(Before Shri Suresh N. Narulkar, Hon'ble Presiding Officer)

Case No. Ref. LC-II/C-IT/03/2019

Shri Gopal Hari Naik,
R/o. Torsem, Pernem, Goa Workman/Party-I
V/s

M/s. Kadamba Transport Corporation Ltd.,
Paraise de Goa,
Alto-Porvorim, Goa Employer/Party-II
Workman/Party-I represented by Adv. Shri A.
Kundaikar.

Workman/Party-II represented by Adv. Shri P.
Agarwal.

Panaji, Dated: 27-07-2021.

AWARD

1. This Award shall determine the complaint dated 17-12-2018 filed by the Workman u/s 33-A of the I.D. Act, 1947.

2. It is the case of the Party I/Workman (for short, 'the Workman') in brief that the Government of Goa, by its order dated 18-10-2016, was pleased to refer an Industrial Dispute in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (d) of sub-section (1) of Section (10) of the I.D. Act, 1947 for adjudication to the Industrial Tribunal as to whether the action of the Employer/Party-II (for short "Employer") in withholding his annual increment w.e.f. 1998, thereby depriving him of the monetary benefits is legal and justified. He stated that pursuant to the said order, this Hon'ble Court registered the case as No. REF LC-II/IT/17/16 and is pending for its adjudication before this court. He stated that during the pendency of the said reference, the Employer was pleased to extend the monetary benefits of seventh central pay commission to its employees w.e.f. 01-11-2018 in terms of its BOD decision taken vide resolution No. 93/17. He stated that on the recommendation of departmental screening committee, he was granted second up-gradation in the pay band of Rs. 5200-20200 + 2800 Grade Pay under the Modified Assured Progression Scheme (MACP). He stated that his basic was fixed at Rs. 11870/- plus Rs. 2800/- grade pay w.e.f. 07-01-2015. He stated that he was released with the revision in pay scale from time to time which were extended to the Employer Corporation. He stated that however, on a spacious plea of pendency of the dispute before the Industrial Tribunal, the benefits of seventh central pay commission was deferred till the dispute under sixth pay commission which are pending before the various court of law are resolved/settled. He stated that his reference pertaining to the withholding of the annual increment for the year 1998 is pending before this Labour Court II and bears No. LC-II/IT/17/16 and not related to the sixth central pay commission. He submitted that he has been released with the sixth central pay commission and therefore he is entitled for seventh pay commission which has been made applicable in the corporation. He stated that a memorandum of settlement was signed under Section 12 (3) r/w Section 18 (3) wherein it has been stated that the Employer has agreed to bind themselves by revised pay scale till such time the scales of pay and other benefits are further revised in future in respect of Government servants/employees. He stated that in accordance with the provisions contained in Rule 10 of CCS (RP) Rules, 2008 states that there will be uniform date of annual increment viz. 01st July of every year. He stated that employees completing six months and above in the revised pay structure as on 1st July will be eligible for grant of increment on 01-01-2006 in the pre-revised scale as one time measure. He stated that the said office memorandum was adopted by the Government and therefore the same is applicable to the Employer Corporation in view of the settlement. The Employer stated that the sixth central pay commission recommended MACP and the dispute is not in respect of sixth central pay commission as he is made eligible for sixth central pay commission by virtue of memorandum of settlement. He stated that by order dated 09-11-2018, the General Manager of the Employer has given the benefit of revised pay commission to him and the entitlement of seventh pay commission was deferred till the dispute pending before the Labour Court is resolved/settled. He stated that neither the Workman was given personal hearing nor sought explanation for extension of seventh central pay recommendation. He stated that the Employer failed to seek approval of the Labour Court II before deferring the implementation of seventh central pay commission as the adjudication was pending before the said court. He submitted that the action of the General Manager is vindictive and amounts to unfair labour practice. He submitted that the General Manager has no right of what so ever nature to pass the impugned order altering the service conditions to his prejudice. He submitted that the action of the General Manager of the Employer is in abuse of process of law and is liable for action for violation of Section 33-A of the I.D. Act. The Workman therefore prayed that his complaint be allowed by holding that the deferring of seventh central pay commission is illegal and consider him for the eligibility of the seventh central pay commission from the date of entitlement with consequential benefits in accordance with seventh pay commission.

