CHAPTER II

Minimum Wages

3. Manner of calculating the minimum rate of wages.— (1) For the purposes of sub-section (5) of Section 6, the minimum rate of wages shall be fixed on the day basis considering the following criteria, namely:—

- (i) the standard working class family which includes a spouse and two children apart from the earning employee; and equivalent of three adult consumption units;
- (ii) a net intake of 2700 calories per day per consumption unit;
- (iii) 66 meters cloth, per year, per standard working class family;
- (iv) housing rent expenditure to constitute 10 percent of food and clothing expenditure;
- (v) fuel, electricity and other miscellaneous items of expenditure to constitute 20 percent of minimum wage; and
- (vi) expenditure for children education, medical requirement, recreation and expenditure on contingencies to constitute 25 percent of minimum wage.

(2) When the rate of wages for a day is fixed, then, such amount shall be divided by eight for fixing the rate of wages for an hour and multiplied by twenty six for fixing the rate of wages for a month and in such division and multiplication the factors of one-half and more than one-half shall be rounded as next figure and the factors less than one-half shall be ignored. In case of a five day working week, the hourly rate of minimum wages so calculated shall be used to derive the minimum wages for the day.

4. Norms for fixation of minimum rate of wages.— (1) While fixing the minimum rate of wages under Section 6, the Government shall take into account the following:—

- (i) geographical areas,
- (ii) experience in the area of employment, and
- (iii) level of skill required for working under the categories of unskilled, semi-skilled, skilled and highly skilled.

(2) The Government shall constitute a technical committee for the purpose of advising the Government in respect of skill categorization of occupation, arduousness of work, hazardous occupations or processes and underground work and like other categorization. The committee shall consist of the following members, namely:—

- (i) Secretary Labour, Government of Goa — Chairperson;
- (ii) A representative from the Department of Skill Development and Entrepreneurship, Government of Goa, dealing with skill development — Member;
- (iii) Four representatives, two each of employer and employees, expert in wage determination, as nominated by the Government — Members;
- (iv) One technical expert in wage determination as nominated by the Government — Member.
- (v) Commissioner, Labour and Employment — Member Secretary;

(3) The Government shall, on the advice of the technical committee by a notification in respect of categorization of occupations of the employees in four categories, namely, unskilled, semi-skilled, skilled and highly skilled, modify, delete or add any entry in the categorization of such occupations in Schedule-A.

(4) The technical committee shall while advising the Government take into account, to the possible extent, the national classification of occupation or national skills qualification frame work or other similar frame work for the time being formulated to identify occupations.

5. Interval for revision of variable dearness allowance.— Endeavour shall be made so that the cost of living allowance and the cash value of the concession in respect of essential commodities at concession rate shall be computed once before 1st April and 1st October in every year to revise the variable dearness allowance payable to the employees on the minimum wages considering the Average Consumer Price Index Number for Industrial Workers published by the Labour Bureau, Ministry of Labour and Employment, Government of India.

6. Number of hours of work which shall constitute a normal working day.— (1) The number of hours of work which shall constitute a normal working day inclusive of one or more specified intervals shall be as per general or special order, issued by the Government from time to time.

(2) The period of work of an employee shall be so arranged that inclusive of the intervals of rest the spread over shall not exceed the number of hours as per general or special order, issued by the Government from time to time.

7. Weekly day of rest.— (1) Subject to the provisions of this rule, an employee shall be allowed rest of one day or more than one day as the case may be, every week (hereinafter referred to as “the rest day”) which in case of six day week shall ordinarily be Sunday and in case of less than six day week shall include Saturday and Sunday, but the employer may fix any other day of the week as the rest day for any employee or class of employees:

Provided that in six day working week or less than six days working week, as the case may be, the remaining days of the week shall be paid rest days for such employees:

Provided further that an employee shall be entitled for the rest days under this sub-rule, if he has worked under the same employer in case of six day week for a continuous period of not less than six days and in case of less than six day working week a continuous period of the stipulated number of working days as the case may be.

Provided also that the employee shall be informed of the days fixed as the rest days and of any subsequent change in the rest days before the change is effected, by display of a notice to that effect at a conspicuous place in the place of employment.

Explanation.— For the purpose of computation of the continuous period of not less than six days or the stipulated number of working days in a week specified in the second proviso to this sub-rule,—

(a) any day on which an employee is required to attend for work but is given only an allowance for attendance and is not provided with work;

(b) any day on which an employee is laid off on payment of compensation under the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (14 of 1947), and

(c) any leave or holiday, with or without pay, granted by the employer to an employee in the period of six days or during the stipulated number of working days of a week as the case may be, immediately preceding the rest days, shall be deemed to be days on which the employee has worked.

(2) Any such employee shall not be required or allowed to work on the rest day unless he has or will have a substituted rest day for a whole day on one of the five days immediately before or after the rest day:

Provided that no substitution shall be made which will result in the employee working for more than ten days consecutively without a rest day for a whole day.

(3) Where in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this rule, any employee works on a rest day and has been given a substituted rest day on any one of the working days before or after the rest day, the rest day shall, for the purpose of calculating the weekly hours of work, be included in the week in which the substituted rest day occurs.

