is completed or exhausted or the purposes for which the society has been registered are not served, he may, after giving an opportunity of being heard to the chief promoter, the Board of Directors and the members of the society, de-register the society: .

Provided that, where the number of members of the society is so large and it is not possible to ascertain the correct addresses of all such members from the records in the office of the Registrar and, in the opinion of the Registrar it is not practicable to serve a notice of hearing on each such individual member, a public notice of the proceedings of de-registration shall be given in the prescribed manner and such notice shall be deemed to be notice to all the members of the society including the chief promoter and the members of the Board of Directors of the society, and no proceedings in respect of the de-registration of the society shall be called in question in any court merely on the ground that individual notice is not served on any such member.

(2) When a society is de-registered under the provisions of sub-section (1), the Registrar may, notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or any other law for the time being in force, make such incidental and consequential orders including appointment of Official assignee as the circumstances may require.

(3) The official assignee shall realise the assets and liquidate the liabilities within a period of one year from the date he takes over the charge of the property, assets, books, records and other documents, which period may, at the discretion of the Registrar, be extended from time to time, so however, that the total period does not exceed three years in the aggregate.

(4) The Official assignee shall be paid such remuneration and allowances as may be prescribed, and he shall not be entitled to any remuneration whatever beyond the prescribed remuneration or allowance.

^{7-A}[(5) The powers of the Registrar under sub-sections (1) and (2) shall not be exercised by any person or persons on whom all or any of the powers of the Registrar are conferred under section 4.]

^{7-A} Omitted vide Amendment Act 6 of 2010.

⁸[(6) Surplus remained after the process of de-registration shall be transferred to “Surplus Fund Account” of the Registrar.

Explanation:– For the purpose of this sub-section, “Surplus Fund Account” means account maintained for the purpose of surplus referred to in this sub-section].

⁹[20A. Liability of a co-operative bank to the Deposit Insurance and Credit Guarantee Corporation.— Notwithstanding anything contained in section 15 or any other provision of this Act, where a co-operative bank, being an insured bank within the meaning of the Deposit Insurance and Credit Guarantee Corporation Act, 1961 (47 of 1961), is amalgamated or re-organised and the Deposit Insurance and Credit Guarantee Corporation has become liable to pay to the depositors of the insured bank under sub-section (2) of section 16 of that Act, the bank with which such insured bank is amalgamated or the new co-operative bank formed after such amalgamation, or as the case may be, the insured bank or the transferee bank, shall be under an obligation to repay to the Deposit Insurance and Credit Guarantee Corporation in the circumstances, to the extent and in the manner referred to in section 21 of the Deposit Insurance and Credit Guarantee Corporation Act, 1961 (47 of 1961).].

CHAPTER -III

Members and their Right and Liabilities

21. Person who may become member.— (1) Any person, who needs the services of the society, accepts the responsibilities of membership and fulfills such other conditions as may be specified in the bye-laws of the society, may be admitted as a member.

(2) No person shall be admitted as a member of a society except the following, that is to say: —

(a) an individual, who is a citizen of India and who is competent to contract under the Contract Act, 1872 (9 of 1872);

(b) a firm, company or any other body corporate constituted under any law for the time being in force, or a society registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860 (XXI of 1860);

(c) a society registered, or deemed to be registered, under this Act or any other Co-operative Societies Act;

(d) a public trust registered under any law for the time being in force for the registration of such trusts.

¹⁰[(e) Any Self Help Group formed by women for mutual assistance or with an objective to avail any type of assistance from the Government or any organization for their social, economic, cultural and educational improvement.]

(3) Admission of members may be made only by an elected board of directors or by the general body where such a board does not exist:

(4) A person admitted as a member may exercise the rights of membership, including the right to vote, only on fulfillment of such conditions as may be laid down from time to time in the bye-laws.

22. Open membership.— (1) No society shall, without sufficient cause, refuse admission to membership to any person duly qualified therefore under the provisions of this Act and its bye-laws.

(2) Where a person is refused admission as a member of a society, the decision, with the reason therefore, shall be communicated to that person within fifteen days of the date of the decision, or within three months from the date of the application for admission, whichever is earlier.

(3) Any person aggrieved by the decision of a society refusing him admission of its membership, may appeal to the Co-operative Authority.

(4) Where a society refuses to accept the application from an eligible person for admission as member, or the payment made by him in respect of membership, or having accepted the membership application, a society does not convey its decision within three months from the date of receipt of application, the membership shall be deemed to have been refused and the person aggrieved may appeal to the Co-operative Authority.

(5) An appeal under sub-section (3) shall be filed within two months of the date of communication of refusal and under sub-section (4) within two months of deemed refusal.

(6) Every such appeal under sub-section (3) or (4) shall, as far as possible, be disposed of by the Co-operative Authority within a period of three months from the date of its receipt.

23. Joint member.— (1) Subject to the provisions of section 21, a society may admit any person as a joint member. A joint member shall hold jointly a share of the society with another but his name shall not stand first in the share certificate.

(2) A member of a society may appoint not more than one joint member.

(3) When a person whose name stands first in the share certificate ceases to be a member, the person admitted as joint member shall automatically be the first member. In the event of the cessation of membership of the first member by death, the joint member shall be the first member and the nominee, if any, of the deceased member shall be the joint member.

(4) The joint member shall have equal right in the capital and property of the society with the first member.

(5) The joint member shall have the right to vote only in the absence of the member whose name stands first in the share certificate.

24. Cessation of membership.— A person shall cease to be a member of a society on his resignation from the membership thereof being accepted or on the transfer of the whole of his share or interest in the society to another member, or on his death, or removal or expulsion from the society or ceasing to hold the qualification for the membership under the bye-laws of the society or where a firm, company, any other corporate body, society or trust is a member, on its dissolution or ceasing to exist.

25. Removal of member.— A society may, by a resolution passed in a general meeting held for the purpose, remove a member on the ground that,-

(1) he carries on business which is in conflict and in competition with the business of the society as specified in the bye-laws of the society;

(2) he has not used for ¹²[five] consecutive years the service of a society to a minimum level as specified in the bye-laws;

(3) he has not attended ¹³[five] consecutive annual general meetings of the society;

(4) he is in default regarding any payment to be made to the society exceeding an amount and for the period as specified in the bye-laws:

Provided that no such resolution shall be valid unless the member concerned is given an opportunity of representing his case to the general body.

¹⁴[Provided further that the provisions of clauses (2) and (3) above shall not apply to the members elected to the representative general body in accordance with section 69. However, the representative elected to the representative general body shall be deemed to have been disqualified in case he fails to attend two consecutive general meetings and the resulting vacancy shall be filled by conducting bye-election within a period of six months from the date of such disqualification. The term of the representative elected in the bye-election shall be co-terminus with other elected representatives].

26. Expulsion of member.— (1) A society may, by resolution passed by a majority of not less than three-fourths of the members entitled to vote who are present at a general meeting held for the purpose, expel a member for acts which are detrimental to the interest or proper working of the society:

Provided that, no such resolution shall be valid, unless the member concerned is given an opportunity of representing his case to the general body. If the member is aggrieved by the decision of the society expelling him from its membership, he may appeal to the Co-operative Authority within two months of the date of the communication of such decision.

(2) No member of a society who has been expelled under the foregoing sub-sections shall be eligible for re-admission as a member of that society, for a period of one year from the date of such expulsion.

¹⁴ Inserted by the Goa Co-operative Societies (Amendment) Act, 2009.

27. Rights of membership.— No person shall exercise the rights of the member of a society, until he has made such payment to the society in respect of membership, or acquired such interest in the society as may be specified in the bye-laws of such society.

28. Voting powers of members.— (1) Save as otherwise provided herein and in sub-sections (2) to (7), no member of any society shall have more than one vote in its affairs and every right to vote shall be exercised personally and not by proxy:

Provided that a member who is in the employment of the Defence Services shall be entitled to vote by proxy through any other member of the society if he is unable to exercise his right of vote personally:

Provided further that in the case of an equality of votes, the Chairman shall have a casting vote.

(2) Where a share of a society is held jointly by more than one person, only the person whose name stands first in the share certificate, shall have the right to vote. But in his absence, the person whose name stands second shall have the right to vote.

(3) A society which has invested any part of its funds in the shares of another society, may appoint any one of its directors or officers to vote on its behalf in the affairs of that other society; and accordingly, such director shall have the right to vote on behalf of the first society.

(4) A company or any other body corporate constituted under any law for the time being in force which has invested any part of its funds in the shares of a society may appoint any one of its directors or officers to vote on its behalf in the affairs of such society; and accordingly, such director or officer shall have the right to vote on behalf of the company or body corporate.

(5) Where a firm has invested any part of its funds in the shares of a society, any one of its partners appointed by the firm shall be entitled to vote in the affairs of the society on behalf of the firm.

(6) A public trust which has invested any part of its fund in the shares of a society, may appoint any of its members or trustees, to vote on its behalf in the affairs of that society; and accordingly, such person shall have the right to vote on behalf of the public trust.

(7) In the case of a federal society, the voting rights of individual members thereof shall be such as may be regulated by the rules made under this Act and by the bye-laws of the society.

(8) No nominee of a Government or of any financial institution of any society shall be entitled to vote at any meeting of the society or election of its Board of Directors.

(9) If a member has taken loan from the society, such member shall, in case he is a defaulter in paying three or more consecutive instalments towards repayment of the loan on the due dates, have no right to vote in the affairs of the society:

Provided that, a member shall not be deemed to be a defaulter if he has discharged his obligations to deliver his marketable produce to the marketing or processing society and the value of such produce is not less than the amount of his dues, even if the actual settlement of his dues, either in whole or in part, takes place at a later date.

^{14-A}[28A. Restrictions on holding of shares.— In any society, no member other than the Government or any other society shall hold more than such portion of the total share capital of the society (in no case exceeding one-fifth thereof) as may be prescribed:]

29. Restrictions on transfer or charge on share or interest.— (1) A transfer of, or charge on the share or interest of a member in the share capital of the society shall be subject to such conditions as may be prescribed.

(2) A member shall not transfer any share held by him or his interest in the capital or property of any society, or any part thereof, unless—

(a) he has held such share or interest for not less than one year;

(b) the transfer is made to a member of the society or to a person whose application for membership has been accepted by the society.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-sections (1) and (2), where a member is allowed to resign, or is expelled, or ceases to be a member on account of his being disqualified by this Act or by the rules made thereunder or by the bye-laws of the society, the society may acquire the share or interest of such member in the share capital by paying for it at the value determined in the manner prescribed, provided that the total payment of share capital of the society in any co-operative year for such purposes does not exceed ten per cent. of the paid up share capital of the society on the last day of the co-operative year immediately preceding.

Explanation.— The right to forfeit the share or interest of any expelled member in the share capital by virtue of any bye-laws of the society, shall not be affected by the aforesaid provisions.

(4) Where the Government contributes to the share capital of a society, it shall not be necessary for the Government to be a member of such society and the restrictions contained in this sections shall not apply to any transfer made by it of its share or interest in the capital of the society, and the Government may, notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, withdraw from the society its share capital at any time, after giving to the society notice thereof of not less than three months.

30. Transmission of interest on death of member.— (1) On the death of a member of a society, the society shall transmit the share or interest of the deceased member to a person or persons nominated, or to such person as may appear to the Board of Directors to be the heir or legal representative of the deceased member:

Provided that, such nominee, heir or legal representative, as the case may be, is duly admitted as a member of the society.

Provided further that nothing contained in this sub-section or in section 21 shall prevent a minor or person of unsound mind from acquiring by inheritance or otherwise, any share or interest of a deceased member in a society.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), any such nominee, heir or legal representative, as the case may be, may require the society to pay to him the value of the share or interest of the deceased member, ascertained in accordance with the rules.

(3) A society may pay all other moneys due to the deceased member from the society to such nominee, heir or legal representative, as the case may be.

^{14-A} Inserted vide amendment Act 6 of 2010.

(4) All transfers and payments duly made by a society in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be valid and effectual against any demand made upon the society by any other person.

31. Share or interest not liable to attachment.— The share or interest of a member in the capital of a society, or in the loan stock issued by a co-operative housing society, or in the funds raised by a society from its members by way of savings deposit, shall not be liable to attachment or sale under any decree or order of a court for or in respect of any debt or liability incurred by the member, and accordingly, neither a receiver under the Provincial Insolvency Act, 1920 (V of 1920), nor any such person or authority under any corresponding law for the time being in force, shall be entitled to, or have any claim on, such share or interest.

32. Rights of members to see books, etc.— (1) Every member shall be entitled to inspect, free of cost, at the society's office during office hours, or at any time fixed for the purpose by the society, the bye-laws, the last three years audited annual financial statements, audit report and audit rectification report and those portions of the minutes of general meetings and Board meetings and books and records relevant to his transactions with the society.

(2) A society shall furnish to a member, on request in writing and on payment of such fees as may be specified in the bye-laws, a copy of any of the documents mentioned in the foregoing sub-section within one month from the date of payment of such fees.

33. Liability of past member and estate of deceased member.— (1) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (2), the liability of a past member, or of the estate of a deceased member, of a society for the debts of the society as they stood,

(a) in the case of a past member, on the date on which he ceased to be a member, and

(b) in the case of a deceased member, on the date of his death, shall cease after a period of two years from such date.

(2) Where a society is ordered to be wound up under any provision of this Act, the liability of a past member or of the estate of a deceased member, who ceased to be a member or died, within two years immediately preceding the date of the order of winding up, shall continue until the entire liquidation proceedings are completed; but such liability shall extend only to the debts of the society as they stood on the date of his ceasing to be a member or death, as the case may be.

34. Insolvency of members.— Notwithstanding anything contained in the Provincial Insolvency Act, 1920 (V of 1920) or any corresponding law for the time being in force, the dues of a society from a member, in insolvency proceedings against him, shall rank in order of priority next to the dues payable by him to the Government or to a local authority.

CHAPTER -IV

Incorporation, Duties and Privileges of Societies

35. Societies to be bodies corporate.— The registration of a society shall render it a body corporate by the name under which it is registered, with perpetual succession and a common seal, and with power to acquire, hold and dispose of property, to enter into contracts, to institute and defend suits and other legal proceedings, and to do all such things as are necessary for the purpose for which it is constituted.

36. Address of societies.— Every society shall have an address registered in accordance with the rules, to which all notices and communication will be sent; and the society shall inform in writing to the Registrar of any change in the said address within thirty days thereof.

37. Register of members.— (1) Every society shall keep a register of its members and enter therein the following particulars, that is to say:—

- (a) the name, address and occupation of each member;
- (b) in the case of a society having share capital, the share held by each member;
- (c) the date on which each person was admitted as a member;
- (d) the date on which any person ceased to be a member;
- (e) such other particulars as may be prescribed:

Provided that, where a society has by or under this Act, permitted a member to transfer his share or interest on death to any person, the register shall also show against the member concerned the name of the person entitled to the share or interest of the member, and the date on which the nomination was recorded.

(2) The register shall be prima facie evidence of the date on which any person was admitted to membership, and of the date on which he ceased to be a member.

38. Copy of Bye-laws etc. to be open to inspection.— The Registrar shall keep the bye-laws and a list of members of the Board of Directors of every society registered under this Act, open for inspection to the public, on payment of such fees as may be prescribed.

39. Admissibility of copy of entry as evidence.— (1) A copy of any entry in any book, register or list, regularly kept in the course of business and in the possession of a society, shall, if duly certified in such manner as may be prescribed, be admissible in evidence of the existence of the entry and shall be admitted as evidence of the matters and transactions therein recorded in every case where, and to the same extent to which, the original entry would, if produced, have been admissible to prove such matters.

(2) In the case of such societies as the Government may, by general or special order direct, no officer of a society shall in any legal proceedings to which the society is not a party, be compelled to produce any of the society's books, the contents of which can be proved under the foregoing sub-section, or to appear as a witness to prove the matters, transactions and accounts therein recorded, unless by order of the Court made for special cause.

40. Power to exempt from taxation.— The Government, by notification in the Official Gazette may, in the case of any society or class of societies, remit—

- (a) the stamp duty with which, under any law relating to stamp duty for the time being in force, instruments executed by or on behalf of a society or by an officer or member thereof, and relating to the business of the society, or any class of such instruments, or awards of the Registrar or his nominee or board of nominee under this Act, are respectively chargeable;
- (b) any fee payable by or on behalf of a society under the law relating to the registration of documents and to court-fees for the time being in force; and

(c) any other tax or fee or duty (or any other portion thereof) payable by or on behalf of a society under any law for the time being in force, which the Government is competent to levy.

41. Restrictions on borrowings.— A society shall receive deposits and loans from members and other persons, only to such extent, and under such conditions, as may be prescribed.

42. Regulation of loan making policy.— (1) No society shall make a loan to any person other than a member, or on the security of its own shares, or on security of any person who is not a member:

Provided that with the approval of the general body, a society may make loans to or accept deposits from another society of its classification which is not its member.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing sub-section, a society may make a loan to a depositor on the security of his deposit.

43. Charge and set off in respect of share or interest of member.— A society shall have charge upon the share or interest in the capital and on the deposits, of a member or past member or deceased member, and upon any dividend, patronage refund or surplus payable to any such member, in respect of any debt due from such member or his estate to the society; and the society may set off any sum credited or payable to such member in or towards payment of any such debt:

Provided that, no co-operative bank shall have a charge upon any sum invested with it by a society out of the provident fund established by it under section 56 or its reserve fund, and no co-operative bank shall be entitled to set off any such sum towards any debts due from the society.

44. Prior claim of society.— (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, but subject to any prior claim of the Government in respect of land revenue or any money recoverable as land revenue and to the provisions of sections 60 and 61 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (V of 1908), —

(a) any debt or outstanding demand, owing to a society by any member or past member or deceased member, shall be a first charge, —

(i) upon the crops or other agricultural produce raised in whole or in part, whether with or without a loan taken from the society by such member or past member or deceased member;

(ii) upon any cattle, fodder for cattle, agricultural or industrial implements or machinery, or raw materials for manufacture, or workshop, godown or place of business supplied to or purchased by such member or past member or deceased member, in whole or in part, from any loan, whether in money or goods made to him by the society; and

(iii) upon any movable property which may have been hypothecated, pledged or otherwise mortgaged by a member with the society, and remaining in his custody;

(b) any outstanding demands or dues payable to a society by any member or past member or deceased member, in respect of rent, shares, loans or purchase money or any other rights or amounts payable to such society, shall be a first charge upon his interest in the immovable property of the society.

Explanation:— The prior claim of the Government in respect of dues other than land revenue, shall be restricted for the purpose of sub-section (1) to the assets created by a member out of the funds in respect of which the Government has a claim.

(2) No property or interest in property, which is subject to a charge under the foregoing sub-section, shall be transferred in any manner without the previous permission of the society; and such transfer shall be subject to such conditions, if any, as the society may impose.

(3) Any transfer made in contravention of sub-section (2) shall be void.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-sections (2) and (3), a society which has as one of its objects the disposal of the produce of its members, may provide in its bye-laws, or may otherwise contract with its members,—

(a) that every such member shall dispose of his produce through the society, and

(b) that any member, who is found guilty of a breach of the bye-laws or of any such contract, shall reimburse the society for any loss, determined in such manner as may be specified in the bye-laws.

45. Deduction from salary to meet society's claim in certain cases.— (1) A member of a society may execute an agreement in favour of the society, providing that his employer shall be competent to deduct from the salary or wages payable to him by the employer, such amount as may be specified in the agreement, and to pay to the society the amounts so deducted in satisfaction of any debt or other demand of the society against the member. A copy of such agreement duly attested by an officer of the society shall be forwarded by the society to the employer.

(2) On receipt of a copy of such agreement, the employer shall, if so required by the society, by a requisition in writing in the form prescribed, and so long as the total amount shown in the copy of the agreement as payable to the society has been deducted and paid to the society, make the deduction in accordance with the agreement and pay the amount so deducted to the society, as if it were a part of the wages payable by him as required under the Payment of Wages Act, 1936 (IV of 1936) on the day on which he makes payment.

(3) If, after the receipt of a requisition made under the foregoing sub-section, the employer at any time fails to deduct the amount specified in the requisition from the salary or wages payable to the member concerned or makes default in remitting the amount deducted to the society, the employer shall be personally liable for the payment of such amount or where the employer has made deductions but the amount so deducted is not remitted to the society, then such amount together with interest thereon at one and half times the rate of interest charged by the society, to the member for the period commencing on the date on which the amount was due to be paid to the society and ending on the date of actually remitting it to the society; and such amount together with the interest thereon, if any, shall, on a certificate issued by the Registrar, be recoverable from him as an arrear of land revenue, and the amount and interest so due shall rank in priority in respect of such liability of the employer as wages in arrears.

(4) A requisition under sub-section (2) shall be made by the society within one year from the date of default by the member concerned in payment of any debt or other demand of the society.

(5) This section shall not apply to the surety of a loanee member.

CHAPTER - V

State aid to Societies

46. Government investment in societies.— The Government may subscribe to the share capital of a society with limited liability, upon, such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon.

47. Liability to be limited in respect of Government shares.— Where any shares are purchased in a society by the Government, the liability in respect of such shares shall, in the event of the society of which the shares are purchased being wound up, be limited to the amount paid in respect of such shares.