3. The Employer resisted the claim of the Workman by filing its reply dated 19-09-2018. The Employer, as and by way of its reply, submitted that the complaint is liable to be dismissed as there is no alterations of service conditions as alleged by the Complainant and that what is referred for adjudication is not a complaint as defined u/s 33-A of the I.D. Act. The employer stated that the complainant has not only suppressed the material facts from this Hon'ble Court but has made misleading statements.

4. The Employer stated that it is a Government Company registered under Section 617 of the Companies Act, 1956. The Employer stated that it is a State Transport Undertaking under the purview of M.T. Act, 1988. The Employer admitted that the dispute in reference No. IT/17/2016 was raised by the Complainant pertaining to the legality and justifiability of the action of the Employer in withholding his annual increment w.e.f. 1998 thereby depriving him of monetary benefits. The Employer stated that the said dispute is pending for its adjudication before this Labour Court. The Employer stated that it has issued an order dated 29-11-2018 stating that in terms of BOD decision taken vide resolution No. 93/17 in the 213th board meeting held on 29-12-2017. The Employer stated that subsequent Government approval conveyed by the Directorate of Transport, vide its letter dated 22-11-2018, thereby the management of the Employer was pleased to extend the monetary benefit of seventh central pay commission to its staff/employees w.e.f. 01-11-2018. The Employer stated that it is further stated that the benefit of the revised pay commission of the employees as shown under Annexure 'A' and 'B' have been deferred till the disputes under sixth pay commission which are pending before the various courts of law are resolved/settled. The Employer stated that the above mentioned benefits of the revised pay commission was due to condition mentioned in the circular dated 27-11-2017 issued by the department of finance, Government of Goa. The Employer denied the overall case as pleaded by the Complainant by stating that there has been no violation of Section 33 (1) of the I.D. Act in the present case. The Employer therefore prayed for dismissal of the present complaint.

5. Thereafter, the Workman filed his re-joinder on 07-10-2019 at Exb. 10. The Party-I, by way of his Re-joinder, denied each and every statement, averments and submissions made by the Employer Company vide their Written Statement filed in the present proceedings and reiterates and confirms the statements, averments and submissions made by him in his statement of claim. He stated that the written statement filed by the Employer and duly verified by its Managing Director is contemporary and frivolous and is therefore liable for perjury for making a false statement in affidavit filed before the Hon'ble High Court.

6. Based on the pleadings filed by the respective parties, this court framed the following issues on 18-10-2019 at Exb. 10.

1. Whether the complainant proves that the action of the Opponent in deferring the benefits of the Seventh Central Pay Commission is illegal and unjustified?
2. Whether the Complainant proves that his service conditions has been altered pending the dispute before this court?
3. Whether the Opponent proves that the complaint of the Complainant is liable to be dismissed? in view of the reasons as stated in para 2 (a) & (b) of its reply?
4. What Order? What Award?

7. After framing the issues, the case was fixed for filing the affidavit in evidence of the complainant. However, on account of pandemic COVID-19, case was adjourned from time to time, though the complainant remained absent on the scheduled dates of hearings till 19-01-2021. On 05-07-2021, the complainant remained present in person and the Employer represented by Adv. Shri P. Agarwal. The complainant filed an application for withdrawing of his complaint which is on record at Exb. 12 and prayed for withdrawal of the said complaint. No objection has been given by the Ld. Adv. Shri P. Agarwal, appearing for the Employer. It is the complainant who had filed the present complaint claiming to be in violation of Section 33 of the I.D. Act, 1947, filed an application for withdrawal of his complaint stating that he has no more claim and grievances against the Employer. Hence, the application filed by the complainant for withdrawal of his complaint is hereby allowed. Consequently, the complaint filed by the complainant stands disposed off as withdrawn.

In view of the above, I pass the following Order.

ORDER

1. The present complaint filed by the complainant u/s 33-A of the Industrial disputes Act, 1947 stands dismissed as withdrawn.
2. The complainant is not entitled to any relief.
3. No Order as to cost.