(4) An employee shall be granted for the rest day wages calculated at the rate applicable to the next preceding day; and where he works on the rest day and has been given a substituted rest day, then, he shall be paid wages for the rest day on which he worked, at the overtime rate and wages for the substituted rest day at the rate applicable to the next preceding day:

Provided that in case of six day week where,—

(i) the minimum rate of wages of the employee as notified under this Code has been worked out by dividing the minimum monthly rate of wages by twenty-six; or

(ii) where the actual daily rate of wages of the employee has been worked out by dividing the monthly rate of wages by twenty-six and such actual daily rate of wages is not less than the notified minimum daily rate of wages of the employee, then, no wages for the rest day shall be payable; and

(iii) in case the employee works on the rest day and has been given a substituted rest day, he shall be paid, only for the rest day on which he worked, an amount equal to the wages payable to him at the overtime rate; and, if any dispute arises whether the daily rate of wages has been worked out as aforesaid the Commissioner may, on application made to him in this behalf, decide the same, after giving an opportunity to the parties concerned to make written representations:

Provided further that, in case of an employee governed by a piece-rate system, he shall be paid wages for the rest day on which he works, at the overtime rate and wages for the substituted rest day at the rate applicable to the next preceding day.

Explanation.— For the purposes of this sub-rule ‘next preceding day’ means the last day on which the employee has worked, which precedes the rest day or the substituted rest day, as the case may be; and where the substituted rest day falls on a day immediately after the rest day, the next preceding day means the last day on which the employee has worked, which precedes the rest day.

(5) The provisions of this rule shall not operate to the prejudice of more favourable terms, if any, to which an employee may be, entitled under any other law or under the terms of any award, agreement or contract of service, and in such a case, the employee shall be entitled only to more favourable terms aforesaid.

Explanation.— For the purposes of this rule, ‘week’ shall mean a period of seven days beginning at midnight on Saturday night.

8. Night shifts.— Where an employee in an employment works on a shift which extends beyond midnight, then,—

(a) a rest day for the whole day for the purposes of rule 7 shall mean a period of twenty four consecutive hours beginning from the time when his shift ends; and

(b) the following day in such a case shall be deemed to be the period of twenty-four hours beginning from the time when such shift ends, and the hours after midnight during which such employee was engaged in work shall be counted towards the previous day.

9. The extent and conditions for the purposes of sub-section (2) of Section 13.— In case of employees,—

(a) engaged in any emergency which could not have been foreseen or prevented;

(b) engaged in work of the nature of preparatory or complementary work which must necessarily be carried on outside the limits laid down for the general working in the employment concerned;

(c) whose employment is essentially intermittent;

(d) engaged in any work which for technical reasons has to be completed before the duty is over; and

(e) engaged in a work which could not be carried on except at times dependent on the irregular action of natural forces, the number of hours of work which shall constitute a normal working day inclusive of one or more specified intervals and the spread over of the hours of work of the employee, may exceed the number of hours as specified by general or special order, issued from time to time, under rule 6.

10. Longer wage period.— The longer wage period for the purposes of minimum rate of wages under Section 14 shall be by the month.

CHAPTER III

Payment of Wages

11. Circumstances under Clause (ii) of the Proviso to Section 10.— An employee shall not be entitled to receive wages for a full normal working day under Section 10, if he is not entitled to receive such wage under any other law for the time being in force.

12. Recovery of excess amount under sub-section (4) of Section 18.— Where the total deductions authorized under sub-section (2) of Section 18 exceed fifty per cent of the wages of an employee, the excess shall be carried forward and recovered from the wages of succeeding wage period or wage periods, as the case may be, in such installments so that the recovery in any month shall not exceed the fifty per cent of the wages of the employee in that month.

13. The authority for imposition fine under sub-section (1) of Section 19.— The Deputy Labour or the Assistant Labour Commissioner having jurisdiction over the place of work of the employee concerned, shall be the authority for purposes of sub-section (1) of Section 19.

14. The manner of exhibiting notice under sub-section (2) of Section 19.— A notice specified under sub-section (2) of Section 19 shall be displayed in physical form or electronically in Hindi, English and local language at the conspicuous places in the premises of the work place in which the employment is carried on or shall be shared with the employees in electronic form so that every concerned employee would be able easily read the contents of the notice and a copy of the notice shall be sent electronically or by registered post or hand delivery to the Inspector-cum-Facilitator having jurisdiction.

15. The procedure under sub-section (3) of Section 19.— The employer shall give an intimation electronically or in writing specifying therein the detailed particulars for obtaining the approval of the imposition of fine to the Commissioner, who shall, before granting or refusing the approval, give opportunity of being heard to the employee and the employer concerned and shall dispose of the matter within 30 days from the date of receiving such intimation failing which it shall be deemed to be approved.

16. Intimation of deduction.— (1) Where an employer makes any deduction in pursuance of the proviso to sub-section (2) of Section 20, he shall make intimation electronically or by registered post or hand delivery of such deduction to the Inspector-cum-Facilitator having jurisdiction within 10 days from the date of such deduction explaining therein the reason of such deduction.