48. Other forms of State aid to societies.— Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, but subject to such conditions as the Government may, by general or special order specify in this behalf, the Government may,—

(a) give loans to a society;

(b) guarantee the payment of the principal of debentures issued by a society, or of interest thereon, or both or the repayment of the share capital of a society to its members, or the payment of dividends thereon at such rates as may be specified by the Government;

(c) guarantee the repayment of loans given by a Co-operative Bank to a society;

(d) guarantee the repayment of the principal of and payment of interest on, loans and advances given by the Reserve Bank of India, or any Bank or any other financial institution constituted under any law for the time being in force; or

(e) provide financial assistance, in any other form, including subsidies, to a society.

49. Provisions of this Chapter to override other laws.— The provisions in this Chapter shall have effect notwithstanding anything inconsistent therewith contained in any other law for the time being in force.

CHAPTER-VI

Property and Funds of Societies

50. Mobilisation of funds.— A society may mobilise funds in the form of share capital, deposits, debentures, loans and other contributions from its members to such extent and under such conditions as may be specified in the bye-laws.

51. Restrictions on borrowings.— (1) A society may raise loans and receive amounts from external sources to such extent and under such conditions as may be specified in the bye-laws.

(2) The deposits or loans raised from external sources shall at no time exceed ten times the sum of members' funds and organisational reserves less accumulated deficit, if any:

Provided that in case of Co-operative Housing Societies, the borrowings shall not exceed twenty times and in case of Co-operative Banks twenty-five times the sum of members' funds and organisational reserves less accumulated deficit, if any.

(3) A mutually aided society shall not accept share capital from the Government but may accept other funds or guarantee from the Government on such terms and conditions as are mutually agreed upon through a memorandum of understanding.

(4) A society may accept funds from the Government or other financing institution on such terms and conditions as are mutually contracted upon. Such conditions may include the right of the Government or other financier to nominate its representative on the board of directors of the society, subject, however, to the restriction that such representative shall not have the right to vote in the meetings of the society.

52. Disposal of net surplus.— The society shall prepare its Annual Financial Statement and arrive at its surplus or deficit. ¹⁵[If provided in its bye-laws, the society shall, out of its net surplus] arising from its business in any year, make deferred payment to its members as patronage refund in proportion to the contribution of the members to such business an amount not less than 20% and not exceeding 50% of such surplus. The balance of net surplus shall be appropriated in the following manner:-

(a) At least 25% shall be transferred to statutory reserve fund;

^{15-A}[(b) Not exceeding 20% shall be transferred to a deficit fund for meeting unforeseen deficits;]

(c) Not less than 2% with a maximum limit of Rupees one lakh towards contribution to the Co-operative Education Fund which shall be transferred to the Goa Rajya Sahakari Sangh;

(d) Upto 5% to be transferred to a common benefit fund or common welfare fund whose purpose is approved by the general body;

(e) Upto 5% towards contribution for any purpose connected with the development of the co-operative movement;

(f) Not exceeding 25% of paid up share capital towards payment of dividend to members;

(g) The balance of surplus may be appropriated towards such other funds and reserves as may be approved by the board and confirmed by the general body.

¹⁶[Provided that the co-operative banks and urban co-operative credit societies may, instead of making deferred payment to their members as patronage refund, issue bonus shares as prescribed:

^{15-A} Substituted vide Amendment Act 6 of 2010.

¹⁶ Inserted by the Goa Co-operative Societies (Amendment) Act, 2009.

Provided further that if any society has not made patronage refund as specified under this section then, the entire amount of net surplus shall be appropriated in the proportion as mentioned in clauses (a) to (g) above.]

53. Liability for deficit.— (1) Where a society has an operational deficit in any given year, the board of directors shall place before the general body the detailed report of causes of such deficit.

(2) The general body shall examine the reasons and where the deficit has arisen in the normal course of the business of the society, the general body may, based on its examination, resolve to make good the operational deficit, wholly or partly, from the deficit fund and other reserves.

54. Reserve and other funds.— (1) A society may create statutory and non- statutory reserves and other funds for the promotion of the objects of the society.

(2) Reserves and other funds shall be used for the purpose for which they were created when necessary but otherwise may be used in the business of the society. An annual interest equal to the Bank rate shall be credited to the accounts of such funds annually.

(3) Every society shall provide funds each year for co-operative education and training of its members, staff and Directors.

55. Investment of funds outside the business.— Such of its funds as are not needed for use by a society may be invested or deposited outside its business—

(a) in the local postal saving bank;

(b) in any of the securities specified in section 20 of the Indian Trusts Act, 1882 (Central Act 2 of 1882);

(c) in the shares, debentures, and deposits in the State Co-operative Bank .

(d) in a co-operative or nationalised or scheduled bank;

(e) in any federal society of which it is a member;

(f) in deposits with Government companies.

(g) in any other mode permitted by the rules or by general or special order of the Government.

56. Employees provident fund.— (1) Every society having more than five employees shall establish for its employees a provident fund into which shall be paid the contribution made by its employees and by the society. Such provident fund shall not be used in the business of the society nor shall it form part of the assets of the society but shall be invested under the provisions of the last preceding section and shall be administered in the manner prescribed.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing sub-section, a provident fund established by a society to which the Employees' Provident Funds and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952 (XIX of 1952) is applicable, shall be governed by that Act.

57. Funds not to be utilized for certain proceedings filed or taken by or against officer in personal capacity.— Any expenditure incurred from the funds of the society for the purpose of any proceedings filed or taken by or against any officer of the society in the matter of elections to the board of directors or misfeasance proceedings shall be recoverable from the said officer by the society if the proceedings are decided against him.

CHAPTER - VII

Management of Societies

58. General body.— (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder, the final authority of every society shall vest in the general body of members, in general meeting summoned in such a manner as may be specified in the bye-laws.

(2) Where, because of spread of number of members a society feels the need for constituting a representative general body for more effective decision making, it may constitute a representative general body in such manner and with such functions as may be specified in the bye-laws.

(3) Subject to the provisions of this Act and the bye-laws, the following matters shall be dealt with by the general body in the general meetings:-

- (a) amendments to bye-laws;

- (i) sale and disposal of business undertakings;
- (j) dissolution of society;
- (k) all other functions expected of the general body under the other provisions of this Act.

¹⁷[58A. Special general meeting.— (1) A special general meeting may be called,—

- (i) at any time by the Chairman; or
- (ii) within one month from the date of submission of a requisition in writing to that effect by at least one-tenth of the total number of members of the society or by at least one-tenth of the total number of elected representatives or by such number of members as specified in the bye-laws for the purpose; or
- (iii) at the instance of the Registrar; or
- (iv) in the case of a society which is a member of a federal society, at the instance of the committee of such federal society.

(2) Where, any officer or a member of the committee, whose duty is to call such meeting, fails, without reasonable excuse, to call such meeting, the Registrar may, by Order, declare such member as disqualified for being a member of the committee for such period not exceeding five years, as he may specify in such order or impose on such officer a penalty not exceeding one hundred rupees for each day of default. Before making an order under this sub-section, the Registrar shall give, or cause to be given, a reasonable opportunity to the person concerned for showing cause as to why the action proposed should not be taken against him.

(3) If a special general meeting of a society is not called in accordance with the requisition referred to in clause (ii) of sub-section (1), the Registrar or any person authorized by him in this behalf, shall have power to call such meeting and that such meeting, when called, shall be deemed to be a meeting duly called by the committee.

(4) The Registrar shall have the power to order that the expenditure incurred in calling a meeting under sub-section (3) shall be paid out of the funds of the society or by such person or persons who, in the opinion of the Registrar, were responsible for the refusal or failure to convene a meeting.]

59. Board of directors. — (1) The management of every society shall vest in a board of directors constituted in accordance with this Act, the rules and bye-laws, which shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as may be conferred or imposed by this Act, the rules and the bye-laws.

(2) The term of office of the board of directors elected after the commencement of the Goa Co-operative Societies Act, 2001 shall be five years from the date of its election:

Provided that where in terms of the provisions of the bye-laws of a society one-third members of its committee or board of directors retire every year, the term of office of such a committee or board shall, after the commencement of the Goa Co-operative Societies Act, 2001 expire on the date on which retirement of any of its one-third members falls for the first time.

¹⁷ Inserted by the Goa Co-operative Societies (Amendment) Act, 2009.

(3) The size of the board of directors shall be in accordance with the bye-laws, subject to a maximum of 15 directors. The chief executive shall be an exofficio director of the board.

(4) The board shall have a Chairman and such other office bearers as may be provided in the bye-laws who shall be elected from among the directors in the manner provided in the bye-laws:

Provided that no director who is representing individual members on the board of directors of an Apex or Federal Society shall be a Chairman or other officer of such society.

(5) The board of directors may set up committees from among its directors and others for specific purposes and such committees shall submit their reports with recommendations or observations to the board for action, within the time specified by the board.

(6) Every director and employee of a society while exercising his powers and discharging his duties shall,—

(a) act honestly and in good faith and in the best interests of the society; and

(b) exercise such due care, diligence and skill as a reasonably prudent person would exercise in similar circumstances.

^{17-A}[(6A) The members of the committee set up by the board of directors or the board of directors, as the case may be, shall be jointly and severally responsible for the decisions taken by them during their term, relating to the business of the society. They shall be jointly and severally responsible for all the acts and omissions which are detrimental to the interest of the society. Every such member or director, shall execute a bond to that effect, within fifteen days of his assuming the office, in the form as specified by the Government by general or special order. The member or director who fails to execute such bond within specified period shall be deemed to have vacated his office:

Provided that before fixing any responsibility mentioned above, the Registrar shall inspect the records of the society and decide as to whether the losses incurred by the society are on account of acts or omissions on the part of the members of the committee or of directors or on account of any natural calamity, accident or any circumstances beyond the control of such members or directors:

Provided further that any member of the committee or director of board of directors who does not agree with any of the resolution or decision of the committee or of board of directors, may express his dissenting opinion which shall be recorded in the proceedings of the meeting and such member or director shall not be held responsible for the decision embodied in such resolution/decision and/or for such acts or omissions committed by the committee or board of directors as per such resolution/decision. Such dissenting member or director, if he so desires may also communicate in writing his dissenting opinion to the Registrar within seven days from the date of such resolution/decision:

Provided also that any member or director who is not present for the meeting of the committee or board of directors in which the business of the society was transacted, and who has not subsequently confirmed the proceedings of that meeting, such member or director shall also not be held responsible for any of the business transacted in such meeting.].

(7) A director or employee who is guilty of misappropriation, breach of trust or any other omission or commission, resulting in loss to the society as a result thereof, shall be personally liable to make good that loss, without prejudice to such criminal action to which he is liable under the law.

¹⁸[59 A Motion of no confidence against officers of societies.— (1) A President, Vice-President, Chairman, Vice-Chairman, Secretary, treasurer or Director or any other officer, by whatever designation called, who holds office by virtue of his election to that office shall cease to be such President, Vice-President, Chairman, Vice-Chairman, Secretary, treasurer or director or any other officer, as the case may be, if a motion of no confidence is passed at a special meeting of the board of directors/committee of management of society by a simple majority of the total number of the members of board of directors/committee who are for the time being entitled to attend and vote at any meeting of the board of directors/committee and the office of such President, Vice-President, Chairman, Vice-Chairman, Secretary, treasurer or director or any other officer, as the case may be, shall thereupon be deemed to be vacant.

(2) The requisition for convening special meeting of the board of directors/committee for considering such motion of no confidence shall be signed by not less than one-third of the total number of members of the board of directors/committee who are for the time being entitled to attend and vote at any meeting of the board of directors/committee and shall be delivered to the Registrar:

Provided that no such requisition for a special meeting shall be made within a period of six months from the date on which any person//officer referred to in sub-section (1) has entered upon his office.

(3) The Registrar shall, within seven days from the date of receipt of requisition under sub-section (2), convene a special meeting of the board of directors/committee which shall be held not later than fifteen days from the date of issue of the notice of such meeting.

(4) The special meeting called under sub-section (3) shall be presided over by the Registrar or any person authorized by him in this behalf. The Registrar or such person shall, when presiding over the meeting of the board of directors/committee, have the same powers as the President or Chairman when presiding over a board of directors'/committee's meeting has, but shall not have the right to vote.

(5) The meeting called under this section shall not be adjourned for any reason.

(6) Voting at the meeting shall be by raising of hands. The names of the directors/members of the committee voting for, and against the motion, shall be read in the meeting and recorded in the minute book of the special meeting of the board of directors/committee:

¹⁸ Inserted by the Goa Co-operative Societies (Amendment) Act, 2009.

Provided that if one-third of the directors/members of the committee present so demand, the voting shall be by secret ballot.

(7) If the motion of no confidence is rejected, no fresh motion of no confidence shall be brought before the board of directors/committee within a period of six months from the date on which the motion is rejected.].

60. Disqualification for being director.— (1) In addition to such criteria as may be specified in the bye-laws, a person shall be ineligible for being chosen as a director, if he,—

(g) assisting the board in the formulation of policies, objectives and planning;

(h) appraising the board with periodical information necessary for the operations and functions of the society;

(i) performing such other duties and exercising such other powers as may be prescribed or as may be specified in the bye-laws of the society.

65. Society's nominee on other society not eligible to be office bearer except in a federal society.— No member of a society who is nominated to represent it on any other society shall be eligible for being elected as office bearer of the other society, unless the other society is its federal society.

66. Election to board of directors of societies.— (1) The elections to the board of directors of all the societies and representative general bodies under section 69(d) and (e) of this Act, except those mentioned in sub-section (5) of this section, shall be conducted by the Registrar in such manner as may be prescribed.

(2) Where the Registrar fails to hold election to the board of any society, the term of office of the members of the board of that society shall be deemed to have been extended till the date immediately preceding the date of the first meeting of the newly elected board.

(3) The voting at election shall be by secret ballot.

(4) The expenses for holding any such elections shall be borne by the concerned society.

(5) Societies having paid up share capital of less than rupees twenty five lakhs may hold their election in accordance with their bye-laws and election rules:

Provided that the Registrar may conduct the election of any such society in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (1) to (4) of this section if he is satisfied that circumstances exist for such election. No such election shall however, be held by the Registrar after the election programme is commenced by the society in accordance with its bye-laws and election rules.

67. Vacancies on the Board of Directors.— (1) Where there is a vacancy or vacancies on the board of directors, the remaining directors may exercise all the powers of the board or may fill the vacancies for the remainder of the term from eligible persons through co-option if such vacancies are not more than one-third of the total number of directors of the board.

(2) Where there is a vacancy or vacancies on the board in excess of one-third of the total number of directors of the board, the remaining directors shall call upon the Registrar to hold election for electing members to fill the vacancies for the remaining period.

(3) The term of office of the directors who are appointed or nominated or co-opted on the board to fill the vacancy shall be co-terminus with the term of office of the elected directors notwithstanding the date of their such appointment, nomination or co-option to fill the vacancy.

(4) The Government may, by general or special order direct such societies or class of societies to reserve not more than two seats, one each for the members of scheduled castes or scheduled tribes or woman or any other economically backward classes on the board of directors of such societies.

¹⁹[67A. Appointment of Directors, New Board of Directors or Administrator.—

(1) Where the Registrar is satisfied that,—

- (a) at the first constitution of the Board of Directors of any society there is a failure to elect all or any of the members of the Board of Directors;
- (b) the term of the Board of Directors of any society or of any of its members has expired or for any other reason election is held and there is a failure to elect all or any of the Directors required to fill the vacancies;
- (c) any Director is prevented from entering upon his office;
- (d) new Directors have failed to enter upon office on the date on which the term of office of the existing Board of Directors expired; or
- (e) a new Board of Directors cannot, for any reason, be constituted before the expiry of the term of Office of the existing Board of Directors, he may, either suo motu or on an application of any officer of the society, by order, appoint,—
 - (i) any member or members of the society to be the member or members of the Board of Directors to fill the vacancy/vacancies; or
 - (ii) a committee, consisting of not more than three members of the society, or one or more administrators, other than the member/s of the society, to manage the affairs of the society till the new Board of Directors enters upon office:

Provided that before making such order, the Registrar shall publish a notice on the notice board at the head office of the society, inviting objections and suggestions with respect to the proposed order within a period specified in the notice and consider all objections and suggestions received by him within that period:

Provided further that it shall not be necessary to publish such notice in case where the Registrar is satisfied that immediate action is required to be taken or that it is not reasonably practicable to publish such notice.

(2) The Board of Directors or administrator so appointed shall be subject to the control of the Registrar and obey such instructions as the Registrar may, from time to time give, and shall have power to discharge all or any of the functions of the Board of Directors or of a director, as the case may be, and take all such actions as may be required to be taken in the interest of the society.

(3) The Board of Directors or administrator so appointed shall make necessary arrangements to constitute a new Board of Directors for enabling the new Board of Directors to enter upon office or to fill the vacancy/vacancies of the Directors, as the case may be, within such period or extended period as the Registrar may specify].

68. Government's power to give directions in the interest of Co-operative movement.— (1) If the Government, on receipt of a report from the Registrar or otherwise, is satisfied that in the interest of Co-operative movement or for the purpose of securing proper implementation of co-operative production and other development programmes approved or undertaken by the Government or to secure the proper management of the business of the society generally, or for preventing the affairs of the society being conducted in a manner detrimental to the interests of the members, or of the

(d) when the dispute is in respect of an election of an office-bearer of the society, be one month from the date of the declaration of the result of the election.

(2) The period of limitation in the case of any other dispute except those mentioned in the foregoing sub-section which are required to be referred to the Registrar under the last preceding section shall be regulated by the provisions of the Limitation Act, 1963 (Central Act 36 of 1963) as if the dispute is a suit and the Registrar a Civil Court.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-sections (1) and (2), the Registrar may admit a dispute after the expiry of the limitation period, if the applicant satisfies the Registrar that he has sufficient cause for not referring the dispute within such period and the dispute so admitted shall be dispute which shall not be barred on the ground that the period of limitation had expired.

86. Settlement of disputes.— (1) If the Registrar is satisfied that any matter referred to him or brought to his notice is a dispute within the meaning of section 83, the Registrar shall, subject to the rules, decide the dispute himself or refer it for disposal to a nominee, or a board of nominees, appointed by the Registrar.

(2) Where any dispute is referred under the foregoing sub-section for decision to the Registrar's nominee or board of nominees, the Registrar may, at any time, for reasons to be recorded in writing, withdraw such dispute from his nominee or board of nominees, and may decide the dispute himself, or refer it again, for decision to any other nominee, or board of nominees, appointed by him.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 83, the Registrar may, if he thinks fit, suspend proceedings in regard to any dispute, if the question at issue between a society and a claimant or between different claimants, is one involving complicated questions of law and fact, until the question has been tried by a regular suit instituted by one of the parties or by the society. If any such suit is not instituted within two months from the date of the Registrar's order suspending proceedings, the Registrar shall take action as is provided in sub-section (1).

87. Procedure for settlement of disputes and power of Registrar, his nominee or board of nominees.— (1) The Registrar, or his nominee or board of nominees, hearing a dispute under the last preceding section shall hear the dispute in the manner prescribed, and shall have power to summon and enforce attendance of witnesses including the parties interested or any of them and to compel them to give evidence on oath, affirmation or affidavit, the production of documents by the same means and as far as possible in the same manner, as is provided in the case of a Civil Court by the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (5 of 1908).

(2) Except with the permission of the Registrar or his nominee or board of nominees, as the case may be, no party shall be represented at the hearing of a dispute by a legal practitioner.

(3) (a) If the Registrar or his nominee or board of nominees is satisfied that a person, whether he be a member of the society or not, has acquired any interest in the property of a person who is party to a dispute, he may order that the person who has acquired the interest in the property may join as a party to the dispute, and any decision that may be passed on the reference by the Registrar or his nominee or board of nominees shall be binding on the party so joined, in the same manner as if he was an original party to the dispute.

(b) Where a dispute has been instituted in the name of the wrong person or where all the defendants have not been included, the Registrar or his nominee or board of nominees may, at any stage of the hearing of the dispute, if satisfied that the mistake was bonafide, order any other person to be substituted or added as a plaintiff or a defendant, upon such terms as he thinks just.

(c) The Registrar, his nominee or board of nominees may, at any stage of the proceeding, either upon or without the application of either party, and upon such terms as may appear to the Registrar, his nominee or board of nominees, as the case may be, to be just, order that the name of any party improperly joined whether as plaintiff or defendant, be struck out, and that the name of any person who ought to have been joined whether as plaintiff or defendant or whose presence before the Registrar, his nominee or board of nominees, as the case may be, may be necessary in order to enable the Registrar, his nominee or board of nominees effectually and completely to adjudicate upon and settle all the questions involved in the dispute, be added.

(d) Any person who is a party to the dispute and entitled to more than one relief in respect of the same cause of action may claim for all or any of such reliefs, but if he omits to claim for all such reliefs, he shall not forward a claim for any relief so omitted, except with the leave of the Registrar, his nominee or board of nominees, as the case may be.

88. Attachment before award and interlocutory orders.— (1) Where a dispute has been referred to the Registrar or his nominee or board of nominees under section 86, or under section 95, the Registrar or his nominee or board of nominees, if satisfied on enquiry or otherwise that party to such dispute with intent to defeat, delay or obstruct the execution of any award or carrying out of any order that may be made,—

(a) is about to dispose of whole or any part of his property, or

(b) is about to remove the whole or any part of his property from the jurisdiction of the Registrar, may, unless adequate security is furnished, direct conditional attachment of the said property, and such attachment shall have the same effect as if made by a competent Civil Court.

(2) Where the Registrar, his nominee or board of nominees direct attachment of property under the foregoing sub-section, he shall issue a notice calling upon the person whose property is so attached to furnish security which he thinks adequate within a specified period and if the person fails to provide the security so demanded, the Registrar or his nominee or board of nominees may confirm the order and, after the decision in the dispute or the completion of the proceedings referred to in the foregoing sub-section, may direct the disposal of the property so attached towards the claim if awarded.

(3) Attachment made under this section shall not affect the rights, subsisting prior to the attachment of the property, of person not party to the proceedings in connection with which the attachment is made, or bar any person holding a decree against the person whose property is so attached from applying for the sale of the property under attachment in execution of such decree.

(4) The Registrar, his nominee or board of nominees, as the case may be, may, in order to prevent the ends of justice being defeated, make such interlocutory orders pending the decision in a dispute referred to in sub-section (1) as may appear to be just and convenient.

89. Decision of Registrar or his nominee or board of nominees.— When a dispute is referred to arbitration, the Registrar or his nominee or board of nominees may, after giving a reasonable opportunity to the parties to the dispute to be heard, make an award on the dispute, on the expenses incurred by the parties to the dispute in connection with the proceedings, and the fees and expenses payable to the Registrar or his nominee or, as the case may be, board of nominees. Such an award shall not be invalid merely on the ground that it was made after the expiry of the period fixed for deciding the dispute by the Registrar, and shall, subject to appeal or review or revision, be binding on the parties to the dispute.

90. Appeal against decision of Registrar or his nominee or board of nominees.— Any party aggrieved by any decision of the Registrar or his nominee or board of nominees under the last preceding section, or an order passed under section 88 may, within two months from the date of the decision or order, appeal to the Tribunal.

91. Money how recovered.— Every order passed by the Registrar or his nominee or board of nominees under section 88 or 89 every order passed in appeal under the last preceding section, every order passed by a liquidator under section 95, every order passed by the State Government in appeal against orders passed under section 105 shall if not carried out,—

(a) on a certificate signed by the Registrar or a Liquidator, be deemed to be a decree of a Civil Court and shall be executed in the same manner as a decree of such Court; or

(b) be executed according to the law and under the rules for the time being in force for the recovery of arrears of land revenue:

Provided that, any application for the recovery in such manner of any such sum shall be made to the Collector, and shall be accompanied by a certificate signed by the Registrar, or by any Assistant Registrar as duly authorized by the Registrar in this behalf. Such application shall be made within twelve years from the date fixed in the order and if no such date is fixed, from the date of the order.

91 A. Private transfer of property made after issue of Certificate void against society.— Any private transfer or delivery of, or encumbrance or charge on, property, made or created after the issue of certificate of the Registrar, Liquidator, or Assistant Registrar, as the case may be, under section 91 shall be null and void as against the society on whose application the said certificate was issued.

91 B. Transfer of property which cannot be sold.— (1) When in any execution of an order sought to be executed under section 91, any property cannot be sold for want of buyers, if such property is in occupancy of the defaulter, or of some person in his behalf, or of some person claiming under a title created by the defaulter, subsequently to the issue of the certificate of the Registrar, Liquidator or the Assistant Registrar, under clause (a) or (b) of section 91, the Court or the Collector or the Registrar, as the case may be, may, notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, direct that the said property or any portion thereof, shall be transferred to the society which has applied for the execution of the said order, in the manner prescribed.

(2) Where property is transferred to the society under the foregoing sub-section, or where property is sold under section 91, the Court, the Collector or the Registrar, as the case may be, may, in accordance with rules, place the society or the purchaser, as the case may be, in possession of the property transferred or sold.

(3) Subject to such rules as may be made in this behalf, and to any rights, encumbrances, charges or equities lawfully subsisting in favour of any person, such property or portion thereof shall be held under sub-section (1) by the said society on such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon between the Court, the Collector or the Registrar, as the case may be, and the said society subject to the general or special orders of the State Government, the Collector or the Registrar may delegate to an officer, not below the rank of the Deputy Collector or the Assistant Registrar, power exercisable by the Collector or the Registrar under this section.

91C. Recovery of any sum advanced by a resource society.— (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in sections 83, 86 and 91, on an application made by a resource society for the recovery of arrears of any sum advanced by it to any of its members and on its furnishing statement of accounts in respect of such arrears, the Registrar may after making such inquiries as he may deem fit, grant a certificate for the recovery of the amount stated therein to be due as arrears.

(2) Where the Registrar is satisfied that a resource society has failed to take action under the foregoing sub-section in respect of arrears of any sum advanced by it to any of its members, the Registrar may on his own motion, after making such inquiries as he may deem fit, grant a certificate for the recovery of the amount stated therein to be due as arrears.

(3) A certificate granted by the Registrar under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) shall be final and conclusive proof of the arrears stated to be due therein and the same shall be recoverable according to the law for the time being in force for the recovery of arrears of land revenue.

91D. Registrar's powers to recover certain sums by attachment and sale of property.— (1) The Registrar or any officer subordinate to him or an officer of a Federal Institution duly empowered by him in this behalf, may subject to such rules as may be made by the State Government, but without prejudice to any other mode of recovery provided by or under this Act, recover,—

(a) any amount due under a decree or order of Civil Court obtained by a society;

(b) any amount due under a decision, award or order of the Registrar, arbitrator or Liquidator or Tribunal;

(c) any sum awarded by way of costs under this Act;

(d) any sum ordered to be paid under this Act as a contribution to the assets of the society together with interest, if any due on such amount or sum and costs of process by the attachment and sale or by sale without attachment of the property of the person against whom such decree, decision, award or order has been obtained or passed.

(2) The Registrar or the officer empowered by him shall be deemed, when exercising the powers under the foregoing sub-section or when passing any orders on any application made to him for such recovery, to be a Civil Court for the purpose of article 136 of the Schedule to the Limitation Act, 1963 (Central Act 36 of 1963).]

CHAPTER - X

Liquidation

92. Winding up.— (1) If the Registrar,—

(a) after an inquiry has been held under section 77 or on the report of the auditor auditing the accounts of the society, or

(b) on receipt of an application made upon a resolution carried by three-fourths of the members of a society present at a special meeting called for the purpose, or

(c) of his own motion, in the case of a society which—

(i) has not commenced working, or

(ii) has ceased working, or

(iii) possesses shares or members' deposits not exceeding five hundred rupees, or

(iv) has ceased to comply with any conditions as to registration and management in this Act or the rules or the bye-laws, is of the opinion that a society ought to be wound up, he may issue an interim order directing it to be wound up.

(2) A copy of such order made under sub-section (1) shall be communicated in the prescribed manner to the society calling upon it to submit its explanation to the Registrar within a month from the date of the issue of such order, and the Registrar, on giving an opportunity to the society of being heard, may issue a final order, vacating or confirming the interim order. The final order shall be published in the Official Gazette.

³³92A. Winding up of co-operative bank at the direction of the Reserve Bank:—

(i) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained elsewhere in this Act, the Registrar shall make an order for the winding up of a co-operative bank, if so required by the Reserve Bank in the circumstances mentioned in section 13D of the Deposit Insurance and Credit Guarantee Corporation Act, 1961 (47 of 1961).

92B. Reimbursement to the Deposit Insurance and Credit Guarantee Corporation by liquidator.—(1) Where a co-operative bank being an insured bank within the meaning of the Deposit Insurance and Credit Guarantee Corporation Act, 1961 (47 of 1961) is wound up and the Deposit Insurance and Credit Guarantee Corporation has become liable to the depositors of the insured bank under sub-section (1) of section 16 of that Act, the Deposit Insurance and Credit Guarantee Corporation shall be reimbursed by the liquidator or such other person in the circumstances, to the extent and in the manner provided in section 21 of that Act.

³³ Section 92-A, 92-B are inserted by Amendment Act, 2004 (Goa Act 22 of 2004) published in O. G., Sr. I No. 23 dt. 3rd September, 2004 inserted in the Act, 2001.

³⁴“(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, in the case of an insured co-operative bank,—

(i) an order for the winding up, or an order sanctioning a scheme of compromise or arrangement, or of amalgamation, or reconstruction (including division or re-organisation), of the bank may be made only with the previous sanction in writing of the Reserve Bank of India;

(ii) if so required by the Reserve Bank of India in the public interest or for preventing the affairs of the bank from being conducted in a manner detrimental to the interests of the depositors or for securing the proper management of the bank, an order shall be made for the supersession (removal) of the committee of management of society and the appointment of an Administrator therefor for such period or periods, not exceeding five years in the aggregate, as may from time to time be specified by the Reserve Bank of India, and the Administrator so appointed shall, after the expiry of his term of office, continue in office until the day immediately preceding the date of the first meeting of the new committee of management of society.

(3) An order for the winding up of the bank or an order sanctioning a scheme of compromise or arrangement or of amalgamation or reconstruction (including division or re-organisation) or an order for the supersession (removal) of the committee of management of society and the appointment of an Administrator therefor made with the previous sanction in writing or on the requisition of the Reserve Bank of India shall not be liable to be called in question in any manner and the liquidator or the insured co-operative bank or the transferee bank, as the case may be, shall be under an obligation to repay the Deposit Insurance Corporation established under the Deposit Insurance and Credit Guarantee Corporation Act, 1961 (Central Act 47 of 1961), in the circumstances, to the extent and in the manner referred to in section 21 of that Act.

Explanation.—

(a) the expression “an insured Co-operative bank” means a society which is an insured bank under the provisions of the Deposit Insurance and Credit Guarantee Corporation Act, 1961 (Central Act 47 of 1961);

(b) the expression “the transferee bank” has the same meaning as assigned to it in that Act.”]

93. Appointment of Liquidator.—³⁵[(1) When an interim order or a final order is passed under section 92 or an order is passed under section 92A, as the case may be, for the winding up of a society, the Registrar may, in accordance with the rules appoint a person to be the liquidator of the society, and fix his remuneration;];

(2) ³⁶[On issue of the interim order under section 92 or on the issue of an order under section 92A, as the case may be,] the officers of the society shall hand over to the

³⁶ for the expression “On issue of the interim order,” the expression “On issue of the interim order under section 92 or on the issue of an order under section 92A, to the case may be,” substituted by Amendment Act, 2004 (Goa Act 22 of 2004) published in O. G., Sr. I No. 23 dt. 3rd September, 2004

Liquidator the custody and control of all the property, effects and actionable claims to which the society is or appears to be entitled, and of all books, records and other documents pertaining to the business of the society, and shall have no access to any of them.

(3) ³⁷[When a final order is passed confirming the interim order under section 92 or an order is passed under section 92A, as the case may be”, the officers of the society shall vacate their offices, and while the winding up order remains in force, the general body of the society shall not exercise any powers.

(4) The person appointed under this section as Liquidator shall, subject to the general control of the Registrar, exercise all or any of the powers mentioned in section 95. The Registrar may remove such person and appoint another in his place, without assigning any reason.

(5) The whole of the assets of the society shall on the appointment of Liquidator under this section, vest in such Liquidator, and notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, if any immovable property is held by a Liquidator on behalf of the society, the title over the land shall be complete as soon as the mutation of the name of his office is effected, and no Court shall question the title on the ground of dispossession, want of possession or physical delivery of possession.

(6) In the event of the interim order being vacated, the person appointed as Liquidator shall hand over the property, effects and actionable claims and books, records and other documents of the society to the officers who had delivered the same to him. The acts done, and the proceedings taken by the Liquidator, shall be binding on the society, and such proceedings shall, after the interim order has been cancelled under the preceding section, be continued by the officers of the society.

94. Appeal against order of winding up.— (1) The board of directors or any member of the society ordered to be wound up, may, within two months from the date of the issue of the final order made under section 92, appeal to the Co-operative Tribunal.

(2) No appeal from a member under this section shall be entertained unless it is accompanied by such sum as security for the costs of hearing the appeal, as may be prescribed.

³⁸[94A. No appeal in certain cases.— Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, where, with the previous sanction in writing of, or on requisition by the Reserve Bank, a co-operative bank:—

(a) is being wound up; or

(b) in respect of which a scheme of amalgamation or re-organization is given effect to, no appeal there against shall lie or be permissible, and the sanction or requisition of the Reserve Bank shall not be liable to be called in question].

G., Sr. I No. 23 dt. 3rd September, 2004.

³⁸ Inserted by Amendment Act, 2004 (Goa Act 22 of 2004) published in O. G., Sr. I No. 23 dt. 3rd September, 2004.

95. Powers of Liquidator.— (1) The Liquidator appointed under section 93 shall have power, subject to the rules and the general supervision, control and direction of the Registrar,—

(a) to institute and defend any suit and other legal proceedings, civil or criminal, on behalf of the society, in the name of his office;

(b) to carry on the business of the society, so far as may be necessary, for the beneficial winding up of the same;

(c) to sell the immovable and movable property and actionable claims of the society by public auction or private contract, with power to transfer the whole or part thereof to any person or body corporate, or sell the same in parcels;

(d) to transfer by sale assets valued at market price to a society registered with similar objects or to a Government undertaking which carries on the same business as of the society under liquidation;

(e) to lease to other societies or to Government undertakings, with prior approval of the Registrar, the property of the society to run the same business as that of the society under liquidation;

(f) to raise, on the security of the assets of the society, any money required;

(g) to investigate all claims against the society and, subject to the provisions of the Act, to decide questions of priority arising out of such claims, and to pay any class or classes of creditors in full or rate-able according to the amount of such debts, the surplus being applied in payment of interest from the date of liquidation at a rate to be approved by the Registrar, but not exceeding the contract rates;

(h) to make any compromise or arrangement with creditors or persons claiming to be creditors, or having or alleging themselves to have any claim, present or future, whereby the society may be rendered liable;

(i) to compromise all calls or liabilities to calls and debts and liabilities capable of resulting in debts, and all claims, present or future, certain or contingent, subsisting or supposed to subsist between the society and a contributory or alleged contributory or other debtor or person apprehending liability to the society, and all questions in any way relating to or affecting the assets or the winding up of the society, on such terms as may be agreed, and take any security for the discharge of any such call, liability, debt, or claim, and give a complete discharge in respect thereof;

(j) to determine, from time to time, after giving an opportunity to answer the claim, the contribution to be made or remaining to be made by the members or past members or by the estate, of deceased members, or by any officer, past officer or the estate of deceased officer to the assets of the society, such contribution being inclusive of debts due from such members or officers;

(k) to refer orders for execution to Co-operative Authority under section 91;

(l) to refer or to get referred any dispute to the Co-operative Authority for decision;

(m) to determine by what persons and in what proportion the costs of the liquidation shall be borne;

(n) to fix the time within which the creditors shall prove their debts and claims or be included for the benefit of any distribution made before those debts or claims are proved;

(o) to summon and enforce the attendance of witnesses and to compel the production of books, accounts, documents, securities, cash or other properties belonging to or in the custody of the society by the same means and in the same manner as is provided in the case of a Civil Court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (V of 1908);

(p) to do all acts, and to execute in the name and on behalf of the society, all deeds, receipts and other documents, as may be necessary to such winding up;

(q) to take such action as may be necessary under section 16 with the prior approval of the Registrar, if there is reason to believe that the society can be reconstructed.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), the Liquidator shall not have the right to vote on behalf of the society in liquidation, at the election of the board of directors or of the office bearers of any other society.

96. Effect of order of winding up.— After expiry of the period for appeal against the order made under section 92³⁹ “or where the appeal has been dismissed or where an order has been passed under section 92A,” the order for winding up shall be effective and shall operate in favour of all the creditors and of all the contributories of the society as if it had been made on the joint petition of creditors and contributories. When a winding up order becomes effective, the Liquidator shall proceed to realise the assets of the society by sale or otherwise, and no dispute shall be commenced or, if pending at the date of the winding up order, shall be proceeded with, against the society, except by leave of the Registrar and subject to such terms as the Registrar may impose.

97. Bar of suit in winding up and dissolution matters.— Save as expressly provided in this Act, no Civil Court shall take cognizance of any matter connected with the winding up or dissolution of a society under this Act; and when a winding up order has been made, no suit or other legal proceedings shall lie or be proceeded with against the society or the liquidator, except by leave of the Registrar, and subject to such terms as he may impose:

Provided that, where the winding up order is cancelled, the provisions of this section shall cease to operate so far as the liability of the society and of the members thereof to be sued is concerned, but they shall continue to apply to the person who acted as Liquidator.

98. Audit of Liquidator’s accounts.— (1) The Liquidator shall, during his tenure of office, at such times as may be prescribed, but not less than twice each year, present to the Registrar an account in the prescribed form of his receipts and payments as Liquidator. The Registrar shall cause the accounts, to be audited in such manner as he thinks fit; and for the purpose of audit, the Liquidator shall furnish the Registrar with such vouchers and information as he, or the person appointed by him, may require.

³⁹ for the expression “or where the appeal has been dismissed,” the expression “or where the appeal has been dismissed or where an order has been passed under section 92A,” substituted by Amendment Act, 2004 (Goa Act 22 of 2004) published in O. G., Sr. I No. 23 dt. 3rd September, 2004.

(2) The Liquidator shall cause a summary of audited accounts to be prepared, and shall send a copy of such summary to every contributory.

(3) The Liquidator shall pay such fees as the Registrar may direct, for the audit of the accounts and books kept by him in the manner prescribed.

(4) The Liquidator shall be held liable for any irregularities which might be discovered in the course or as a result of audit in respect of transactions subsequent to his taking over the affairs of the society, and may be proceeded against as if it were an act against which action could be taken under section 82:

Provided that, no such action shall be taken unless the irregularities have caused or are likely to cause loss to the society, and have occurred due to gross negligence or want or omission, in carrying out the duties and functions.

99. Termination of liquidation proceedings.— (1) The winding up proceedings of a society shall be closed as soon as practicable within six years from the date of the final order ⁴⁰[under sub-section (2) of section 92 or from the date of the order under section 92A, as the case may be,] unless the period is extended by the Registrar:

Provided that, the Registrar shall not grant any extension for a period exceeding one year at a time and four years in the aggregate, and shall, immediately after the expiry of ten years from the date aforesaid, deem that the liquidation proceedings have been terminated, and pass an order terminating the liquidation proceedings.

Explanation.— In the case of a society which is under liquidation at the commencement of this Act, an order for the winding up of the society shall be deemed for the purpose of this section to have been passed on the date of such commencement.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing sub-section, the Registrar shall terminate the liquidation proceedings on receipt of the final report from the Liquidator. The final report of the Liquidator shall state that the liquidation proceedings of the society have been closed, and how the winding up has been conducted and the property of and the claims of the society have been disposed of and shall include a statement showing a summary of the account of the winding up including the cost of liquidation, the amount (if any) standing to the credit of the society in liquidation, after paying off its liabilities including the share or interest of members, and suggest how the surplus should be utilised.

(3) The Registrar, on receipt of the final report from the Liquidator, shall direct the Liquidator to convene a general meeting of the members of the society for recording his final report.

100. Disposal of surplus assets.— The surplus assets, as shown in the final report of the Liquidator of a society which has been wound up, may either be divided by the Registrar, with the previous sanction of the Government, amongst its members in such manner as may be prescribed or be devoted to any objects provided in the bye-laws of the society, if they specify that such a surplus shall be utilised for the particular purpose or may be utilised for both the purposes. Where the surplus is not so divided amongst the members and the society has no such bye-laws, the surplus shall vest in the Registrar, who shall hold it in trust and shall transfer it to the reserve fund of a new society registered with a similar object, and serving more or less an area which the society, to which the surplus belonged, was serving:

Provided that, where no such society exists or is registered within three years of the cancellation of the society whose surplus is vested in the Registrar, the Registrar may distribute the surplus, in the manner he thinks best, amongst any or all of the following:-

- (a) an object of public utility and be recommended by the members under the preceding section; of local interest as may general meeting held
- (b) a federal society with similar objects to which the cancelled society was eligible for affiliation or, where no federal society exists, the State federal society which may be notified in this behalf by the Government; and
- (c) for the purpose of development of the Co-operative movement.

(j) “dwelling unit” includes a house, flat, apartment, and tenement for the purpose of dwelling;

(k) “external repairs” means all structural repairs and repairs required to be carried out to the property of the society the use of which is common to two or more members, and includes repairs of common walls, external walls, roads, lifts, water tanks, electric pumps, staircases, terraces and parapet walls, roofs of flats, street lights, electric lines, all leakages of water, water pipelines, compound walls, septic tanks, fencing, drainage, gates and other like common amenities;

(l) “internal repairs” means such repairs as are not external repairs;

(m) “occupancy right” means the right of an allottee to possess and use the plot of land, site or dwelling unit or commercial unit allotted to him with power to give it on hire or on leave and licence or to mortgage it or to donate or to transmit it by will or by inheritance or to transfer it;

(n) “outgoings” means ground rent, if any, municipal and other local taxes, cesses, charges, water charges, electricity charges, revenue assessments, expenses of management and maintenance, repairs to or replacement of any property, insurance premium, other like expenses in respect of the society;

(o) “sub-allottee” means an individual or body of persons, whether incorporated or not, in whose favour the possession of the dwelling unit or part thereof is transferred for a period of not less than three months, and includes a tenant, licensee, paying guest and caretaker thereof.

103. Limit on membership.— A co-operative housing society shall not admit to its membership persons exceeding the number of dwelling units and commercial units or plots, as the case may be, available for allotment in the society.

104. Allotment of plots, dwelling units and commercial units.— (1) Every member of a society, whether registered before or after the commencement of this Act, to whom plots of land, dwelling units or commercial units have been allotted, shall be issued certificate of allotment by the society under its seal and signature in such form as may be prescribed.

(2) Any allotment (including re-allotment) of a plot of land or dwelling unit or commercial unit in a building of a co-operative housing society to its member in accordance with its bye-laws shall entitle such member to hold such plot of land or dwelling unit or commercial unit with such title or interest as may be specified in the bye-laws and the certificate of allotment shall be conclusive evidence of such title or interest in favour of such member.

(3) A member of a co-operative housing society shall not be entitled to any title or interest in any plot of land or dwelling unit or commercial unit in a building of the society until he has made such payment as may be specified by the society towards the cost of such plot of land or construction of such dwelling unit or commercial unit or both, as the case may be, to the co-operative housing society.

(4) The right, title and interest in a plot of land or dwelling unit or commercial unit in a building of the society (including the undivided interest in common areas and facilities) shall constitute a heritable and transferable immovable property within the meaning of any law for the time being in force:

Provided that notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, such land or building shall not be partitioned for any purpose whatsoever.

(5) Every member of a co-operative housing society shall be entitled to an undivided interest in the common areas and facilities pertaining to the plot of land or dwelling unit or commercial unit allotted to him.

(6) Every member of a co-operative housing society in whose favour a plot of land or a dwelling unit or commercial unit has been allotted shall have the right to use the common areas and facilities as aforesaid for the purpose for which they are intended without interfering with or encroaching upon the lawful rights of other members in whose favour similar allotment has been made.

(7) The work relating to the maintenance, repair and replacement of the common areas and facilities (including additions or improvements thereto) shall be carried out in accordance with the bye-laws of the co-operative housing society and the building rules of the concerned municipality, or other competent authority, as the case may be, and the costs thereof shall be apportioned amongst the members of the co-operative housing society in such manner as may be specified in the bye-laws of that society.

105. Rights of a member in a co-ownership housing society.— In a co-ownership housing society, the society, which holds free-hold or lease-hold land, shall execute deeds of lease or sub-lease, as the case may be, in favour of its members to whom the plots are allotted for such period and with such covenants as may be specified in the bye-laws of the society.

106. Provisions for nomination.— (1) Every member of a co-operative housing society shall nominate a person or persons to whom the occupancy right shall be transferred in the event of his death.

(2) The member shall have the right to change the nomination at any time.

(3) There shall not be more than one nomination subsisting at any time.

(4) On the death of the member, only occupancy right shall vest in the nominee and the succession to the property shall be governed by the law relating to succession and wills.

107. Restriction on letting out.— (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, no member of a co-operative housing society who has been allotted a plot of land or dwelling unit in a building over a period of three months shall part with the possession of such plot or dwelling unit, as the case may be, without the written consent of the board of directors of the society. On an application made in this behalf by the member concerned, the board of directors ⁴¹[may, subject to payment of prescribed non-occupancy fees to the society, give its consent] or refuse such consent for reasons to be recorded in writing and communicate its decision to the member within thirty days from the date of receipt of his application.

(2) If the board of directors fails to take decision on the application within thirty days from the date of its receipt or refuses such consent, the member shall have a right to appeal to the Co-operative Authority.

108. Restriction on transfer of share or interest of a member.— Subject to the provisions of this Act, in the case of a co-operative housing society, no transfer of share or interest of a member in the society or the occupancy right, except the transfer to his heir or a nominee, shall be effective, unless:—

(a) the transferor vacates and gives possession of the premises to the transferee provided that the transferor may give possession of the premises pending the society's approval for transfer;

(b) the dues of the society are paid or transferred to the transferee with the consent of the society;

⁴¹ For the words “may give its consent” the expression “may, subject to payment of prescribed non-occupancy fees to the society, give its consent” substituted by Amendment Act, 2004 (Goa Act 22 of 2004) published in O. G., Sr. I No. 23 dt. 3rd September, 2004.

(c) the transfer fees or transfer charges, as may be specified in the society's bye-laws, are duly paid;

(d) the previous permission of the society has been obtained in this behalf in writing and the transferee has been admitted as member.

109. Permission for transfer of occupancy right not to be ordinarily refused and provision for appeal.— (1) No co-operative housing society shall ordinarily refuse to grant to its member permission for transfer of his occupancy right in the property of the society, unless the transferee is not qualified to be a member under the provisions of this Act, rules and bye-laws of the society:

Provided that nothing contained in any agreement, contract or the said bye-laws regarding eligibility for membership stipulated therein shall apply to a nominee, representative of the deceased member for membership of the society heir or legal representative of the deceased member for his admission to membership of the society.

(2) The decision of the co-operative housing society on any application for permission to such transfer shall be communicated to the member within fifteen days from the date of the decision or within thirty days from the date of receipt of the application, whichever is earlier.

(3) Any person aggrieved by the decision of the co-operative housing society refusing permission for such transfer may, within thirty days from the date on which the refusal of permission is communicated to him, appeal to the Co-operative Authority.

110. Creation, maintenance and utilisation of building maintenance fund.— (1) A co-operative housing society, which owns land or building, shall maintain a building maintenance fund by collecting from its members contributions to the extent and in the manner as may be provided in its bye-laws.

(2) The building maintenance fund shall be utilised only for the purposes of repairs and maintenance of the building and for carrying out such structural additions and alterations to the building which are likely to increase its life.

(3) The building maintenance fund of the co-operative housing society, when not required by it for its immediate use, shall ordinarily be invested with the apex housing finance society of the State.

111. Miscellaneous.— (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the laws relating to rents or any other corresponding law for the time being in force in any part of the State, any dispute relating to the occupation or recovery of possession of any plot, dwelling unit or commercial unit in any society, the recovery of dues payable by a member or sub-allottee to a co-operative housing society or vice-versa arising on or after the date of commencement of this Act and suits or proceedings pending in any other court on the date after such commencement, shall be deemed to be a dispute within the meaning of section 83 of this Act, and shall be decided in accordance with the provisions of this Act, and no court or other tribunal or authority shall have jurisdiction to entertain and decide any proceedings in respect of such dispute.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in the law relating to rents or any other corresponding law for the time being in force, no licensee, caretaker, or sub-allottee who is occupying the dwelling unit or commercial unit, or plot of land in a co-operative housing society shall be a tenant of such dwelling unit or commercial unit or plot of land within the meaning of that law.

112. Unit of assessment.— Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, each plot of land or dwelling unit or commercial unit in a building (including the undivided interest in the common areas or facilities) shall constitute a separate unit for the purpose of assessment of rates and taxes to be realised by a local authority or any other authority competent in this behalf.

113. Certain portion of land acquired by’ the Government for housing to be utilised on co-operative principles.— Where the Government or any development authority under its control acquires any land for the purpose of housing, then, having regard to the purposes of such acquisition and all other relevant factors in this behalf, the Government shall endeavour to utilise, at least one-third portion of the land so acquired, on co-operative principles for the said purpose.

^{43-A} Substituted by the Amendment Act 6 of 2010

^{43-B} Clause (b) omitted by the Amendment Act 6 of 2010

(4) The Government may appoint ⁴⁴[The President or the Additional President of the Co-operative Tribunal] appointed under the Goa Administrative Tribunal Act, 1965 (Act No. 6 of 1965) to be the President of the Co-operative Tribunal.

(5) The Co-operative Tribunal shall frame regulations consistent with the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder, for regulating its procedure and the disposal of its business.

(6) The regulations made under sub-section (4), shall be published in the Official Gazette. The regulations governing the procedure of the Goa, Daman and Diu Co-operative Tribunal constituted under section 149 of the Maharashtra Co-operative Societies Act, 1960 (Maharashtra Act XXIV of 1961), as applied to the State of Goa, shall continue to be in force till such publication.

(7) The Co-operative Tribunal may call for and examine the record of any proceeding in which an appeal lies to it, for the purposes of satisfying itself as to the legality or propriety of any decision or order passed. If in any case, it appears to the Co-operative Tribunal that any such decision or order should be modified, annulled or reversed, the Co-operative Tribunal may pass such order thereon as it may deem just.

(8) Where an appeal or application is made to the Co-operative Tribunal under this Act, it may, in order to prevent the ends of justice being defeated, make such interlocutory orders pending the decision of the appeal or application, as the case may be, as may appear to it to be just and convenient, or such orders as may be necessary for the ends of justice, or to prevent the abuse of the process of the tribunal.

(9) An order passed in appeal or in revision under sub-section (6), or in review under section 115 by the Co-operative Tribunal, shall be final and conclusive, and shall not be called in question in any Civil or Revenue Court.

(10) (a) The President of the Goa, Daman and Diu Co-operative Tribunal functioning immediately before the commencement of this Act, shall be deemed to be the President of the Goa Co-operative Tribunal constituted for the purpose of this Act; and all appeals and other proceedings pending before the said Goa, Daman and Diu Co-operative Tribunal shall be heard and disposed of by the Co-operative Tribunal constituted under this Act from the stage they reached before such commencement.

(b) Anything done or any action taken including any orders passed or regulations made by the said Goa, Daman and Diu Co-operative Tribunal, shall be deemed to have been done or taken by the Co-operative Tribunal constituted under this Act and shall continue in operation until duly modified or annulled.

(c) Any reference to the said Goa, Daman and Diu Co-operative Tribunal in any law or instrument, for the time being in force, shall, with effect from the commencement of this Act, be construed as a reference to the Co-operative Tribunal constituted under this Act.

Explanation.— The Co-operative Tribunal hearing an appeal under this Act shall exercise all the powers conferred upon an Appellate Court by section 97 and Order XLI in the First Schedule of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (V of 1908).

⁴⁴ Substituted by the Goa Co-operative Societies (Amendment) Act, 2009.

115. Review of orders by the Co-operative Tribunal.— (1) The Co-operative Tribunal may, either on the application of the Registrar, or on the application of any party interested, review its own order in any case, and pass in reference thereto such order as it thinks just:

Provided that, no such application made by the party interested shall be entertained, unless the Co-operative Tribunal is satisfied that there has been discovery of new and important matter of evidence, which after the exercise of due diligence was not within the knowledge of the applicant or could not be produced by him at the time when its order was made, or that there has been some mistake or error apparent on the face of the record, or for any other sufficient reason:

Provided further that, no such order shall be varied or revised, unless notice has been given to the parties interested to appear and be heard in support of such order.

(2) An application for review under the foregoing sub-section by any party, shall be made within ninety days from the date of the communication of the order of the Co-operative Tribunal.

116. Co-operative Tribunal to have powers of civil court.— (1) In exercising the functions conferred on it by or under this Act, the Co-operative Tribunal shall have the same powers as are vested in a Court in respect of,—

- (a) proof of facts by affidavit;
- (b) summoning and enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him on oath;
- (c) compelling discovery or the production of documents; and
- (d) issuing commissions for the examination of witnesses.

(2) In the case of any such affidavit, any officer appointed by the Co-operative Tribunal in this behalf may administer the oath to the deponent.

117. Extension of period of limitation by Co-operative Tribunal in certain cases.— In all cases in which it is provided under this Act that an appeal may be filed against any decision or order within a specified period, the Tribunal may admit an appeal after the expiry of such period, if the appellant satisfies the Tribunal that he had sufficient cause for not preferring the appeal within such period.

CHAPTER - XIII

(2) Every change in the name of a society shall be made by an amendment of its bye-laws and shall be notified in the Official Gazette.

(3) After the change in the name is approved by the Registrar, the society shall send the original registration certificate to the Registrar for carrying out amendment and the Registrar shall return the same to the society duly amended.

(4) The Registrar shall enter the new name in the register of societies maintained by him.

13. Change of liability.— (1) The change of liability of a society shall be secured by passing a resolution in that behalf by not less than two-third of the members present at a general meeting of the society called for the purpose and indicating in clear terms the manner of changing the liability. The society shall give thirty days' notice in writing of such meeting to all its members and the creditors and shall furnish them with copies of the resolutions proposed to be moved at the meeting. After the resolution is duly moved and passed by not less than two-third of the members present at the general meeting, a copy thereof shall be sent to the Registrar within thirty days of its passing.

(2) Every notice to be given by the society under sub-section (2) of section 14 of the Act shall be sent by post under certificate of posting or otherwise to the address of each of its members and creditors as recorded in the books of the society. A copy of such notice shall be exhibited on the notice board of the society and a copy shall also be sent to the Registrar for exhibition on the notice board in his office, and thereupon, notice of the resolution to change the form or extent of its liability shall be deemed to have been duly given to all its members and creditors, notice not being sent to their correct address or notice not being received by them notwithstanding.

(3) For the purpose of determining the claims of a member under clause (b) of sub-section (4) of section 14 of the Act, the value of a share of a member in a society shall be ascertained by a valuation based on the financial position of the society as shown in the last audited balance sheet, provided that it shall not exceed the actual amount received by the society in respect of such share.

(4) Any member or creditor desiring to exercise his option under sub-section (2) of section 14 of the Act shall inform the society accordingly in writing, and when he does not propose to withdraw his entire share or deposits, the member or creditor shall clearly indicate in writing the extent of his withdrawal. The society shall examine and draw up a Scheme for orderly payment of all claims in an equitable manner including shares, the value of which shall be ascertained in accordance with the provisions of sub-rule (3). The Scheme may also provide for settlement of claims by mutual agreement. Where the Registrar does not approve the Scheme on the ground of impracticability or undesirability, the resolution passed by the society under sub-rule (1) shall be ineffective, and the form and extent of liability of a society shall remain unaltered in accordance with resolution passed as aforesaid.

(5) After the Registrar approves the Scheme, the society shall make payments to members and creditors as provided in clause (b) of sub-section (4) of section 14 of the Act, make a report to that effect to the Registrar and furnish the Registrar with a proposal to amend the bye-laws of the society duly passed in that behalf. On receipt of the proposal, the Registrar shall register the amendment in accordance with the provisions of section 11 of the Act.

14. Amalgamation, transfer of assets and liabilities, division or conversion of societies.— (1) Every society, desiring to effect amalgamation, transfer of assets and liabilities, division or conversion, as the case may be, shall make an application to the Registrar in that behalf, giving full details of the Scheme of such amalgamation, transfer, division or conversion, as the case may be.

(2) On receipt of such application, the Registrar may, after examining the details furnished in the application and other particulars which he may call upon the society to furnish, give his approval to the amalgamation, transfer, division or conversion, as the case may be, in the interest of the society.

(3) After the receipt of the Registrar's approval under sub-rule (2), the society shall convene a special general meeting by giving notice of at least thirty clear days to all its members and creditors and pass a resolution for amalgamation, transfer of assets and liabilities, division or conversion, as the case may be, by two-third majority of the members present and voting at the meeting. The resolution so passed shall contain the purpose and the full Scheme indicating how the proposed amalgamation, transfer, division or conversion, as the case may be, would be useful to the society and be given effect to. Where the Scheme does not involve transfer of the liabilities of the society to another society, a statement to that effect shall be made in the application to be made under sub-rule (1). Where the Scheme involves transfer of liabilities of the society, the society shall give written notice in Form 'F' to all its members, creditors and other persons whose interests are likely to be affected by such transfer. The notice shall also be published in at least one newspaper in circulation in the district in which the society's office is situated and a copy, thereof shall be exhibited on the notice board in the society's office.

(4) Within thirty days from the date of notice referred to in sub-rule (3), the members, creditors and other persons whose interests are likely to be affected by the transfer of liabilities of the society may exercise their option as required by clause (i) of sub-section (3) of section 15 of the Act, failing which, they shall be deemed to have assented to the transfer of liabilities of the society to another society.

(5) The society shall meet in full or otherwise satisfy all claims of the members and creditors and other interested persons who exercise the option.

(6) The society shall submit a report to the Registrar of the action taken by it and request him to give effect to its decision for amalgamation, transfer, division or conversion, as the case may be, by registering the amalgamated or converted society or the new society, as the case may be, and cancelling the registration of the societies which have been amalgamated, divided or converted, as the case may be.

(7) On receipt of the report from the society under sub-rule (6), the Registrar shall, after satisfying himself that the procedure has been properly followed register the amalgamated, divided or converted societies and cancel the registration of the societies which have been amalgamated, divided or converted as the case may be.

15. Re-construction of a society.— (1) An application for re-construction of a society under section 16 of the Act may be made in Form G'. On receipt of such application, the Registrar may, taking into consideration the compromise or arrangement for re-construction of the society, if he thinks fit, prepare a draft order indicating,—

(i) the manner in which the amounts payable by the society to its creditors should be paid and the amounts recoverable from its debtor members should be recovered;

(ii) the manner in which the share capital, if any, of such members should be reduced;

(iii) the manner in which the Scheme of reconstruction should be implemented; and

(iv) the manner in which the bye-laws of the society will stand amended in order to give effect to the Scheme of re-construction.

A copy of the draft order shall be exhibited on the notice board of the society and a copy thereof shall be exhibited on the notice board of the Registrar's office inviting objections and suggestions from all those interested within thirty days from the date of issue of the draft order.

(2) After taking into consideration the objections and suggestions, if any, received, the Registrar may issue an order approving such re-construction or staying further proceedings in respect of such re-construction. On issue of an order approving the re-construction, the society shall stand re-constructed and the bye-laws of the society shall be modified to that effect and to that extent.

16. De-registration of a society.— (1) The public notice of the proceedings of de-registration of a society under section 20 of the Act shall be published in at least one newspaper published in Goa and in wide circulation in the district in which the society's office is situated and a copy thereof shall be exhibited on the notice board of the office of the Registrar and the society. The cost of such publication shall be recovered from the assets of the society and in the absence of such assets, from the Chief Promoter or the Board of Directors of the society, as may be decided by the Registrar, as arrears of land revenue.

(2) The remuneration to be paid to the official assignee under sub-section (4) of section 20 of the Act shall not be more than 10% of the assets realised of the society under de-registration. The allowances to be paid to the official assignee shall be as applicable to Government employees as per his entitlement or as may be fixed by the Registrar, whichever is less.

CHAPTER III

Members and their rights and liabilities

17. Conditions to be complied with for admission for membership, etc.— No person shall be admitted as a member of a society unless,—

(i) he has applied in writing in the form laid down by the society in its bye-laws for membership together with his photograph and nomination form;

(ii) his application is approved by the Board of Directors of the society;

(iii) he has paid the entrance fee and the amount of qualifying shares as laid down in the bye-laws of the society for exercising the rights of membership;

(iv) he has fulfilled all other conditions laid down in the Act, the rules and the bye-laws;

(v) in case of a firm, company or body corporate, a society registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860, or any other law for the time being in force, a society registered or deemed to be registered under the Act or any other Co-op. Societies Act, a public trust registered under any law for the time being in force relating to registration of public trusts, the application for membership is accompanied by a resolution authorising it to apply for such membership.

18. Procedure for admission of joint members and minors and persons of unsound mind inheriting the share or interest of deceased member.— (1) A society may admit a joint member in accordance with the same procedure as laid down in rule 17 (i) to (iv). The application for joint membership shall be in the form as laid down by the society in its bye-laws.

(2) The joint members shall be entitled to appoint only one nominee each.

(3) In accordance with the procedure laid down in its bye-laws and these rules for admission of any member, a society may admit minors and persons of unsound mind inheriting the share or interest of deceased members as its members through their legal representatives or guardians, respectively. The members so admitted will enjoy such rights and liabilities through such legal representatives or guardians as are laid down in the bye-laws of the society.

19. Resignation of membership.— (1) Subject to the provisions of the Act, the rules and the bye-laws of the society, a member may resign from a society after giving three months notice to the society of his intention to resign his membership.

(2) No resignation of membership shall be accepted by the society unless the member has paid in full, his dues, if any, to the society.

(3) The withdrawal from membership shall also be subject to such restrictions regarding the maximum amount of share capital that can be refunded in a year or as may have been provided for in the Act, the rules or bye-laws of the society.

(4) Any member, whose resignation has been accepted by the society, or any heir or legal representative of a deceased member, may demand refund of the share capital held by such member or deceased member and the society shall, subject to the provisions of sub-section (3) of section 29 of the Act and subject to the provisions of the bye-laws, refund the amount within six months from the acceptance of the resignation or, as the case may be, the date of demand made by the heir or legal representative of the deceased member.

(5) In all cases where share capital is to be refunded, valuation of the shares to be refunded shall be made in accordance with the provisions contained in rule 21.

20. Voting rights of individual members in a federal society.— (1) In the case of federal societies, the voting rights of individual members, which term shall include the members enrolled under clauses (b) and (d) of sub-section (2) of section 21 of the Act, shall be on the basis of ‘one member one vote’.

(2) There shall be a separate constituency for individual members of a federal society. The Directors to be elected by the constituency of individual members shall not exceed 1/5th (one fifth) of the total number of Directors on the Board of Directors of the society as laid down in the bye-laws of the society (fraction being neglected).

21. Valuation of shares or interest.— (1) Where a member of a society ceases to be a member thereof, the sum representing the value of his share or interest in the share capital of the society to be paid to him or his nominee, heir or legal representative, as the case may be, shall be ascertained by a valuation based on the financial position of the society as shown in the last audited balance sheet preceding the cessation of membership.

(2) Where a person is allotted a share by the society, the payment required to be made therefor shall be as per the valuation based on the financial position of the society in the last audited balance sheet preceding such allotment.

22. Procedure for transfer of shares.— (1) No transfer of shares shall be effective unless,—

(a) it is made in accordance with the provisions of the bye-laws;

(b) a clear fourteen days notice in writing is given to the society indicating therein the name of the proposed transferee, his consent, his application for membership alongwith nomination form;

(c) all liabilities of the transferor due to the society are discharged or are accepted by the transferee;

(d) the transfer is registered in the books of the society together with the lien.

(2) Any charge in favour of the society on the share so transferred will continue unless discharged otherwise.

23. Nomination of persons.— (1) A member of a society may, for the purpose of transmission of his share or interest under sub-section (1) of section 30 of the Act or payment of value of his share or interest under sub-section (2) of section 30 of the Act, nominate not more than two persons as his nominees by submitting a nomination form laid down in the bye-laws duly signed by him.

(2) In the case of joint membership, each of the joint members will be entitled to nominate not more than one person as his nominee. The nomination form submitted by each of the joint members shall be signed by both the joint members.

(3) The society shall register such nomination in a register kept for the purpose.

(4) Where a member of a society has not made any nomination, the society shall call upon the member to submit his nomination form within ninety days of the service of notice by the Society upon such member for the said purpose.

(5) The nomination made under sub-rule (1) may be revoked or varied by any other nomination.

24. Registration of nominations.— The name and address of every person nominated for the purpose of sub-section (1) of section 30 of the Act and any revocation or variation of such nomination shall be entered in the register kept under rule 29.

25. Procedure for removal of member.— (1) Where a member is to be removed from a society on the grounds mentioned in section 25 of the Act, one month's show cause notice shall be served on him by registered post or in person stating the grounds on which the removal is proposed.

(2) The resolution for removal of the member shall be placed before the general meeting alongwith the explanation, if any, of the concerned member.

(3) After hearing the member, if present, or after taking into consideration any written representation in reply to the show cause notice, the general body of members shall proceed to consider the resolution.

26. Expulsion of member.— (1) Where any member of a society has committed acts which are detrimental to the interest or proper working of the society, the Board of Directors, suo-moto or at the instance of 1/5th (one fifth) of the total number of members of the society, shall bring a resolution before the general meeting of the society called for the purpose of considering the expulsion of such member of the society.

(2) No such resolution shall be placed on the agenda of the general meeting unless the member against whom such resolution is to be brought is served with one month's show cause notice by registered post or in person stating the grounds of the proposed expulsion.

(3) The resolution for expulsion to be placed before the general meeting shall be accompanied by the explanation of the member, if any, against the expulsion.

CHAPTER IV

Incorporation, Duties and Privileges of Societies

28. Procedure for change of address of societies.— Every change in its registered address shall be communicated by the society to the Registrar within thirty days thereof. Any such change shall not be treated as registered unless:—

(i) it is indicated in the bye-laws by amending them and the amendment so made is registered under the Act, and

(ii) the change is registered in the register as provided in rule 9.

29. Register of members.— (1) The register of members to be kept by every society under sub-section (1) of section 37 of the Act shall be in Form ‘H’.

(2) The list of members to be kept by every society shall be in Form ‘I’.

30. Certified copies of entries in books of societies.— For the purpose of section 39 of the Act, copies of any entries referred to in that section may be certified by any officer of the society duly authorised in that behalf by the board of directors under the seal of the society.

31. Procedure to reduce share capital.— (1) A society may reduce its share capital by passing a resolution in the general body by three-fourth majority of the members present in the meeting, if the accumulated losses are in excess of its tangible assets.

(2) The paid up share capital may be reduced either by reducing the face value of the shares or converting the existing shares into partly paid shares:

Provided that reduction in Government share capital in a society shall be only with the prior permission of the Government.

32. Government aid to societies.— Any society may be aided by the Government by way of subscription to share capital loan, grants, subsidies, guarantees on such terms and conditions as the Government may decide from time to time.

33. Conditions for borrowing by societies.— (1) No society shall incur liability exceeding in total ten times the total amount of its capital employed:

Provided that in the case of Apex Co-operative Bank and Central Co-operative Bank, the liability shall not exceed twenty times and in case of co-ownership housing societies, co-partnership housing societies and co-operative house mortgage societies, the total liability shall not exceed twelve times the amount of its capital employed.

Explanation (I): For the purpose of this rule, ‘capital employed’ means paid up share capital, accumulated profits, reserve fund, building fund, other than non-performing assets minus accumulated losses and intangible assets.

(II): For the purpose of this rule, the total loan taken, deposit accepted, creditors for goods and services however, shall not include the amount invested in Government securities or an amount deposited in Central or State Co-operative Banks.

(III): In calculating the total amount of liability for the purposes of this sub-rule, in the case of any society or class of societies the bye-laws of which permit borrowing or granting credit facilities on the pledge of agricultural produce or other goods a sum equal to the amount borrowed by such society or class of societies, on the security of agricultural produce or other goods of such society or its members shall be excluded from the amount of the total liability under this rule.

34. Loans and deposits from non-members by societies.— No society other than Co-operative Credit Society, Urban Co-operative Bank, Apex Co-operative Bank or Central Co-operative Bank shall receive any deposits from a non-member.

35. Raising of funds by societies.— (1) Every society, which has a share capital, shall provide in the bye-laws the maximum amount of such share capital, the number of shares into which it is divided, the class of shares, the face value of each share of each class and the rights and liabilities attaching to each class of shares.

(2) Any society, which is authorised under its bye-laws to raise funds, by the issue of debentures and bonds, may, with the approval of the general body by passing a resolution by three-fourth majority of the members present in the general body meeting, frame regulations regarding the maximum amount to be raised by the issue of debentures and bonds, the class or classes of debentures and bonds, the face value of each debenture or bond, the date on which the debentures or bonds are to be redeemed, the rate at which interest is payable, the terms and conditions regarding transfer of debentures and bonds and other incidental matters.

(3) The total amount of debentures and bonds issued at any time together with the other liabilities incurred by the society shall not exceed the maximum amount which the society can borrow under the provisions of rule 33.

(4) A society may issue bonus shares by way of capitalising its reserves and accumulated profits and such bonus shares issued may not rank pari-passu to the existing shares. Such bonus shares shall be issued by passing a resolution in the general body. The issue of bonus shares shall be in accordance with the rules as laid down in the bye-laws of the society.

36. Maintenance of liquid resource and distribution of assets.— Every society, except Co-operative Bank, which obtains any portion of its working capital by deposits, shall,—

(i) maintain such liquid resources and in such form as may be specified from time to time by the Registrar, and

(ii) utilise only such portion of its working capital in lending business and allocate its funds in accordance with such standards as may be specified from time to time by the Registrar.

37. Deduction from salary to meet the society's claim.— (1) The form of the Agreement to be executed by a member of a society in favour of the society under sub-section (1) of section 45 of the Act shall be in Form 'J'.

(2) The society shall send requisition to the employer for deduction from salary to meet the society's claim under sub-section (2) of section 45 of the Act in Form 'K'.

CHAPTER V

Property and funds of Societies

38. Maintenance and administration of provident fund.— A society which has established a provident fund for its employees under section 56 of the Act shall frame regulations for the maintenance, and utilisation of the provident fund for its employees. Among other matters, such regulation shall provide for the following:—

(i) amount (not exceeding ten percent of the employees' salary) of contribution to be deducted from the employees' salary;

(ii) the rate of contribution (not exceeding the annual contribution made by the employee) to be made by the society;

(iii) advances which may be made against the security of the provident fund;

(iv) refund of employees' contribution and contribution made by the society;

(v) mode of investment of the provident fund and payment of interest thereon.

39. Investment of funds in other mode.— A society may, in addition to the modes specified in clauses (a) to (f) of section 55 of the Act, invest or deposit its funds as are not needed by the society in secured debentures and deposits of companies and Co-operative institutions which are guaranteed by the State or Central Government.

40. Writing off of bad debts and losses.— A society may create a non-performing asset reserve from time to time by debiting the amount to profit and loss account. A society shall also make adequate provisions for bad and doubtful debts and losses on its own or at the direction of the statutory auditors. However, no bad debts shall be written off without the sanction of the general body:

Provided that, in case of a State aided society, no bad debts shall be written off without the prior approval of the Government and sanction of the general body.

41. Amount to be provided by a society before arriving at its net surplus.— A society shall, before arriving at the distributable net surplus under section 52 of the Act, make adequate provisions towards the guarantees given by the Government or any Government authorities, depreciation in value of investments redemption of share capital contributed by the Government or Government authorities or any federal society.

CHAPTER VI

Management of Societies

42. Disqualification for being director.— (1) In addition to the disqualifications specified in clauses (a) to (e) of sub-section (1) of section 60 of the Act, a person shall be ineligible for being chosen as a director if he is convicted with a sentence of imprisonment for six months or more for any offence under the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (45 of 1860) or under any other law for the time being in force.

(2) A person shall cease to be a director if such person incurs the disqualification specified in sub-rule (1).

(3) A person who incurs any disqualification specified in sub-section (1) or (2) of section 60 of the Act or sub-rule (1) or (2) of Rule 42 shall cease to be a member of the board of directors.

(4) (a) Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing sub-rules of rule 42, the cessation as director of a person who has incurred disqualification shall come into effect only after following the procedure mentioned in sub-clause (b).

(b) A person who incurs any disqualification specified in sub-section (1) or (2) of section 60 of the Act or sub-rule (1) or (2) of rule 42, shall be given notice by the chief executive to show cause against such disqualification, within fifteen days from the date of knowledge of such disqualification.

(c) The board of directors shall consider the matter of cessation of membership of the Board of the concerned director within fifteen days from the receipt of such notice by the concerned director and take decision on such cessation and such decision shall be communicated by the chief executive to the said director.

(d) In case the board of directors decides that the concerned director has incurred cessation, the decision of the board of directors shall come into effect immediately and the seat of such member on the board of directors shall be deemed to be vacant.

43. Election to the board of directors.— The elections to the board of directors of the societies mentioned in sub-section (1) of section 66 of the Act shall be conducted by the Registrar in accordance with the provisions of Chapter VII of the Rules.

44. Election to representative general body.— (1) The representative general body of a society shall be elected by forming representative group of members of that society having more than 5000 individual members.

(2) Representative group of members shall be formed of such number of members as may be laid down in the bye-laws of the society having relation to the total membership of the society so that representative groups shall not be less than 50 and more than 500.

(3) The representative groups shall be formed in such manner as may be decided by the board of directors of the society either in alphabetical order or numerical or alpha-numerical or geographical order or as per the constituencies in the bye-laws of the society. The number of members in each representative group shall be equal as far as possible. In forming the representative group, the geographical continuity shall be maintained.

A group representative shall be of each class of member separately in case of society having different classes of members as per the provisions in the bye-laws of the society.

(4) The election of the group representative shall be held in the same manner and according to the same procedure as provided in Chapter VII of the Rules for the election of the board of directors.

(5) Group representative elected in accordance with the procedure laid down in this rule shall be called a delegate.

(6) The number of groups representative will be decided by the board of directors of the society which is in office on the date of coming into force of the Act.

45. First general meeting.— (1) Within three months from the date of registration of a society, the chief promoter thereof, shall convene the first general meeting of all persons who had joined in the application for registration of the society. Where the chief promoter fails to convene the meeting as aforesaid, it shall be convened by any person authorised in that behalf by the Registrar.

(v) Fixing the limit upto which the funds may be borrowed;

(vi) Any other matter which has been specifically mentioned in the bye-laws.

46. General meetings.— (1) All general meetings of a society, excepting the first general meeting, shall be convened by the chief executive or any other officer authorised by and under the bye-laws to convene such meeting under intimation to the auditor who may attend such meetings.

(2) No general meeting shall be held or proceeded with unless the number of members required to form a quorum as specified in the bye-laws is present.

(3) The chief executive or any other officer convening the meeting shall read out the notice convening the meeting and the agenda for the meeting and then the subjects shall be taken up for consideration in the order in which they are mentioned in the agenda unless the members present, with the permission of the President, agree to change the order. Unless otherwise specified in the Act, these rules and the bye-laws, the resolutions will be passed by a show of hands by a majority of the members present. In case of equality of votes, the President will have a casting vote.

(4) If all the business on the agenda cannot be transacted on the date on which the general meeting is held, the meeting may be postponed to any other suitable date, not later than 30 days from the date of the meeting, as may be decided by the members present at the meeting.

(5) The remaining subject or subjects on the agenda shall be taken up for consideration at the postponed meeting.

(6) If the general meeting cannot be held for want of quorum, it shall be adjourned to a later time on the same day as may have been specified in the notice calling the meeting or to a subsequent date not earlier than seven days and at such adjourned meeting the business on the agenda of the original meeting shall be transacted whether there is a quorum or not.

(7) No resolution regarding expulsion or removal of the member of the society, or amendment of bye-laws shall be brought forward in any general meeting, unless due notice thereof is given in accordance with the provisions of the Act, these rules and the bye-laws of the society.

47. Preservation of books of account and records.— (1) The books of account and records and other documents as specified in clauses (a), (b), (c), (h) and (i) of sub-section (1) of section 73 of the Act shall be kept and maintained by the society permanently and records specified in clauses (d), (e), (f), (g) and (j) of said sub-section (1) of Section 73 of the Act be kept for a period of eight years.

(2) The books of account and records which are subject matter of litigation shall be preserved till the finality of such litigation.

48. Preparation of annual financial statements.— (1) In preparing the annual financial statements, the society shall prepare the accounts in accordance with the Mercantile accounting system, and after following the accounting standards issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India from time to time, incorporated under the Chartered Accountants Act, 1949 (38 of 1949).

(2) Before arriving at the net profit or loss, the society shall provide adequate resources for fulfillment of guarantees given by the Government or federal society or any other authority.

(3) Adequate provision shall be made for redemption of share capital contributed by the Government or federal society or any other authority.

49. Annual general meeting and approval of accounts.— The society shall hold the annual general meeting within nine months from the close of the co-operative year and place before the general body audited or unaudited profit and loss account, balance sheet and statement of appropriation of profits, auditor's report, audit rectification report, report of the board of directors, statement of calculation of patronage refund, annual budget and the statements relating to such other matters which require authorisation in this Act.

50. Form for the balance sheet and the profit and loss account.— (1) The balance sheet and the profit and loss account to be prepared and placed before the annual general meeting of a society by the board of directors shall be either in horizontal form or in vertical form in Form 'L-1 to L-4'.

(2) A copy of the balance sheet and profit and loss account to be presented at the annual general meeting under sub-clause (i) of clause (c) of sub-section (3) of section 58 of the Act and a copy of the annual report of the board of directors under sub-clause (ii) of clause (c) of sub-section (3) of section 58 of the Act shall be fixed on the notice board of the society atleast fifteen days before the date fixed for the annual general meeting.

51. Procedure for taking charge of property etc. by board of administrators.— (1) Immediately after the appointment of board of administrators under sub-section (1) of section 71 of the Act, the board of directors in whose place the appointment is made shall give to the board of administrators the charge of the property, documents and accounts of the society.

(2) In case of failure to hand over charge to the board of administrators, the board of director in whose place such appointment is made shall be deemed to have handed over such charge to the board of administrators and the board of administrators shall be entitled to take inventory of the property, documents and books of accounts of the society and copy of such inventory shall be submitted to the Registrar.

CHAPTER VII

Election to Board of Directors of Societies under section 66(1) of the Act

52. Manner of elections to board of directors of the societies.— The elections of the societies mentioned under sub-section (1) of section 66 of the Act shall be held or caused to be held by the Registrar through the machinery created for this purpose in the manner as specified hereunder, namely:—

(a) The Registrar may appoint any officer, not below the rank of Deputy Registrar of Co-operative Societies, as the Chief Election Officer of Co-operative Societies, who shall be subordinate to the Registrar and accountable to him for the purpose of such elections. He shall work under the general guidance of the Registrar.

(b) The Chief Election Officer shall have powers to appoint one or more officers with their jurisdiction as Assistant Election Officer, who shall not be below the rank of an Assistant Registrar of Co-operative Societies.

(c) The Chief Election Officer shall have powers to appoint such additional staff as he deems necessary to assist him and the Assistant Election Officer.

(d) The Chief Election Officer shall have powers of general guidance, superintendence and control over the Assistant Election Officers and the staff appointed under the foregoing clauses of these rules. The Assistant Election Officer and the staff so appointed shall be subordinate to the Chief Election Officer and shall be accountable to him for the purpose of elections.

(e) The Assistant Election Officer shall be responsible for holding the elections of the societies mentioned under section 66 (1) of the Act, headquarters of which are situated in his jurisdiction.

(f) For holding the elections of such societies, the Registrar or the Chief Election Officer or the Assistant Election Officer, as the case may be, shall have the following powers, namely:—

(i) To appoint any officer of the State Government, Zilla Parishad, any local body, any Co-operative Society, Agricultural Marketing Board having establishment in that district, on any post with such designation and duties for the purpose of holding the elections;

(ii) It shall be obligatory on every officer or employee so appointed, to perform the duties assigned on him, failing which, he shall be liable for prosecution, for having committed contempt of the lawful authority of public servant within the meaning of Chapter X of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (45 of 1860).

(iii) To requisition any premises, vehicles or any other material required for holding the election, from any Co-operative society as he may deem necessary.

(iv) On service of such requisition, it shall be obligatory on that society to whom such requisition is made, to forthwith hand over the possession of premises, vehicles or any other material, as the case may be to the requisitioning authority or any person authorised by him in that behalf.

(g) (i) The Registrar shall be competent to create a fund called the “Co-operative Societies Election Fund” as he deems fit by a special or general order.

(ii) The expenses of holding of any election to such society, including payment of travelling allowances, daily allowance and other remuneration if any, to the persons appointed to exercise the powers and perform the duties in respect of election shall be borne by such society concerned. For this purpose, the Registrar or the Chief Election Officer or the Assistant Election Officer may call upon such society to deposit in the Co-operative Societies Election Fund, such amount as he considers necessary for the conduct of elections within such period as may be directed by the Registrar:

Provided that, it shall be competent for the Registrar to exempt any such society or class of such societies from depositing in full or in part, such expenses.

(iii) If the expenditure exceeds the amount deposited, the Registrar or the Chief Election Officer or the Assistant Election Officer shall call upon such society to pay the excess amount as specified by him within eight days from the receipt of directions from him and the society shall comply with such directions.

(iv) On failure of such society to deposit the amount or to pay the excess amount as aforesaid, the Registrar or the Chief Election Officer may issue a certificate for recovery of amount due, together with interest thereon at the rate of 15% per annum from the society. On issue of such certificate, the amount shall be recovered as arrears of land revenue.

(h) The Registrar shall maintain a register in Form 'Election-1' in his office showing the names of such societies with details thereof.

(i) The chief executive of such society shall submit a report in Form 'Election-2' to the Registrar on or before 30th September of the preceding calendar year in which the term of office of the board of directors of such society expires:

Provided that, if the chief executive of such society fails to submit the report within the stipulated time, the Registrar shall proceed to enlist the names of such society or societies for the purpose of aforesaid clause on the basis of information available in the register and such enlisting the names shall be prima facie evidence that the election of the society is due to be held in the succeeding co-operative year, unless proved to the contrary.

(j) On receipt of the report or otherwise, the Registrar shall publish, on or before the 15th October, a list of societies in his office and in the office of the Assistant Election Officer, of which elections of the board of directors are to be held in the succeeding co-operative year.

53. Provisional list of voters.— (1) A provisional list of voters shall be prepared by every such society in the year in which the elections of such society is due to be held. If different constituencies are provided in the bye-laws, the names of voters shall be arranged constituency wise as laid down in the bye-laws.

(2) Four copies of the authenticated provisional lists of voters shall be submitted by the chief executive of the society to the Registrar, 120 days before the date of expiry of the term of the board of directors. Copies of such lists shall be displayed on the notice board of the society and of the office of the Assistant Election Officer and the Registrar, within 15 days from its receipt, inviting claims and objections from the members of the society.

(3) If, any chief executive fails to deliver copies of the provisional list of voters to the Registrar on or before the due date, the Registrar shall himself or through any person authorised by him in this behalf, prepare such provisional list of voters and the expenditure incurred therefor shall be recovered from the chief executive or other persons responsible therefor, as arrears of land revenue.

(4) In the event of the Registrar taking action under the last preceding sub-rule, he shall also cause copies of the provisional list of voters to be displayed on his notice board and on the notice board of the Assistant Election Officer and of the society for inviting claims and objections from the members of the society.

54. Particulars to be included in the provisional list of voters.— (1) The provisional list of voters, in the case of individual share holders, shall contain the name, father's or husband's name, surname, if any; with address recorded in the register of members of the society concerned in Form 'H', of every person entitled to be registered as voter with such other particulars as may be necessary to identify him.

(2) Where a member of the society concerned is of any one of the categories mentioned in clauses (b), (c) and (d) of sub-section (2) of section 21 of the Act, the society concerned shall call for the names of the representatives of such category of members duly authorised to vote at the election on behalf of the said category of members so as to reach it 150 days prior to the date of expiry of the term of office of the board of directors.

(3) While communicating the names of the representatives, the said category of members shall enclose a copy of the resolution of the Firm, managing committee or board of directors of such member wherein the representative is so authorised. The list of voters shall include the names of all such representatives as have been communicated to the society concerned before the date fixed for publication of the provisional list together with the names of the company, firm, body corporate, Co-operative society, public trust, etc. the registration number and address with name of the constituency, if any, to which they belong.

55. Claims and objections to the provisional list of voters and the final list of voters.— (1) When any provisional list of voters is published for inviting claims and objections, any omission or error in respect of the name or address or other particulars in the list may be brought to the notice of the Registrar in writing by any member of the society concerned who is a voter or any representative authorised to vote on behalf of such society during office hours within 15 days from the date of publication of the provisional list of voters.

(2) The Registrar shall, after making such enquiries as deemed necessary in this behalf consider each claim or objection, and give his decision thereon in writing to the persons concerned within 10 days from the last date prescribed for receiving the claims and objections and such list shall be the final list of voters.

(3) The copies of the final list of voters shall be displayed on the notice board of the Registrar and on the notice board of the office of the Assistant Election Officer and that of the society at least seven days before the declaration of the election programme and in no case later than fifteen days from the finalisation of claims and objections.

56. Appointment of Returning Officers, Assistant Returning Officers and such other Officers required to conduct the elections.— The Registrar or the Chief Election Officer or the Assistant Election Officer shall, whenever necessary, appoint the Returning Officer and may also appoint one or more persons to be called as the Assistant Returning Officers to assist the Returning Officer in the performance of his functions:

Provided that, in case where no other person is appointed as the Returning Officer, the Assistant Election Officer himself shall be deemed to be the Returning Officer and shall perform all the functions of the Returning Officer under these rules. Every Assistant Returning Officer, shall, subject to the control of the Returning Officer, be competent to perform all or any of the functions of the Returning Officer provided that no Assistant Returning Officer, shall perform any of the functions of the Returning Officer which relate to the scrutiny of nominations unless the Returning Officer is unavoidably prevented from performing the said function.

57. General duty of Returning Officer.— It shall be the general duty of the Returning Officer at any elections to do all such acts and things as may be necessary for effectually conducting the election in the manner provided in these rules.

58. Polling stations.— The Returning Officer shall, if necessary, provide a sufficient number of polling stations for any constituency for which election is to be held and shall publish on the notice board of the society and in such other manner as he deems fit, a list showing the polling stations so provided and the polling areas for which they have respectively been provided.

59. Appointment of Presiding Officers and Polling Officers.— (1) The Returning Officer shall appoint a Presiding Officer for each polling station and such polling officer or officers as he thinks necessary, but shall not appoint any person who has been employed by the concerned society or on behalf of, or has been otherwise working for a candidate in or about the election:

Provided that, if a polling officer is absent from the polling station, the Presiding Officer may appoint any person who is present at the polling station, other than a person who has been employed by the concerned society or on behalf of, or who has been otherwise working for a candidate in or about the election, to be the Polling Officer during the absence of such officer, and shall inform the Returning Officer accordingly.

(2) A Polling Officer shall, if so directed by the Presiding Officer, perform all or any of the functions of a Presiding Officer under these rules.

(3) If the Presiding Officer, owing to illness or otherwise or due to unavoidable cause, is absent from the polling station, his functions shall be performed by such polling officer as has been previously authorised by the Presiding Officer, to perform such functions during his absence.

60. General duty of Presiding Officer and Polling Officer.— (1) It shall be the general duty of the Presiding Officer at a polling station to keep law and order and to see that the poll is fairly taken.

(2) It shall be the duty of the Polling Officers at a polling station to assist the Presiding Officer for such station in the performance of his functions.

(3) The Presiding Officer, Polling Officer, Returning Officer, Assistant Returning Officers and other persons appointed for any of the purposes of these rules shall work under the general guidance, superintendence and control of the Assistant Election Officer or the Chief Election Officer.

61. Appointment of dates, etc., for various stages of an election.— (1) The Returning Officer shall, with the prior approval of the Chief Election Officer or the Assistant Election Officer, as the case may be, draw and declare a programme of various stages of election, as indicated hereinbelow, not earlier than seven days and not later than fifteen days of the date of display of the final list of voters of the society:—

(i) Last date for making nominations	7 days from the date of declaration of election programme.
(ii) The date of publication of list of nominations received	As and when received till the last date fixed for making nominations.
(iii) Date of scrutiny of nominations	Next day of the last date for making nominations.
(iv) Date of completion of scrutiny	Not later than three days from the date of scrutiny.
(v) Date of publication of list of valid nominations after scrutiny	Next day after the date of completion of scrutiny.
(vi) Date by which candidature may be withdrawn	2 days from the date of publication of list of valid nominations.
(vii) Date of publication of final list of contesting candidates	The date next succeeding the last day fixed for withdrawal of candidature.
(viii) Date and time during which and the place/places at which the poll shall be taken	Not earlier than 10 days but not later than 15 days from the date of publication of final list of contesting candidates (time and place to be fixed by the Returning Officer).
(ix) Date, time and place for counting of votes	Not later than the 3 rd day from the date on which the poll shall be taken (time and place to be fixed by the Returning Officer).
(x) Date of declaration of results of voting	Immediately after the counting of votes.

Explanation:— (1) If the last date in reckoning dates as specified in the above cases is a public holiday, the next succeeding working day shall be fixed for the respective events.

(2) The proportion of polling stations to the number of voters at each polling station and the place of polling station shall be fixed in consultation with the society concerned. In case the polling stations are spread over either the district, town or villages in the district, the Assistant Election Officer shall make arrangements to get all the ballot boxes to the office of the Returning Officer or to the registered office of the society or to such other safe place or places as he deems fit.

62. Manner of modification of election programme declared under rule 61.— (1) The time during which poll should be taken shall be mentioned in the election programme. The time of poll should not be earlier than 8.00 a.m. and later than 5.00 p.m.

(2) Wherever it is necessary to fix the time, date and place for any stage in the election programme, it shall be fixed by the Returning Officer and shall be mentioned in the election programme declared by him.

(3) If, due to any unavoidable circumstances and in the public interest, it has become imminent to modify the programme and there is no sufficient time for obtaining the previous approval of the Assistant Election Officer, or the Chief Election Officer, as the case may be, to such modifications, the Returning Officer may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, modify the programme. In every such case, the Returning Officer shall forthwith send a copy of the modified election programme alongwith the reasons recorded by him for such modification to the Chief Election Officer or the Assistant Election Officer, as the case may be.

63. Manner of publication of election programme declared under rule 61.— (1) The Returning Officer shall send a copy of the election programme declared under rule 61 in Form 'Election-3' to the society, either by special messenger or through registered post addressed to the society at the registered address, with instructions to display the copy of the programme on the notice board of the society. In addition, the said election programme shall be displayed on the notice board of the Returning Officer, the Assistant Election Officer and the Chief Election Officer.

(2) The election programme shall also be published at least in one local daily newspaper having wide circulation in the area of operation of the society.

64. Nomination of candidates.— (1) Any person may be nominated as a candidate for election to fill the seat, if he is qualified to be chosen to fill the seat under the provisions of the Act, Rules and the bye-laws and if his name is entered in the list of voters:

Provided that in the case of joint or associate member, only the member whose name stands first in the share certificate shall be eligible to be nominated as candidate for the election. Where the seats are reserved on the board of directors of any society as provided under sub-section (4) of section 67 of the Act, an individual belonging to the category specified in said sub-section (4) of section 67 of the Act shall be eligible for being nominated as candidate if his name appears in the list of voters.

(2) Every nomination paper presented under rule 65 shall be completed in Form 'Election-4':

Provided that a failure to complete or defect in completing the declaration as to symbols in the nomination paper, shall not be deemed to be a defect of a substantial character within the meaning of these rules.

(3) Any person whose name is entered in the list of voters may be a proposer or seconder for nominating a candidate for election:

Provided that in case of election from constituency of societies, the proposer and seconder shall be from the same constituency.

(4) A nomination paper shall be supplied by the Returning Officer to any voter on demand and on payment of such fees as determined by the Assistant Election Officer.

65. Presentation of nomination paper and requirements for valid nominations.—

(1) On or before the date appointed under rule 61, each candidate shall, either in person or by his proposer, deliver to the Returning Officer during the time and at the place specified in the programme declared under the said rule, a nomination paper completed as provided by rule 64 and signed by the candidate and by two voters of his constituency one of whom shall be a proposer and the other a seconder.

(2) In the case of reserved seat under the provisions of sub-section (4) of section 67 of the Act, a candidate shall not be deemed to be qualified to be chosen to fill that seat unless his nomination paper contains a declaration by him specifying the particulars of the scheduled caste or the scheduled tribe of which he is a member and in the case of members of economically backward classes, the details of his income and land holding during the year immediately preceding the election.

(3) On the presentation of nomination paper, the Returning Officer shall satisfy himself that the names and the number of candidate and of his proposer and seconder are, as entered in the list of voters. If a nomination paper is rejected under this rule, the Returning Officer shall record his reason for rejecting the same and in that case the candidate may deliver a fresh nomination paper subject however to his fulfilling all provisions of this rule:

Provided that the Returning Officer shall permit any clerical or technical error in the nomination paper in regard to the said name or number to be corrected in order to bring them into conformity with the corresponding entries in the list of voters and where necessary, clerical or printing error in the said entries shall be overlooked.

66. Symbols for elections.— (1) The Returning Officer shall specify the symbols that may be chosen by a candidate at the election from among those specified by him, but he shall not allot any symbols which are associated with political parties.

(2) Where, at any such election, more nomination papers than one are delivered by or on behalf of a candidate, the declaration as to symbols made in the nomination paper first delivered and no other declaration as to symbols shall be taken into consideration under sub-rule (2) of rule 64 even if that nomination paper has been rejected.

67. Deposit.— A candidate shall not be deemed to be duly nominated for election from a constituency unless he deposits or causes to be deposited with the Returning Officer a sum of Rs.100/- in cash and where the candidate belongs to a scheduled caste or scheduled tribe or economically backward class, a sum of Rs. 20/- shall be deposited:

Provided that, where a candidate has been nominated, by more than one nomination paper for election in the same constituency, not more than one deposit shall be required from him under this rule.

68. Notice of nomination and time and place for scrutiny.— The Returning Officer shall, on receiving a nomination paper under rule 65, inform the person or persons delivering the same, of the day, time and place fixed for the scrutiny of nominations and shall enter on the nomination paper, its serial number and shall sign thereon a certificate stating the date on which and the hour at which the nomination paper has been delivered to him and shall, as soon as may be, cause to be affixed on the notice board in his office, a notice of the nomination containing descriptions of the candidate, his proposer and seconder as contained in the nomination paper.

69. Scrutiny of nomination papers.— (1) On the date fixed for the scrutiny of nomination papers of the candidates, under rule 61, one person proposed by each candidate, duly authorised in writing by the candidate, may attend at the time and place appointed in this behalf and the Returning Officer shall give or cause to give them all reasonable facilities for examining the nomination papers of all candidates, which have been delivered as required by rule 65. No other person shall be allowed to attend scrutiny of nominations.

(2) The Returning Officer shall then examine the nomination papers and shall decide all objections which may be made to any nominations and may, either on such objections or on his own motion, after such summary inquiry, if any, as he thinks necessary, reject any nomination on any of the following grounds, this is to say:—

(i) that the candidate is disqualified for being chosen to fill the seat by or under the Act, these rules and the bye-laws;

(ii) that there has been a failure to comply with any of the provisions of rule 65 or 67;

(iii) that the signature of the candidate or the proposer or the seconder on the nomination paper is not genuine.

(3) Nothing contained in clauses (ii) or (iii) of sub-rule (2) shall be deemed to authorise the rejection of the nomination of any candidate on the ground of any irregularity in respect of a nomination paper if the candidate has been duly nominated by means of another nomination paper in respect of which no irregularity has been committed.

(4) The Returning Officer shall not reject any nomination paper on the ground of any defect which is not of substantial character.

(5) The Returning Officer shall hold the scrutiny on the date appointed in this behalf under rule 61 and shall not allow any adjournment of the proceedings, except when such proceedings are interrupted or obstructed by riot or open violence or causes beyond his control:

Provided that, in case any objection is raised by the Returning Officer or is made by any other person, the candidate concerned may be allowed time to rebut it, not later than two days (excluding holiday), and the Returning Officer shall record his decision on the date to which the proceedings have been adjourned.

(6) The Returning Officer shall endorse on each nomination paper his decision accepting or rejecting the same and, if the nomination paper is rejected, he shall record in writing a brief statement of his reason for such rejection, and copy of such statement shall be immediately supplied on demand to the candidate or to the proposer concerned. The copy of such statement shall be sent invariably to the Chief Election Officer or to the Assistant Election Officer, as the case may be.

70. Publication of list of valid nominations.— Immediately after all the nomination papers have been scrutinised and decision accepting or rejecting the same has been recorded, the Returning Officer shall prepare a list of candidates whose nominations have been accepted or rejected. Immediately on the day after the scrutiny is over, the Returning Officer shall affix the list on his notice board and shall record the date on which and the time at which, the list was so affixed.

71. Withdrawal of candidature.— (1) Any candidate may withdraw his candidature by application in writing and deliver it personally to the Returning Officer within the stipulated time as specified in the election programme.

(2) No candidate who has given an application for withdrawal of his candidature shall be allowed to withdraw his application.

72. Preparation of final list of contesting candidates.— (1) On the day next succeeding the last date fixed for withdrawal of candidature, the Returning Officer shall prepare and publish in Form 'Election-5' a list of contesting candidates.

(2) The said list shall contain the names in alphabetical order with reference to the surnames of the candidates having surnames and in respect of candidates not having surnames, in the alphabetical order with reference to their first names, in the language in which the list of voters is prepared and the addresses of the contesting candidates as given in the nomination papers.

(3) Where a poll becomes necessary, the Returning Officer shall consider the choice of symbols expressed by the contesting candidates in their nomination papers and shall,—

(i) allot a different symbol to each contesting candidate in conformity, as far as practicable, with his choice; and

(ii) if more than one contesting candidate have indicated their preference for the same symbol, decide by lot and such allotment shall be final.

(4) Every candidate shall forthwith be informed of the symbol allotted to him and be supplied with a specimen thereof by the Returning Officer.

73. Appointment of polling agents and counting agents.— (1) At an election at which a poll is to be taken, any contesting candidate may appoint one agent and one relief agent to act as polling agents of such candidate, at each polling station. Such appointment shall be made by a letter in writing in Form 'Election-6' signed by the candidate.

(2) The candidate shall deliver the letter of appointment to the polling agents who shall, on the date fixed for the poll, present it to and sign the declaration contained therein, before the Presiding Officer. The Presiding Officer shall retain the letter presented to him in his custody. The polling agent shall not be allowed to perform any duty at the polling station unless he has complied with the provisions of this rule.

(3) The polling agents may work as counting agents as per the authority given by the candidate in Form 'Election-7'.

(4) Each contesting candidate may appoint not more than two agents to act as counting agents of such candidate by a letter in writing in duplicate in Form 'Election-8' signed by the candidates. Before the commencement of the counting of votes, the candidate shall give notice of the appointment of such counting agents to the Returning Officer by forwarding to such Officer the letter of appointment. The candidate shall also deliver the duplicate copy of the letter of appointment to the counting agent who shall, on the date fixed for the counting of votes, present it to, and sign the declaration contained therein before the Returning Officer. The Returning Officer shall retain the duplicate copy presented to him in his custody. No counting agent shall be allowed to perform any duty at the place fixed for the counting of votes, unless he has complied with these provisions.

74. Uncontested elections.— If, after the expiry of the period within which candidatures may be withdrawn under rule 71, the number of candidates in the Constituency whose nominations have been accepted are equal to or less than the number of seats to be filled, the Returning Officer shall forthwith declare such candidate or all such candidates to be duly elected to fill the seat or the relevant number of seats, as the case may be, and shall complete and certify the declaration in Form ‘Election-9’ and where the Returning Officer is not the Assistant Election Officer himself, he shall send signed copies thereof to the Assistant Election Officer.

75. Manner of voting at elections.— At every election where a poll is taken, voting shall be by secret ballot in the manner hereinafter provided and no voting shall be allowed by proxy except as provided in the first proviso to sub-section (1) of section 28 of the Act.

76. Ballot box.— Every ballot box shall be of such design as may be approved by the Chief Election Officer.

77. Form of ballot paper.— Every ballot paper shall be in Form ‘Election-10’ and the names of candidates shall be arranged in the same order in which they appear in the final list of contesting candidates. However, if two or more candidates bear the same name, they shall be distinguished by addition of their occupation or residence or in some other manner which should be determined by the Returning Officer.

78. Arrangement at polling stations.— (1) Outside each polling station, there shall be—

(i) a notice specifying the polling area, the voters of which are entitled to vote at the polling station and where the polling station has more than one polling booth, at each of such booth, the description of the polling area of such booth, and

(ii) a copy of the final list of contesting candidates.

(2) At each polling station, there shall be set up, one or more voting compartments, duly screened, in which the voters can record their votes with secrecy.

(3) The Returning Officer shall provide at each polling station a sufficient number of ballot boxes, ballot papers, copies of the list of voters in respect of the polling area or areas the voters of which are entitled to vote at such polling station, instruments for stamping the distinguished mark on ballot papers and articles necessary for the voters to mark the ballot papers. The Returning Officer shall also provide at each polling station such other equipment and accessories as may be required for taking the poll at such polling station.

79. Admission to polling station.— The Presiding Officer shall regulate the number of voters to be admitted at any one time inside the polling station and shall exclude therefrom all persons other than,—

(a) Polling Officers;

(b) public servants on duty in connection with the election;

(c) persons authorised by the Chief Election Officer, Assistant Election Officer or the Returning Officer;

(d) candidates, their polling agents, and subject to the provisions of rule 73, one polling agent of each candidate;

- (e) a child in arms accompanying a voter;
- (f) a person accompanying a blind or infirm voter who cannot move without help;
- (g) such other persons as the Returning Officer or the Presiding Officer may employ for the purpose of identifying the voter.

80. The preparation of ballot boxes for poll.— (1) Where a paper seal is used for securing a ballot box, the Presiding Officer shall affix his own signature on the paper seal and obtain thereon the signatures of such of the polling agents present and are desirous of affixing the same.

(2) The Presiding Officer shall thereafter fix the paper seal so signed in the space meant therefor in the ballot box and shall then secure and seal the box in such manner that the slit for the insertion of ballot paper remains open.

(3) The seal used securing a ballot box shall be affixed in such manner that after the box has been closed, it is not possible to open it without breaking the seal.

(4) Where it is not necessary to use paper seal for securing the ballot box, the Presiding Officer shall secure and seal the ballot box in such manner that the slit for the insertion of ballot paper remains open and shall allow the polling agents present to affix, if they so desire, their seals.

(5) Every ballot box used at a polling station shall bear the seal, both inside and outside, marked with,—

- (i) the serial number, if any, and the name of constituency;
- (ii) the serial number and the name of the polling station;
- (iii) the serial number of the ballot box to be filled in at the end of the poll on the label outside the ballot box only; and
- (iv) the date of poll.

(6) Immediately before the commencement of the poll, the Presiding Officer shall demonstrate to the polling agents and other persons present that the ballot box is empty and bears the labels referred to in sub-rule (5) of this rule.

(7) The ballot box shall then be closed, sealed and secured and placed in full view of the Presiding Officer and the polling agents.

81. Identification of voters.— (1) The Presiding Officer may employ at the polling station such persons as he thinks fit to help in the identification of the voters or to assist him at the time of taking poll.

(2) As each voter enters the polling station, the Presiding Officer or the polling officer authorised by him in this behalf, shall check the voter's name and other particulars with the relevant entry in the list of voters and then call out the serial number, name and other particulars of the voter.

(3) In deciding the right of a person to obtain a ballot paper, the Presiding Officer or the polling officer, as the case may be, shall overlook clerical or printing errors in any entry in the list of voters, if he is satisfied that such person is the same voter whom that entry relates.

82. Challenging of identity.— (1) Any polling agent may challenge the identity of a person to be a particular voter by depositing a sum of Rs. 10/- in cash with the Presiding Officer for each such challenge.

(2) On such deposit being made by the polling agent, the Presiding Officer shall,—

- (i) warn the person challenged of the penalty for personation;
- (ii) read the relevant entry in the list of voters in full and ask the person challenged whether he is the person referred to in that entry;
- (iii) enter the name and address of the person challenged in the list of challenged voters in Form 'Election-11', and
- (iv) require the person challenged to affix his signature in the said list.

(3) The Presiding Officer shall, thereafter, hold a summary inquiry into the allegations and may, for that purpose,—

- (i) require the challenger to adduce evidence in proof of the challenge and the person challenged to adduce evidence in proof of his identity;
- (ii) put to the person challenged any question necessary for the purpose of establishing his identity and require him to answer them on oath; and
- (iii) administer an oath to the person challenged and any other person offering to give evidence;

(4) If, after the enquiry, the Presiding Officer is of the opinion that the challenge has not been established, he shall allow the person challenged to vote, and if he considers that the challenge has been established, he shall debar the person challenged from voting.

(5) If, the Presiding Officer is of the opinion that the challenge is frivolous or has not been made in good faith, he shall direct that the deposit made under sub-rule (1) be forfeited to the Co-operative Societies Election Fund and in the other case, he shall return it to the challenger at the conclusion of the enquiry.

83. Safeguard against personation.— (1) With a view to prevent the personation of voters, every voter about whose identity the Presiding Officer or the polling officer, as the case may be, is satisfied, shall allow his left thumb to be inspected by the Presiding Officer or the polling officer and an indelible ink mark to be put on it.

(2) If any voter refuses to allow his left thumb to be inspected or marked in accordance with sub-rule (1) or has already such a mark on his left thumb or does any act with a view to removing the ink mark, he shall not be supplied with any ballot paper or allowed to vote.

(3) Any reference in this rule to the left thumb of a voter, shall, in the case, where the voter has his left thumb missing be construed as a reference to any other finger of his left hand and shall, in the case where all the fingers of his left hand are missing, be construed as a reference to the thumb or any other finger of his right hand, and shall in the case where all his fingers of both the hands are missing, be construed as reference to such extremity of his left or right arm as he possesses.

84. Issue of ballot paper.— (1) No ballot paper shall be issued to any voter before the hour fixed for the commencement of the poll.

(2) No ballot paper shall be issued to any voter after the hour fixed for the closing of the poll, except to those voters, who are present at the polling station at the time of the closing of the poll. Such voters shall be allowed to record their votes even after the poll hours close.

(3) Every ballot paper shall, before issue to a voter, be,—

(i) stamped with such distinguishing mark as the Assistant Election Officer may direct, and

(ii) signed in full in its back by the Presiding Officer.

(4) No person in the polling station shall note down the serial numbers of the ballot papers issued to particular voters.

85. Voting procedure.— (1) The voter, on receiving the ballot paper, shall forthwith:—

(a) proceed to one of the polling compartments;

(b) make a mark on the ballot paper, with the instrument supplied for the purpose, on or near the symbol of the candidate for whom he intends to vote;

(c) fold the ballot paper, so as to conceal his vote;

(d) if required, show the Presiding Officer the distinguishing mark on the ballot paper;

(e) insert the folded ballot paper into the ballot box;

(f) quit the polling station.

(2) No voter shall be allowed to enter a polling compartment when another voter is inside it.

86. Procedure for voting where there are no separate constituencies or more than one seat is to be filled in one constituency.— In cases where there are no constituencies defined in the bye-laws or where more than one seat is authorised in the bye-laws for a constituency, voting insofar as these seats are concerned, shall be recorded in accordance with the following provisions, namely:—

(a) Every voter shall be entitled to give as many votes as there are seats for filling, which votes are to be taken but no voter shall give more than one vote to any one candidate;

(b) The voter shall make a mark on the ballot paper with the instrument supplied for the purpose on or near the symbol of the candidate or candidates for whom he intends to vote, so however that, no part of any mark so made shall appear in the space provided for other candidates. The voter shall, thereafter, fold the marked ballot paper, so as to conceal his vote and insert the folded ballot paper into the ballot box and without undue delay, leave the polling station.

87. Recording of vote of blind or infirm voter.— (1) If the Presiding Officer is satisfied that, owing to blindness or other physical infirmity, a voter is unable to recognise the symbols on the ballot paper or to make a mark thereon without assistance, the Presiding Officer shall permit the voter to take with him a companion of not less than twenty one years of age to the voting compartment for recording the vote on the ballot paper on his behalf and in accordance with his wishes, and if necessary, for holding the ballot paper so as to conceal the vote and inserting it into the ballot box:

Provided that, no person shall be permitted to act as the companion of more than one voter at any polling station on the same day:

Provided further that, before any person is permitted to act as the companion of a voter on any day under this rule, he shall be required to declare in Form 'Election-12' that he shall keep secret the vote recorded by him on behalf of the voter and that he has not already acted as the companion of any other voter at any polling station on that day.

(2) The Presiding Officer shall keep a record in Form 'Election-13' of all such cases under this rule.

88. Spoilt and returned ballot papers.— (1) A voter who has inadvertently dealt with his ballot paper in such a manner that it cannot be conveniently used as a ballot paper, may, on returning it to the Presiding Officer and on satisfying him of the inadvertence, be given another ballot paper and the ballot paper so returned shall be marked "spoilt cancelled" by the Presiding Officer.

(2) If a voter, after obtaining a ballot paper, decides not to use it, he shall return it to the Presiding Officer and the ballot paper so returned shall be marked as "Returned cancelled" by the Presiding Officer.

(3) All ballot papers cancelled under sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (2) shall be kept in a separate packet.

89. Tendered votes.— (1) If a person representing himself to be a voter applies for a ballot paper after another person has already voted as such voter, he shall, on satisfactorily answering such questions relating to his identity as the Presiding Officer may ask, be entitled, subject to the following provisions of this rule, to mark a ballot paper (hereinafter referred to as a "tendered ballot paper") in the same manner as any other voter.

(2) Every such person shall, before being supplied with a tendered ballot paper, sign his name against the entry relating to him in a list in Form 'Election-14'.

(3) A tendered ballot paper shall be the same as the other ballot papers used at the polling station, except that it shall be,—

(i) serially the last in the bundle of the ballot papers issued for use at the polling station, and

(ii) endorsed on the back with the words "tendered ballot paper" by the Presiding Officer in his own handwriting and signed by him.

(4) The voter, after marking a tendered ballot paper in the polling compartment, and folding it, shall, instead of putting it into the ballot box, give it to the Presiding Officer, who shall place it in a cover specially kept for the purpose.

90. Closing of poll.— (1) The Presiding Officer shall close a polling station at the hour fixed in that behalf under rule 62 and shall not thereafter admit any voter into the polling station:

Provided that, all voters present at the polling station before it is closed shall be allowed to cast their votes.

(2) If any question arises as to whether a voter was present at the polling station before it was closed, it shall be decided by the Presiding Officer and his decision thereon shall be final.

91. Sealing of ballot boxes after poll.— (1) As soon as practicable after closing of the poll, the Presiding Officer shall, in the presence of any candidates or their polling agents, close the slit of the ballot box and where the ballot box does not contain any mechanical device for closing the slit, he shall seal up the slit and also show any polling agent present, to affix his seal.

(2) The ballot box shall, thereafter, be sealed and secured.

(3) Where it becomes necessary to use a second ballot box by reason of the first box getting full, the first box shall be closed, sealed and secured as provided in sub-rules (1) and (2) before another ballot box is put into use.

92. Account of ballot papers.— (1) The Presiding Officer shall, at the close of the poll, prepare a ballot papers account in Form 'Election-15' and enclose it in a separate cover with the words "Ballot papers account" superscribed thereon.

(2) The Presiding Officer shall permit a polling agent, who so desires, to take a true copy of the entries made in the ballot papers account and shall attest it as a true copy.

93. Sealing of other packets.— (1) The Presiding Officer shall then make into separate packets,—

(i) the marked copy of the list of voters;

(ii) the unused ballot papers;

(iii) the cover containing the tendered ballot papers and the list of the tendered ballot papers;

(iv) the list of challenged votes; and

(v) any other papers directed by the Returning Officer to be kept in a sealed packet.

(2) Each such packet shall be sealed with the seal of the Presiding Officer and of those polling agents present, who may desire to affix their seals thereon.

94. Transmission of ballot boxes, packets, etc. to the Returning Officer.— (1) The Presiding Officer shall then deliver or cause to be delivered the following to the Returning Officer at such place or places as the Returning Officer may direct:—

(i) the ballot boxes;

(ii) the ballot papers account;

(iii) the sealed packets referred to in rule 93; and

(iv) all other papers used at the poll.

(2) The Returning Officer shall make adequate arrangements for the safe transport of all ballot boxes, packets and other papers and for their safe custody until the commencement of the counting of votes.

95. Fresh poll in case of destruction, etc., of ballot boxes.— (1) If, at any election,—

(i) any ballot box used at a polling station is unlawfully taken out of the custody of the Presiding Officer or the Returning Officer or is accidentally or intentionally destroyed or lost, or is damaged or tampered with, to such an extent, that the result of the poll at the polling station cannot be ascertained, or

(ii) any such error or irregularity in the procedure as is likely to vitiate the poll is committed at a polling station, the Returning Officer (where the Assistant Election Officer himself is not the Returning Officer) shall forthwith report the matter to the Assistant Election Officer.

(2) The Assistant Election Officer, upon receipt of such report or of his own motion, in the circumstances stated in sub-rule (1) of this rule, shall, after taking into consideration all material circumstances, either,—

(i) declare the poll at the polling station to be void, appoint a day and fix the hours, for taking a fresh poll at that polling station and notify the day, so appointed and the hours, so fixed in such manner as deemed fit, or

(ii) if satisfied that, the result of a fresh poll at that polling station will not, in any way, affect the result of the election or that the error or irregularity in procedure is not material, issue such directions to the Returning Officer or take such action as he may deem proper for the election.

(3) The provisions of the Act and the rules or the bye-laws shall apply to every such fresh poll as they apply to the original poll.

96. Counting of votes.— At every election where a poll is taken, votes shall be counted by or under the supervision and direction of the Returning Officer and each contesting candidate and his counting agents shall have a right to be present at the time of counting.

97. Admission to the place fixed for counting.— (1) The Returning Officer shall exclude from the place fixed for counting of votes all persons except,—

- (i) such persons as he may appoint to assist him in the counting;
- (ii) persons authorised by the Assistant Election Officer;
- (iii) public servants on duty in connection with the election; and
- (iv) candidates and their counting agents.

(2) No person, who has been employed by the society or has been otherwise working for a candidate in the election, shall be appointed under clause (i) of sub-rule (1).

(3) The Returning Officer shall decide, which counting agent or agents shall watch the counting at any particular counting table or group of counting tables.

(4) Any person who, during the counting of votes, misconducts himself or fails to obey the lawful directions of the Returning Officer, may be removed from the place where the votes are being counted by the Returning Officer or by any police on duty or by any person authorised in this behalf by the Returning Officer.

98. Scrutiny and opening of ballot boxes.— (1) The Returning Officer may have the ballot boxes used at more than one polling station opened and their contents counted simultaneously.

(2) Before any ballot box is opened at a counting table, the counting agents present at that table shall be allowed to inspect the paper seal or such other seal as might have been affixed thereon and to satisfy themselves that it is intact.

(3) The Returning Officer shall satisfy himself that none of the ballot boxes has in fact been tampered with. He shall not count the ballot papers contained in tampered box and shall follow the procedure laid down in rule 95 in respect of that polling station.

99. Scrutiny and rejection of ballot papers.— (1) The ballot papers taken out of each ballot box shall be arranged in convenient bundles and scrutinised.

(2) The Returning Officer shall reject a ballot paper,—

(i) if it bears any mark or writing by which the voter can be identified; or

(ii) if no vote is recorded thereon; or

(iii) if votes are given on it in favour of more than one candidate where only one candidate is to be elected; or

(iv) if, where more than one candidate is to be elected and the voter has recorded on the ballot paper more votes than he is entitled to give; or

(v) if the mark indicating the vote, thereon is placed in such a manner as to make it doubtful as to for which candidate the vote has been given; or

(vi) if it is a spurious ballot paper; or

(vii) if it, is so damaged or mutilated that its identity as a genuine ballot paper cannot be established; or

(viii) if it bears a serial number or is of a design different from the serial number or, as the case may be, design of the ballot papers authorised for use at the polling station; or

(ix) it does not bear the mark which it should have borne under the provisions of sub-rule (3) of rule 84:

Provided that:

(1) Where a Returning Officer is satisfied that any such defect as is mentioned in clause (vii) or (viii) of this sub-rule has been caused by any mistake or failure on the part of the Presiding Officer or the Polling Officer, the ballot paper shall not be rejected merely on the ground of such defect;

(2) A ballot paper shall not be rejected merely on the ground that the mark indicating the vote is indistinct or made more than once, if the intention that the vote shall be for a particular candidate clearly appears from the way the paper is marked;

(3) Before rejecting any ballot paper under sub-rule (2) of this rule, the Returning Officer shall allow each counting agent present a reasonable opportunity to inspect the ballot paper;

(4) The Returning officer shall record the letter “R” on every ballot paper which he rejects and shall also record the grounds of rejection in abbreviated form, either in his own hand or by means of a rubber stamp.

(5) All ballot papers rejected under this rule shall be bundled together.

100. Procedure for counting of votes.— (1) Every ballot paper which is not rejected under rule 99 shall be counted as one valid vote, provided that, no cover containing tendered ballot papers shall be opened and no such paper shall be counted.

(2) After the counting of all ballot papers contained in all the ballot boxes used at a polling station has been completed, the Returning Officer shall make the entries in a result sheet in Form 'Election-16' and announce the particulars.

(3) The valid ballot papers shall thereafter be bound together and kept along with the bundle of rejected ballot papers in a separate packet which shall be sealed and on which the following particulars shall be recorded, namely:—

- (i) the name of the constituency;
- (ii) the particulars of the polling station where the ballot papers have been used; and
- (iii) the date of counting.

101. Counting to be continuous.— The Returning Officer shall, as far as practicable, proceed continuously with the counting of votes and shall, during any intervals when the counting has to be suspended, keep the ballot papers, packets and other papers relating to the election sealed with his own seal and the seals of such candidates or counting agents as may desire to affix their seals and shall cause adequate precautions to be taken for their safe custody during such intervals.

102. Procedure for counting of votes where there are no separate constituencies or more than one seat to be filled in one Constituency.— In cases where there are no constituencies defined in the bye-laws or where more than one seat is authorised in the bye-laws for a Constituency, counting of votes for these seats shall be done in the following manner, namely:—

(a) The counting of votes shall be done by and under the supervision of the Returning Officer, with the assistance of such persons as he may appoint to assist in the counting of votes.

(b) After each ballot box is opened for counting, clearly valid voting papers shall be separated from invalid and doubtful voting papers. The invalid and doubtful voting papers shall be submitted to the Returning Officer for decision. The valid voting papers shall thereafter be taken up for counting and the votes recorded in favour of each candidate shall be counted with the aid of the person appointed to assist the counting of votes.

(c) The Returning Officer shall allow the candidates and their counting agents, who be present, reasonable opportunity to inspect all voting papers which, in the opinion of the Returning Officer, are liable to be rejected but shall not allow them to handle those or any other voting papers. The Returning Officer shall, on every voting paper which is rejected, endorse the letter "R". If any candidate or his counting agent questions the correctness of the rejection of any voting paper, the Returning Officer shall also record briefly on such voting paper the ground for its rejection.

(d) After the counting of all voting papers contained in all the ballot boxes used has been completed, the Returning Officer shall cause to be sealed up in separate packets with a description endorsed on each such packet of the voting papers counted and the voting papers rejected.

(e) The Returning Officer shall, as far as practicable, proceed continuously with the counting of the votes and shall, during any intervals when the counting has to be suspended, keep the voting papers, packets and other documents relating to the election sealed with his own seal and the seal of such candidate or counting agents as may desire to affix their seals and shall cause adequate precautions to be taken for their safe custody.

(f) After the counting of ballot papers contained in all the ballot boxes used at the polling stations has been completed, the Returning Officer shall prepare a consolidated statement recording therein the total number of votes polled by each candidate.

103. Re-commencing of counting after fresh poll.— (1) If a fresh poll is held under rule 95, the Returning Officer shall, after completion of that poll, re-commence the counting of votes on the date and the time and place which have been fixed by him in that behalf and of which notice has been previously given to the candidates.

(2) The provisions of rules 99 and 100 shall apply, so far as may be, to such further counting.

104. Recount of votes.— (1) After the completion of counting, the Returning Officer shall record in the result sheet in Form 'Election-16' the total number of votes polled by each candidate and announce the same:

Provided that, when an equality of votes is found to exist between any candidates, either for the reserved or the unreserved seats, and the addition of one vote will entitle any of the candidate to be declared elected, the determination of the person or persons to whom such additional vote shall be deemed to have been given shall be made by lots to be drawn in the presence of the Returning Officer and the candidates who may desire to be present, and in such manner as the Returning Officer may determine.

(2) After such announcement has been made, a candidate or, in his absence, his polling agent may apply in writing to the Returning Officer for a recount of all or any of the ballot papers already counted stating the grounds on which he demands such recount.

(3) On such application being made, the Returning Officer shall decide the matter and may allow the application in whole or in part or may reject it totally, if it appears to be frivolous or unreasonable.

(4) Every decision of the Returning Officer under sub-rule (3) shall be in writing and contain the reasons therefor.

(5) If the Returning Officer decides under sub-rule (3) to allow an application, either in whole or in part, he shall,—

(i) count the ballot papers again in accordance with his decision;

(ii) amend the result sheet in Form 'Election-16' to the extent necessary after such recount; and

(iii) announce the amendment so made by him.

(6) After the total number of votes polled by each candidate has been announced under sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (5), as the case may be, the Returning Officer shall complete and sign the result sheet in Form 'Election-16':

Provided that, no steps under this sub-rule shall be taken on the completion of the counting until the candidates present at the completion thereof have been given a reasonable opportunity to exercise the rights conferred by sub-rule (2).

105. Declaration of result and publication of names of the elected directors.— (1) The Returning Officer shall then declare the candidate to whom the highest number of valid votes has been given as having been elected and certify the return of election in Form 'Election-17' and where the Assistant Election Officer himself is not the Returning Officer shall send signed copies thereof to the Assistant Election Officer.

(2) On receipt of the declaration, the Assistant Election Officer shall publish the names of all elected directors by causing a list of such names together with their permanent address and the names of constituencies from which they are elected on the notice board of his office and shall send a copy thereof to the registered address of the society concerned for affixing it on the notice board and also for its record. The Assistant Election Officer shall send a list of the elected directors to the Chief Election Officer.

106. Return of forfeiture of candidate's deposit.— (1) The deposit made under rule 67 shall either be returned to the person making it or to the representative heir or be forfeited to the Co-operative Societies Election Fund in accordance with the provisions of sub-rule (5) of rule 82.

(2) Except in cases hereinafter mentioned in this rule, deposit shall be returned as soon as practicable after the result of the election is declared.

(3) If the candidate is not shown in the list of contesting candidates, or he dies before the commencement of the poll, the deposit shall be returned as soon as practicable after the publication of the list or after his death, as the case may be.

(4) Subject to the provisions of sub-rule (3), the deposit shall be forfeited to the Co-operative Societies Election Fund, if, at an election, where a poll has been taken, the candidate is not elected and the number of valid votes polled by him does not exceed one tenth of the total number of valid votes polled by all the candidates or in the case of election of more than one director at the election, does not exceed one-tenth of the total number of valid votes so polled divided by the number of directors to be elected.

107. Custody of papers relating to elections.— The Returning Officer shall have the custody of packets referred to in rule 93 and all other papers relating to the elections for a period of 3 months from the date of declaration of result and such packets, shall be handed over to the Assistant Election Officer, thereafter.

108. Production and inspection of election papers.— While in the custody of the Assistant Election Officer, the packets of unused ballot papers, the packets of used ballot papers, whether valid, tendered or rejected, and the marked copies of the voters list shall not be opened and their contents shall not be inspected by or produced before any person or persons except under the order of the co-operative authority, the Co-operative Tribunal or the High Court of Bombay at Panaji.

109. Disposal of election papers.— The packets referred to in rule 108 shall be retained for a period of one year and shall thereafter be destroyed subject to any directions to the contrary given by the Co-operative Authority, the Co-operative Tribunal or the High Court of Bombay at Panaji.

110. Co-operative Societies Election Fund.— (1) There shall be an election fund called the “Co-operative Societies Election Fund” in which all the amounts received as deposits from the contesting candidates, the election expenses received from the societies and any other amounts received in connection with the election shall be credited by the Chief Election Officer, the Assistant Election Officer or any other officer authorised by the Chief Election Officer.

(2) The Chief Election Officer, the Assistant Election Officer or any other person authorised by the Chief Election Officer in that behalf shall be entitled to open and operate the bank account or accounts for the purpose of election expenses to be incurred from out of the amount credited in the Co-operative Societies Election Fund. Such account or accounts shall be operated by any two officers concerned.

(3) The accounts related to the Co-operative Societies Election Fund shall be audited by the auditors of the Co-operative Department within six months from the completion of the respective election and the audit report shall be submitted to the Registrar and the Chief Election Officer within fifteen days of the completion of audit.

(4) The Registrar shall appoint the auditors from among the auditors of the Co-operative Department, to audit the accounts of the Co-operative Societies Election Fund.

(5) Any surplus amount remaining after the completion of the election of the society shall be refunded by the Chief Election Officer to the concerned society within three months from the submission of the audit report to the Registrar.

(6) Interest accrued in the Co-operative Societies Election Fund shall remain as part of the fund and shall not be considered for the purpose of refund.

111. Election to the representative general body.— The provisions of rules 52 to 110 of this Chapter shall apply mutatis mutandis to the elections of the representative general body of the societies mentioned in section 69 of the Act.

CHAPTER VIII

Accounts, Audit and Inquiry

112. Form for rectification of defects.— Rectification of defects shall be in Form ‘M’.

113. Filing fees.— (1) The filing fees to be paid while submitting the documents specified in section 81 of the Act shall be as follows:—

Society whose—

- | | |
|---|-----------------|
| (a) Paid up capital is upto Rs. 1.00 lakh | Rs. 100/- |
| (b) Paid up capital exceeds Rs. 1.00 lakh
but does not exceed Rs. 5.00 lakhs | Rs. 200/- |
| (c) Paid up capital exceeds Rs. 5.00 lakhs
but does not exceed Rs. 25.00 lakhs | Rs. 300/- |
| (d) Paid up capital exceeds Rs. 25.00 lakhs | Rs. 500/- |

(2) The Registrar may levy additional fees for the delay in submitting the documents specified in section 81 of the Act, as follows:—

In case of—

- | | |
|---|-----------------|
| (a) delay in filing upto 6 months | 1 time |
| (b) delay of above 6 months but upto 12 months | 2 times |
| (c) delay of above 12 months but upto 24 months | 3 times |
| (d) delay of above 24 months but upto 36 months | 4 times |
| (e) delay of above 36 months but upto 60 months | 5 times |
| (f) delay beyond 60 months and above | 10 times. |

Explanation:— The provisions of this rule shall not apply to the annual general meeting or special general meeting held to adopt the accounts for the year prior to the coming into force of the Act.

114. Levy of audit fees, costs and expenses.— (1) (a) The Registrar may levy audit fees payable annually by the societies notified under sub-section (2) of section 74 of the Act on or before the date specified by him and at such rates as may be fixed by him with the approval of the Government.

(b) Such rates may be revised from time to time.

(2) The societies under liquidation and societies whose audit is done by the Registrar under sub-section (6) of section 74 of the Act shall pay the audit fees at the same rate as fixed for the societies under sub-rule (1).

(3) The cost and expenses of special audit payable by the creditor under sub-section (2) of section 76 of the Act and the expenses of inquiry payable under sub-section (3) of section 77 of the Act as may be fixed by the Registrar shall be paid to the Registrar.

(4) All such fees and expenses if not paid by the specified date shall be recovered as arrears of land revenue.

CHAPTER IX

Disputes and Co-operative Authorities

115. Reference of dispute.— A reference of a dispute under section 83 of the Act shall be made in writing to the Co-operative Authority in Form 'N'.

116. Qualifications of Co-operative Authorities.— (1) No person shall be eligible for appointment as a Co-operative Authority unless,—

(i) he is holding or has held a judicial office not lower in rank than that of a Civil Judge (Junior Division); or

(ii) he has practiced as an Advocate for not less than five years; or

(iii) he holds a post of Assistant Registrar of Co-operative Societies and has worked in the Co-operative Department for not less than 5 years as on the date of his appointment to the post of Co-operative Authority, whether possessing a degree in Law or not.

(2) The number of Co-operative Authorities appointed under clause (iii) of sub-rule (1), shall at no time exceed two third of the total number of co-operative authorities.

117. Age limit of Co-operative Authorities.— No person shall hold or continue to hold office of a Co-operative Authority after he attains the age of 58 years.

118. Conditions of service of Co-operative Authorities.— If a Co-operative Authority is in Government service at the time of his appointment, his pay, allowance and other conditions of service shall continue to be governed by the service conditions and rules applicable to him before such appointment and if he is a direct recruit, his pay, allowances and other conditions of service shall be governed by the rules made by the State Government, from time to time.

119. Procedure for hearing and decision of disputes.— (1) The Co-operative Authority shall record the evidence of parties to a dispute and the witnesses who attend. Upon the evidence so recorded and upon consideration of any documentary evidence produced by the parties, a decision shall be given by him in writing. Such decision shall be pronounced in open Court by the Co-operative Authority, either at once or as soon as may be practicable on some future day, of which due notice shall be given to the parties.

(2) Where neither party appears when the dispute is called on for hearing, the Co-operative Authority may make an order that it be dismissed for default.

(3) Where the opponent appears and the disputant does not appear when the dispute is called on for hearing, the Co-operative Authority may make an order that the dispute be dismissed, unless the opponent admits the claim or a part thereof, in which case the Co-operative Authority, as the case may be, may make an order against the opponent upon such admission, and where, part only of the claim is admitted, may dismiss the dispute so far as it relates to the remainder.

(4) Where the disputant appears and the opponent does not appear, when the dispute is called for hearing, then, if the Co-operative Authority is satisfied from the records and proceedings that the summons was duly served, the Co-operative Authority may proceed ex-parte. Where the summons is served by the Officer of the Co-operative Authority, he shall make his report of service on oath.

(5) The Co-operative Authority may not ordinarily grant more than two adjournments to each party to the dispute at his request. The Co-operative Authority may, however, at his discretion, grant such further adjournments on payment of such cost to the other side as the Co-operative Authority may direct.

(6) Any party to a dispute may apply for and obtain a certified copy of any order, judgment or award made by the Co-operative Authority on payment of copying fees at the rate of Rs. 5/- for every page of full scape size or any part thereof and Rs. 10/- for every page of double the full size or part thereof, of order, judgment or award;

120. Summonses, notices and fixing of dates, place, etc., in connection with the disputes.— (1) The Co-operative Authority may issue summonses or notices at least fifteen days before the date fixed for hearing of the dispute, requiring,—

(i) the attendance of the parties to the dispute and of witnesses, if any, and

(ii) the production of all books and documents relating to the matter in dispute.

(2) Summonses or notices issued by the Co-operative Authority may be served through any employee of the co-operative authority or by registered post with acknowledgement due.

(3) The employee of the Co-operative Authority serving a summons or notice shall, in all cases in which summons or notice has been served, endorse or annex or cause to be endorsed on or annexed to the original summons or notice, a return stating the time when, and the manner in which, the summons or, as the case may be, notice was served, and the name and address of the person, if any, identifying the person served and witnessing the delivery or tender of the summons or the notice.

(4) The Co-operative Authority issuing the summons or notice may examine the serving employee on oath and may make such further inquiry in the matter as he thinks fit and shall, either declare that the summons or, as the case may be, notice has been duly served or order it to be served in such manner as he thinks fit.

121. Investigation of claims and objections against any attachment.— Where any claim or objection has been preferred against the attachment of any property under section 88 of the Act on the ground that such property is not liable to such attachment, the Co-operative Authority shall investigate into the claim or objection and dispose it of, on merits:

Provided that, no such investigation shall be made when the Co-operative Authority is of the opinion that the claim or objection is frivolous.

122. Procedure for the custody of property attached under section 88.— (1) Where the property to be attached under section 88 of the Act is movable property, other than agricultural produce in the possession of the debtor, the attachment shall be made by the actual seizure and the attaching Officer shall keep the property in his own custody or in the custody of one of his subordinates, or of a Receiver, if one is appointed under sub-rule (2) and shall be responsible for the due custody thereof:

Provided that, when the property seized is subject to speedy and natural decay, or when the expenses of keeping it in custody is likely to exceed its value, the attaching Officer may sell it at once.

(2) Where it appears to the Officer ordering conditional attachment under section 88 of the Act to be just and convenient, he may appoint a Receiver for the custody of the movable property attached under that section and his duties and liabilities shall be identical with those of a Receiver appointed under Order XL in the First Schedule to the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (V of 1908).

(3) (i) Where the property to be attached is immovable, the attachment shall be made by an order prohibiting the debtor from transferring or charging the property in any way, and all persons from taking any benefit from such transfer or charge.

(ii) A copy of the order shall be fixed on a conspicuous part of the property and in the office of the Village Panchayat and where the property is land paying revenue to the State Government, also in the office of the Mamlatdar and Talathi within whose jurisdiction the property is situated.

123. Procedure for attachment and sale of property for realisation of any security given by person in course of execution proceedings.— The procedure laid down in rules 120 and 122 shall, mutatis mutandis, apply for attachment and sale of property for the realisation of any security given by a person in the course of execution proceedings.

124. Procedure for execution of awards and orders of Co-operative Authority, Registrar and Liquidator.— (1) Every award passed by the Co-operative Authority under section 89 of the Act or order under section 88 of the Act or under any other provisions of the Act shall be forwarded by the Co-operative Authority to the society or the party concerned with instructions that the society or, as the case may be, the party concerned should initiate execution proceedings forthwith according to the provisions of section 91 of the Act.

(2) If the award or order referred to in sub-rule (1) is not carried out, it shall be forwarded by the society or as the case may be, by the party concerned, to the Co-operative Authority with an application for execution in Form 'O'.

(3) On receipt of such application for execution, the Co-operative Authority shall execute the award or order, as far as may be, in the same manner as a decree of a Civil Court.

(4) Every order passed by the Registrar or the Liquidator, which is not complied with and referred by the Registrar or the Liquidator to the Co-operative Authority, shall be executed by the Co-operative Authority in the manner laid down in sub-rule (3).

(5) Every order passed in appeal under section 114 or in review under section 115 of the Act shall also be executed in the manner laid down in sub-rule (3).

125. Transfer of property which cannot be sold.— (1) When, in execution of an award or order sought to be executed under section 91 of the Act, any property cannot be sold for want of buyers, if such property is in the possession of the defaulter or some person on his behalf, or of some person claiming it under a title created by the defaulter subsequent to the commencement of execution proceedings under sub-rules (3), (4) and (5) of rule 124, the officer conducting the execution shall, as soon as practicable, report the fact to the co-operative authority and the society applying for the execution of the said award or order.

(2) On receipt of a report under sub-rule (1), the society may, within six months from the date of receipt of the report or within such further period as may, for sufficient reasons, be allowed in any particular case by the Co-operative Authority, submit an application in writing to the Co-operative Authority, stating whether or not it agrees to take over such property.

(3) On receipt of an application under sub-rule (2), notices shall be issued to the defaulter and to all persons known to be interested in the property, including those whose names appear in the Record of Rights as persons holding any interest in the property, about the intended transfer.

(4) On receipt of such a notice, the defaulter, or any person owning such property, or holding an interest therein by virtue of a title acquired before the date of commencement of execution proceedings under sub-rules (3), (4) and (5) of rule 124 may, within one month from the date of receipt of such notice, deposit with the Co-operative Authority, for payment to the society a sum equal to the amount due under the order sought to be executed together with interest thereon and such additional sum for payment of costs and other incidental expenses as may be determined in this behalf by the Co-operative Authority.

(5) On failure of the defaulter, or any person interested, or any person holding any interest in the property, to deposit the amount under sub-rule (4), the co-operative authority shall direct the property to be transferred to the society or the Liquidator, as the case may be, and issue a certificate of transfer in Form 'P'.

(6) The certificate granted under sub-rule (5) shall state whether the property is transferred to the society in full or in partial satisfaction of the amount due to it from the defaulter.

(7) If the property is transferred to the society in partial satisfaction of the amount due to it from the defaulter, the Co-operative Authority may recover the balance due to the society in the manner laid down in section 91 of the Act.

(8) The transfer of the property under sub-rule (5) shall be effected as follows:—

(i) In the case of moveable property—

(a) where the property is in the possession of the defaulter himself or has been taken possession of on behalf of the Co-operative Authority, it shall be delivered to the society;

(b) where the property is in the possession of some person on behalf of a defaulter, the delivery thereof shall be made by giving notice to the person in possession directing him to give actual peaceful possession to the society and prohibiting him from delivering possession of the property to any other person;

(c) the property shall be delivered to a person authorised by the society to take possession on behalf of the society.

(ii) In the case of immovable property—

(a) where the property is growing or standing crop, it may be delivered to the society before it is cut and gathered and the society shall be entitled to enter on the land, and to do all that is necessary for the purpose of tending and cutting and gathering it;

(b) where the property is in the possession of the defaulter or of some person on his behalf or some one claiming under a title created by the defaulter subsequent to the commencement of execution proceedings under sub-rules (3), (4) and (5) of rule 124, the Co-operative Authority shall order delivery to be made by putting the society or any person whom the society may appoint to receive delivery on its behalf in actual possession of the property and if need be, by removing any person who illegally refuses to vacate the same;

(c) where the property is in the possession of a tenant or other person entitled to hold the same by a title acquired before the commencement of execution proceedings under sub-rules (3), (4) and (5) of rule 124, the Co-operative Authority shall order delivery to be made by affixing a copy of the certificate of transfer of the property to the society in some conspicuous place on the property and proclaiming to such person by any customary mode at some convenient place, that the interest of the defaulter has been transferred to the society.

(9) The society shall be required to pay expenses incidental to sale including the cost of maintenance of live-stock, if any, according to such scale as may be fixed by the Co-operative Authority from time to time.

(10) Where land is transferred to the society under sub-clause (a) of clause (ii) of sub-rule (8) before a growing or standing crop is cut and gathered, the society shall be liable to pay the current year's land revenue on the land.

(11) The society shall forthwith report any transfer of property under sub-clauses (b) or (c) of clause (ii) of sub-rule (8) to the revenue authority for information and entry in the Record of Rights.

(12) The society to which property is transferred under sub-rule (5) shall maintain for each such defaulter a separate account showing all the expenses incurred including payment to outside encumbrances, land revenue and other dues on the property and all the income derived from it.

(13) The society to which property is transferred under sub-rule (5) shall use its best endeavour to sell the property as soon as practicable to the best advantage of the society as well as that of the defaulter, the first option being always given to the defaulter who originally owned the property. The sale shall be subject to confirmation by the Co-operative Authority. The proceeds of the sale shall be applied to defraying the expenses of the sale and other expenses incurred by the society and referred to in sub-rules (9) and (12) and to the payment of the arrears due by the defaulter under the order in execution and surplus (if any), shall then be paid to the defaulter.

(14) Until the property is sold, the society to which the property is transferred under sub-rule (5) shall use its best endeavours to lease it or to make any other use that can be made of it so as to derive the largest possible income from the property.

(15) When the society to which property is transferred under sub-rule (5) has realised all its dues, under the order in execution of which the property was transferred, from the proceeds of management of the property, the property, if unsold, shall be restored to the defaulter.

Explanation:— In this rule, the word “society” includes the society under liquidation.

126. Payment of fees for decisions of disputes and execution of awards or orders.— (1) The fees payable to the Co-operative Authority for decision of disputes referred under section 83 of the Act, for recovery of losses under section 82 of the Act and execution of awards or orders under section 91 of the Act, shall be specified by the Registrar, by general or special order and such fees shall be payable to the Co-operative Authority as provided in sub-rule (2). In specifying the scale of fees, the Registrar shall provide different scale for “simple money claims”, “complicated money claims” and “other type of dispute”.

Explanation:— For the purpose of this sub-rule, “simple money claim” means the claim of a society the object clauses of which provide for sanction of credit to its members, based on loan bonds, promissory notes, admissions or an acknowledgement, and “complicated money claims” means all money claims other than simple money claims. The question regarding the classification of a dispute for the purpose of this sub-rule shall be decided by the Registrar or the Co-operative Authority deciding the dispute and the decision of the Registrar or the Co-operative Authority, as the case may be, shall be final.

(2) (i) The fees to be paid for disputes under section 83 of the Act shall be paid by the disputant to the Co-operative Authority on filing of the reference.

(ii) The fees in respect of recovery of losses under section 82 of the Act and execution of awards or orders under section 91 of the Act shall be paid by the concerned person or society as per the order of the Co-operative Authority.

(iii) The fees payable under clause (ii) above, if not paid as per the order of the Co-operative Authority, shall be recovered as arrears of land revenue.

CHAPTER X

Liquidation

127. Mode of communication of an interim order under section 92.— An interim order under sub-section (1) of section 92 of the Act shall be communicated by the Registrar by registered post (with acknowledgement due) to the society.

128. Cost of hearing appeal.— No appeal from a member under section 94 of the Act shall be entertained unless it is accompanied by a sum of Rs. 500/- or such higher amount not exceeding Rs. 1000/- as may be directed by the appellate authority as security for the cost of hearing the appeal.

129. Appointment of Liquidator and the procedure to be followed and powers to be exercised by him.— The following procedure shall be adopted for the appointment of the Liquidator and for the exercise of his powers, namely:-

(1) The appointment of the Liquidator shall be notified by the Registrar in the Official Gazette.

(2) As soon as may be after the interim order is issued under section 92 of the Act, the Liquidator shall take over the custody and control of all the property, effects and actionable claims and books, records and other documents pertaining to the business of the society and continue to hold custody and control thereof until the interim order is vacated.

(3) Where the interim order is vacated, the Liquidator shall take action in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (6) of section 93 of the Act.

(4) Where the Liquidator has received the Registrar's final order confirming the interim order, the Liquidator shall publish, by such means as he may think proper, a notice requiring all claims against the society to be notified to him within two months of the publication of the notice and shall thereafter proceed to take such further action as he is empowered to take under the Act. All liabilities recorded in the account books of the society shall be deemed ipso facto to have been duly notified to the Liquidator under this rule.

(5) The Liquidator shall, after settling the assets and liabilities of the society as they stood on the date on which the order for winding up is made, proceed to determine the contribution to be made or remaining to be made to the assets of the society by persons and estates referred to in clause (j) of sub-section (1) of section 95 of the Act and by order, call upon each of them to pay the amount specified in the order as contribution and as costs of the liquidation determined under clause (m) of sub-section (1) of section 95 of the Act. Every such order shall be submitted for approval to the Registrar, who may modify it or refer it back to the Liquidator for further inquiry or other action or may forward it for execution under section 91 of the Act.

(6) If the sum assessed against any member is not recovered, the Liquidator may issue subsidiary order or orders against any other member or members to the extent of the liability of each for the debts of the society until the whole amount due from the members is recovered. The provisions of sub-rule (5) shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to such orders.

(7) The Liquidator shall submit a quarterly progress report and such other returns and statements to the Registrar in such forms as the Registrar may require, showing the progress made in the liquidation of the society.

(8) The Liquidator may empower any person, by general or special order in writing, to make collections and to grant valid receipts, on his behalf.

(9) Unless otherwise permitted by the Registrar all funds in charge of the Liquidator shall be deposited in the apex co-operative bank and shall stand in the name of the Liquidator.

(10) The Registrar shall fix the amount of remuneration, if any, to be paid to the Liquidator and the remuneration shall be included in the cost of liquidation which shall be payable out of the assets of the society in priority to other claims.

(11) The Liquidator shall have power to call meeting of members of the society in liquidation.

(12) The Liquidator may submit an application to the Registrar, for the reconstruction of the society under section 16 of the Act if he is of the opinion that such reconstruction has a reasonable chance of success.

(13) The Liquidator may, at any time, be removed by the Registrar and he shall, on such removal, be bound to hand over all the property and documents relating to the society in liquidation to such person or persons as the Registrar may direct.

(14) The Liquidator shall not exercise the powers under clauses (c), (f), (g), (h), (i), (j) and (k) of sub-section (1) of section 95 of the Act without the prior approval of the Registrar.

(15) The Liquidator shall keep such books and accounts as may, from time to time, be required by the Registrar.

(16) At the conclusion of the liquidation proceedings, a general meeting of the members of the society shall be called. At such meeting, the Liquidator shall summarise his proceedings, point out causes of the failure of the society, and report what sum, if any, remains in his possession after meeting all the liabilities of the society as determined under the rules and suggest how the surplus, if any, should be utilised.

130. Disposal of surplus assets.— Where the Registrar has to divide the surplus assets amongst members of the society which has been wound up, he shall divide them in proportion to the share capital held by each of such members or in any other suitable manner sanctioned by the Government in special cases.

131. Interest on amount due from a society under liquidation.— The creditor of a society, which is being wound up, may apply to the Liquidator, for payment of interest on any debt due from the society upto the date of the Registrar's order for winding up. The rate at which interest shall be paid shall be, in the case of a Co-operative bank permitted by the Registrar to finance societies, the contract rate and in any other case, the rate which may be fixed by the Registrar which shall not exceed the contract rate:

Provided that, if any surplus assets remain after all the liabilities, including liabilities on shares, have been paid off, further interest on such debts at a rate to be fixed by the Registrar but not exceeding the contract rate may be allowed to the creditors from the date mentioned above upto the date of the repayment of the principal.

132. Disposal of records of society whose registration is cancelled.— (1) When an order directing a society to be wound up is issued under section 92 of the Act and no Liquidator is appointed, the Officers of the society which is wound up, shall, within fifteen days of the publication of the order in the Official Gazette, send by registered post, the records and books of the society to the Registrar or to the Assistant Registrar or hand over the same to the auditor.

(2) As soon as may be after the affairs of a society for which a Liquidator has been appointed have been wound up and an order cancelling the registration is made under section 19 of the Act, the Liquidator shall forward all the books and records of the wound up society and all his own papers and proceedings, by hand delivery or registered post to the Registrar or the Assistant Registrar concerned together with an account of his expenses, showing how the balance has been disposed off and attaching the receipt of the person to whom it was handed over.

(3) All the books and records of a society, whose registration has been cancelled, and the proceedings of liquidation, shall be destroyed by the Registrar or the Assistant Registrar, as the case may be, after the expiry of two years from the date of the order cancelling the registration of the society.

CHAPTER XI

Co-operative Housing Societies

133. Fees for non-occupancy of plot or dwelling unit.— A member of a co-operative housing society who has been given consent under section 107 of the Act for parting possession of his plot of land or dwelling unit shall pay every month to the society a non-occupancy fee not exceeding 5% of the fees or compensation as provided in the document between the member and sub-allottee as may be laid down in the bye-laws of the society:

Provided that no such fees shall be paid if possession of such plot or dwelling unit is parted with by a member, to a member of his family as defined in 'Explanation' under section 6 of the Act.

134. Fees and premium for transfer of shares or interest of the member.— (1) A member whose application for transfer of shares and occupancy right in the property of the society is accepted by the society shall pay transfer fees not exceeding Rs. 1,000/- as may be provided in the bye-laws of the society and an amount of premium not exceeding 1 % of the value of the plot or dwelling unit as shown in the transfer document:

Provided that no such premium shall be paid in the matter of a transfer to a member of a family as defined in 'Explanation' to section 6 of the Act.

(2) In case of transfer of share and interest or occupancy right from individual member to joint member, such transfer fee and premium shall also be payable.

(3) The amount of transfer fees shall be credited by the Society to its reserve fund and the amount of premium shall be credited to a fund called “common amenities fund” to be used for common amenities in the society.

135. Contribution for repairs and maintenance expenses.— A member shall pay contribution to the society at the rate per square metre of the built up area/super built area of each unit as may be provided on an equitable basis in the bye-laws of the society.

136. Certificate of allotment of plot/dwelling unit/commercial unit.— The certificate of allotment of plot/dwelling unit and commercial unit to be issued by the society under section 104 of the Act shall be in Form ‘Q’.
